

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at `http://books.google.com/`

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, MIDDLETOWN;
TUESDAY, JUNE 9, 1908.

This being the day appointed by the Constitution and the place designated by the Bishop, the Annual Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut assembled at 9.30 A. M.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Right Reverend Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rev. Doctors Storrs O. Seymour, Samuel Hart, Stewart Means, the Rev. George T. Linsley and the Rev. M. George Thompson, members of the Standing Committee, and the Rev. E. Campion Acheson, Rector of the Parish.

In place of a Sermon the Bishop delivered that part of his Annual Address which had reference to deceased Clergymen and laymen. (See page 65.)

The music was rendered by a male choir, vested, and reinforced with Clergymen.

The Offertory was for General Missions.

The service ended, the Bishop took the chair about 11.15 A. M.

On motion, the roll-call was dispensed with; and, by means of cards deposited at the door, it was ascertained that 129 Clergymen were present, whose names are indicated by an asterisk in the list on pages 14-23. Lay Delegates to the number of 153, representing 99 Parishes, and two Delegates from Organized Missions, were also present, whose names are marked with an asterisk on pages 29-36.

A quorum of both orders being present, the Convention was declared duly organized.

The Rev. Frederick W. Harriman, D.D., was by ballot unanimously elected Secretary; and he appointed as his Assistants the Rev. John F. Plumb and the Rev. Samuel R. Colladay.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Hart, Rule of Order I., (15), was amended by inserting the words, "and the election of representatives to the Missionary Council of the First Missionary Department."

And the Bishop requested the Standing Committee to act as the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese during his absence from the country.

He also gave notice, as requested by Dr. Anstice, of the terms on which copies of the Journal and Canons of the General Convention can be had by Clergymen and others.

Mr. Charles H. Tibbits presented the following

REPORT ON BETTER SUPPORT FOR THE CLERGY

To the Diocesan Convention of Connecticut:

Your Committee appointed a year ago to investigate the matter of the "Better Support of the Clergy" have performed their duties as far as possible and beg leave to report as follows.

Early last fall a circular letter was sent out from the Committee to every member of the Clergy in the Diocese. The results were as follows:

Number of Clergy written to,	138
" " " responding,	84
" " " not heard from,	54
Those receiving salary of $4,000,	2
" " " " $3,000 to $4,000,	5
" " " " $2,000 to $3,000,	12
" " " " $1,000 to $2,000,	40
" " " " less than $1,000,	26
Highest salary paid,	$4,000.00
Lowest " "	425.00

From the above figures it will be noted that about 40 per cent. of the Clergy written to have not responded; also that about two-thirds of those responding received $1,000 or more as salary. In most cases no house rent is paid.

It seems to your Committee that there are only two ways of approaching this matter. One is to urge the Parish itself to add to the salary of its Rector in such cases as seem most necessary; the other is to aid the needy and deserving Clergy by some form of subscription or endowment outside their own Parish.

On account, however, of the recent financial depression it has been utterly impossible to operate successfully in either of these directions; and your Committee therefore suggest that on account of the present stagnation of business no immediate action be taken, but that the Committee be continued for another year, in the hope and belief that during such period it will be possible to come to some satisfactory conclusion.

Respectfully submitted,

C. H. TIBBITS, Chairman,
JAS. J. GOODWIN,
F. J. KINGSBURY, JR.,
WALTON FERGUSON,
NELSON J. WELTON,
Committee.

WALLINGFORD, CONN., June 6, 1908.

The Report was accepted and the Committee continued.

REPORT ON APPORTIONMENT FOR GENERAL MISSIONS

The Committee to which was referred the duty of apportioning to the several Parishes and Missions their share of the amount which this Diocese was requested to contribute to the General Missionary work of the Church, met and having made such Apportionment, adjourned.

On behalf of the Committee,

REPORT ON MEN'S MISSIONARY THANK-OFFERING

The Committee on Men's Missionary Thank-Offering reports that the Diocese of Connecticut presented its gift of $13,339.55 at the last General Convention in Richmond. Of this sum the Parishes of Fairfield Archdeaconry contributed $1,465.91; of Litchfield, $713.88; of New Haven, $2,721.43; of Hartford, $3,993.90; of Middlesex, $388.87; of New London, $421.66; and $3,537.90 came from The Missionary Enrolment Fund (see page 42). A full and detailed statement of the offering by Parishes has already been printed in "The Connecticut Churchman" for November, 1907, to which the members of this Convention are referred.

Respectfully submitted,

E. DEF. MIEL.

The Report was accepted and the Committee was discharged.

The Rev. Mr. Miel also presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON SOCIAL SERVICE AND SOCIAL RESEARCH

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut:

In his last annual Address the Bishop of the Diocese recommended the appointment of a Commission on Social Service and Social Research, to define the social mission of this Church and the service due from her members to the community at large.

We recognize that the subject is one of great latitude, involving, as it does, corporate activity on a large scale. At the same time, it should command the immediate attention of our people and receive their earnest and active interest as having to do with a function of the Church which cannot be disregarded without impoverishing her influence and denying her high vocation as a social institution.

In order to avoid an academic discussion of this matter your Committee has thought well to confine its attention to certain fields of activity into which we may well enter as a religious communion with a definite purpose of contributing to the common well-being some special benefit urgently needed at this time. Along general lines we suggest to the Parishes of this Diocese that they take into consideration the particular social needs of the localities in which they are situated, and study at first hand the conditions which surround them, with a view to the inauguration of any movement which they may require. It is altogether likely that associations already exist for various forms of social improvement; and in our judgment it would be a mistake to attempt to duplicate these by undertaking work of a similar nature upon strictly Church lines. The attitude of this communion towards the existing philanthropic and social organizations should be determined by the question of comity as well as the question of economy of effort and expense. If an organization already exists in a community and is doing good work in behalf of the people at large, it would be a doubtful measure, from a business point of view simply, for this Church to establish a rival institution to accomplish the same kind of work. Better service would be rendered by joining hand in hand with those who are back of such an enterprise and adding to its efficiency by such coöperation. On the other hand, in every community there are certain fields of philanthropic effort which are entirely uncultivated; and into these the Church should send its workers in the spirit of Christ, to the end that the kingdom of love and human kindness may be enlarged. The determining question under this head should always be, Does the need for the particular kind of work contemplated really exist? If that question is answered in the affirmative, after careful thought and prayer, then the Church must not delay to undertake the work as an essential part of its divine mission. Sometimes it will prove advisable simply to suggest the form of service required, and inspire some other organization not strictly ecclesiastical in its composition to carry it on; and sometimes it will need to conduct it in its own name and under its own auspices. Philanthropic and benevolent enterprises should often be inaugurated under Church influence, and in due time given over to others in order to insure a larger support and to effect more extended service. The mission of the Church is to lead the people in Christian effort, and to lay before them such lines of activity as may well invite the earnest and active effort of the largest number.

We call attention to the excellent work which has already been accomplished by such social effort as that which is represented by the Visiting Nurse Associations of Waterbury, Hartford, and other cities of this State. This enterprise has been fostered by the Church and has proved so effectual of good that it has become a matter of community interest and has enlisted the support of people generally without respect to religious affiliations. In any sizeable community such a work could be undertaken, particularly in those localities where the foreign population is large. Besides relieving the suffering which comes with illness, it affords an opportunity to give wholesome instruction in matters of hygiene, cleanliness and the like, to those who are living under unfavorable conditions. In promoting such a form of social service the initiative rests with the local Parish or Parishes; and in order that the enterprise may be the outgrowth of local interest and adapt itself to local needs, should have its rise among those who are immediately concerned with the improvement and care of people at their very doors.

The Church in the Diocese as a whole, however, might well address itself to this question of public health and accomplish much good by coöperating with other agencies created to study and to solve this problem. In addition to the State Commission on tuberculosis, there is also a State Commission on epilepsy which is endeavoring to secure suitable provision and treatment for this afflicted class. There is also a Connecticut Society for Mental Hygiene, which has for its purpose the education of the public towards improved conditions for the care of the insane and the gradual establishment of supplemental institutions for the treatment of the insane, such as are already employed in some other States and countries. This latter organization is not created by act of the Commonwealth, but is a voluntary society.

The responsibility for public health is a duty to which the whole Church is now becoming acutely sensitive. While the most effective service to be rendered for the suppression of disease must be learned by long and patient study, there are certain evils which call for prompt and vigorous action. As a single instance, the havoc which is being wrought by tuberculosis should inspire us to concerted effort toward the elimination of this plague. Connecticut has taken measures to arrest development of the disease by granting generous appropriations to two sanitoria for consumptives in the counties of New Haven and Hartford. The Governor of the State has appointed an anti-tuberculosis Commission of nine physicians and other experts in the subject. We would call the attention of Churchmen in Connecticut to the work of this Commission, and urge that every opportunity be taken to offer it intelligent coöperation and support.

In the cities of New Haven and Hartford clinics have been opened by local associations to coöperate with the public dispensaries for the special treatment of tubercular cases. Visiting Nurse Associations coöperate with these clinics for the care of patients in their own homes, offering a valuable means of education in the proper treatment of the disease.

An outgrowth of this work in one New England city has been the organization in a large Parish of a class for sufferers from the early stages of tuberculosis. Twenty-five men and women meet every week by invitation of the Church to receive instructions from a specialist in self-nursing and proper sanitation. Another form of practical assistance in this educational campaign is the organization of volunteer visitors to supplement the work of nurses and create an interest in good hygiene.

In matters such as these we believe the Church should actively identify itself through all her members with those who have the subject in hand, and seek to increase the effectiveness of their work by contributing her cordial coöperation and energetic support. The Clergy can aid in the good work by presenting to their people from time to time the subject of social betterment in its various phases, and outlining such enterprises as are in existence, or as are planned, to effect the ends desired.

In one particular we desire to lay before this Convention a movement which is sorely needed, and into which we might put our united influence as a most necessary measure in the face of existing conditions.

No question is more distressing in its moral and physical aspects than that of intemperance, nor does any other question present such complicated and intricate problems. There is, however, a phase of this question which can be dealt with in a practical manner to good advantage, and promote a far more healthy condition of things than that which exists at the present time. In this Commonwealth a man who becomes so far addicted to the intemperate use of liquor as to have lost the power of self-control, or who has become an habitual drunkard, is subject to commitment to any suitable person or asylum for care, custody and treatment; but no provision is made by law for the maintenance of suitable asylums for the care and treatment of such individuals. Such persons are of course dependent in that they are in the vast majority of cases non-self-supporting, and not only a drain upon their families, but a source of evil example and criminal infection through their children and others, to an extent which can hardly be overestimated.

The statutes of the State of Connecticut provide as follows:

SECTION 2744. "When any person shall have become an habitual drunkard, a dipsomaniac, or so addicted to the intemperate use of narcotics or stimulants as to have lost the power of self-control, the court of probate for the district in which he resides, or is domiciled, shall, on application of the selectmen of the town where he resides, or is domiciled, or of any of his relatives, and after such reasonable notice to him as it may prescribe, make due inquiry, and, if it shall find him to be an habitual drunkard, or so far addicted to the intemperate use of narcotics or stimulants as to have lost the power of self-control, shall order him to be taken to some inebriate asylum in this state, for treatment, care, and custody, or committed to the care, custody and control of some suitable individual, for not less than four nor more than twelve months; but, if it shall find him to be a dipsomaniac, shall commit him to such asylum or individual for three years. The court shall not in either case make such order without the certificate, under oath, of at least two respectable practicing physicians, given after a personal examination, made within one week before the time of said application or commitment, that, in their opinion, such person has become a dipsomaniac or an habitual drunkard, or has, from the intemperate use of narcotics or stimulants, lost the power of self-control, and ought to be placed in care of some inebriate asylum, or of some suitable individual."

SECTION 2745. "Any person so committed as a dipsomaniac to any inebriate asylum in this state, may, after one year of treatment therein, be permitted by its managers to go at large on probation and without custody or restraint, for such time and under such conditions as they shall judge best."

SECTION 2746. "The managers, trustees, or directors of any inebriate asylum, established by the laws of this state, may receive any inebriate or dipsomaniac who shall apply to be received into such asylum, retain him one year, and treat and restrain him in the same manner as if committed by the court of probate."

SECTION 2747. "Sheriffs, constables, and city police officers shall assist the managers, trustees, and directors of any inebriate asylum established by law in the exercise of the powers and discharge of the duties vested by law in such managers, trustees, and directors."

SECTION 2748. "Persons placed in an inebriate asylum, under any provision of this chapter, may be discharged by its managers, pursuant to its regulations."

SECTION 2749. "The estate of any inebriate or dipsomaniac, received by or committed to any inebriate asylum, shall be liable for his support therein; and the expenses of any proceedings herein provided for shall be paid in the manner and by and to the person that the court or judge before whom the case shall be heard shall order and direct; and such court or judge is hereby authorized to issue execution for such costs accordingly."

The wise provisions above quoted must fail to accomplish the good intended as long as there are no asylums for the treatment and care of such persons in the State of Connecticut, except private institutions devoted to the care and treatment of mental and nervous disorders in a manner involving an expenditure entirely beyond the means of persons in ordinary circumstances of life. Persons of wealth can be cared for in these institutions at from ten to fifty dollars per week; but the cost is rarely less than fifteen or eighteen dollars; and probably 90 per cent., or more, of the persons who are inebriates or habitual drunkards have little or no estate of their own; and their income, and that of their families, is entirely taken away by the circumstances of their condition. There are thousands of homes in this State where the other wage-earners of the family are obliged to bear the expense of supporting, and the disgrace of having in their midst some father, mother, brother or sister whose condition is that described in the sections of the statutes above quoted; and for the reason that there is no alternative except a complaint to the police authorities, followed by a short commitment to jail with added disgrace and no good resulting therefrom. Furthermore, a continuance of home-life, under such conditions, not only brings disgrace upon all members of the family, but subjects each and every member thereof to the influence of a bad example, and in many cases offers an opportunity to infect the coming generations with an inheritance of evil appetites hardly possible to overcome. Surely, in a vast majority of such homes, a means of relief involving an expenditure little or no more than that incurred by the care and support of the inebriate or drunkard at home, would be gladly welcomed and taken advantage of.

The futility of dealing with such cases in jails and penal institutions has been clearly established beyond the slightest doubt. The usual sentence or commitments are for so short a period that no cure could possibly be effected, and none is attempted. Furthermore, the reputation of being a criminal breaks down what remaining self-respect there may be; and association with criminals opens the way for the birth and encouragement of vicious instincts where none may have previously existed.

In some way, a commitment to one of the State Hospitals for the Insane falls far short of meeting the desired end, because of the impropriety of classifying a person as insane who is in reality a drunkard, and must be treated as such; and, furthermore, because such institutions are built, equipped and maintained for an entirely different group of individuals, and are in no position to require that inmates shall work; while some occupation, during a portion of each day at least, is one of the most essential requirements in the treatment and cure of drunkards and inebriates. Yet recent reports show that nearly 30 per cent. of the persons committed each year to our State institutions for the insane at Middletown and Norwich owe their condition to intemperance; and each of these institutions is full to overflowing, so that extensive additions must be made at once if this policy is to be continued. This means an additional expense to the State to cover not only the erection of such additions, but the difference of $1.50 to $3.50 per week between what it costs to support each inmate in idleness and what is contributed by friends. On the other hand, an independent and public asylum for the care, custody and treatment of inebriates and habitual drunkards could probably be maintained free of cost to the State if profit-earning work were required and those inmates who were not paupers were required to pay $3.00 a week.

The expense of maintaining patients in the State Hospitals for the Insane is not over $3.50 a week; and they perform no work that is productive beyond that involved in the care of the grounds and buildings and equipment. In the Connecticut State Prison the total cost of maintenance, including all wages, salaries, repairs, provisions, supplies, clothing, fuel and insurance, is but little over $3.25 a week for each prisoner; and the actual cost to the State, after deducting the profits of the work done by the prisoners, is but little over $1.00 a week per prisoner. It further appears from the recent reports of the State Hospitals for the Insane, that 60 per cent. of the commitments are classed as paupers; and that the remaining 40 per cent. of admissions are of persons whose friends pay at least $2.00 a week in order that they may not be classed as paupers, even though their treatment and accommodations are the same in all respects.

There is no reason why these figures and percentages should not hold good in an institution such as we are discussing. The cost per inmate per week should not exceed that in the State Hospitals for the Insane, $3.50. The profit on the work done per week per inmate should equal that in the State Prison, $2.25; leaving a net cost of $1.25 per week per inmate. The percentage of cases where friends would be willing to contribute in order to avoid the brand of pauper should be about the same, namely, 40 per cent.; which would make the cost to them two and one-half times $1.25, or $3.12½ per week, if the State paid nothing. Probably if those who paid were given certain advantages, such as separate rooms like those given to each inmate of the State Hospitals for the Insane, and the paupers were forced to occupy dormitories, the proportions would be altered so that $3.00 a week paid by those not paupers would cover the entire expense of maintaining the institution.

Such an institution should not be classed so much as a Reformatory as a State Sanitarium, a place for the cure of the mentally or nervously sick, rather than for the punishment and reform of the vicious and criminal; and the ability and opportunity which any such institution might have to reach the classes in need of its help would be very much restricted if it came to have the reputation of being in any sense a penal or criminal institution.

Such an institution should be located in the country, remote from the centers of population so that a reasonable freedom and opportunity to be out of doors could be safely allowed to the inmates; but still it should be reasonably accessible for visitors and freight. The cost of building and equipment would have to be paid for by the State; but your Commission believes that the saving in the cost of additions to jails, insane retreats and other institutions would more than pay for such building and equipment; and that by having such an institution the State would in addition relieve itself of the expense of maintenance of persons in jail, where they derive no benefit, and in insane retreats, where they have no right to be, and provide a means for purifying the communities and homes in this State and making new men and women out of many who now have no chance to do better.

Your Commission does not feel that any other change in the law is necessary than to give to police magistrates a similar authority to that given to probate courts under the provisions of the statutes quoted in an earlier part of this report; but we do recommend suitable action on the part of this Convention and the laymen in this Diocese to secure the appropriation of a sufficient sum by the Legislature of the State for the erection and equipment of such an institution, and the coöperation of other bodies, religious and lay, in the furtherance of this important project.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON WORK AMONG FOREIGNERS

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Commission appointed at the last Diocesan Convention to consider what service the Church may render to the immigrants recently come into the Diocese begs leave to present the following report.

The rapidly changing character of our population resulting from the enormous influx of immigrants demands earnest and immediate attention. Connecticut is becoming a State of the foreign-born. Of every one hundred of our population, sixty-five are of foreign parentage. In the years 1900 to 1906 there came into Connecticut people from thirty-one nationalities, to the number of 136,870. Italy alone has 70,000 of her sons and daughters in our State; while of the Swedes we are told that enough come each year to make a town equal in size to Norfolk, Tolland or Madison. Only two States in the Union exceed Connecticut in percentage of foreign parentage, and these are our neighbors, Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

These facts challenge our earnest study. We cannot ignore them. The foreign-born are found in every walk in life, professional, industrial and mercantile. They make a valuable contribution to our body politic, and are most welcome. Upon them and their children we are depending more and more for the support of our public institutions. To them the towns and communities of Connecticut must look largely for the maintenance of what is best in our Commonwealth. To forget this will be a colossal blunder. Therefore it is that the welfare of our State as well as that of the stranger within our gates demands our most profound and earnest attention. What kind of citizens shall these strangers become? Largely what we make them by our teaching and example. To whom shall the Church in Connecticut look largely for membership and support? To these same people now crowding within our borders. Their welfare and ours stand mutually related. They need us, and we need them; and in them we are finding splendid possibilities. Christian brotherliness and Christian statesmanship make it imperative that we take them widely into consideration in our Church plans and work. And for this our Church is peculiarly adapted. For these people have been trained in the use of a Liturgy, the Church Year, and the Sacramental System. This gives us a natural claim and advantage which we shall do ill to disregard. Not that we are to proselyte, or set up altar against altar, or disturb the faith of the faithful; but rather to shepherd the shepherdless, to give faith to the weak in faith, and to offer the Church's hospitality in its largest sense to those away from the sustaining influence of their former religious life. And to this end we earnestly suggest and commend the following:

First, That there be procured or published in attractive form, in such languages as need may arise, a brief statement of the position, doctrine and worship of this Church, showing her to be at once Catholic and American, "owning no foreign allegiance, yet having characteristics which transcend the inevitably sectional and somewhat provincial limitations of certain other religious bodies"; this statement to be subject to the approval of the Bishop.

Second, That encouragement be given to religious workers speaking foreign tongues, in their efforts to attach their former fellow-countrymen, scattered in our towns and villages, to our Churches.

Third, That devoted and systematic attention be given to bringing into our Sunday Schools the children of the foreign-born who are now unattached.

Fourth, The offer of the hospitality of our Churches and Chapels to such groups of Communicants as desire the ministration, in their native language, of such Priests as are permitted to officiate in Churches of our Anglican Communion, e. g., Russo-Greek Church Priests.

Fifth, The distribution and use among Swedes of leaflets containing Morning and Evening Prayer and the Communion Office in the Swedish language, and among Italians, of our Book of Common Prayer in the Italian language; whereby these people, long trained to a Liturgy, may the more readily and intelligently join in our services.

Sixth, That careful observation be made of youths from other lands, with a view to securing Candidates for Holy Orders able to speak in some foreign language, the better to enable the Church to minister to immigrants; and that the special opportunities for those speaking languages of our immigrants be commended to students for Holy Orders.

Seventh, The preparation and distribution of small books or leaflets containing selected Offices of the Church in English, with an accompanying translation (e. g., into Italian), on alternate pages. It is suggested that such books might be the more welcome as furnishing, incidentally, a convenient means of acquiring English.

Eighth, That this Commission be authorized to continue its investigations, and report to the next Convention.

Ninth, That the Convention appropriate Two Hundred Dollars, to be used by the Bishop in carrying out such recommendations of this report as may be adopted by this Convention and may seem to him to have most immediate urgency.

Respectfully submitted,

The Rev. Dr. Seymour presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON PAROCHIAL ARCHIVES

The Permanent Commission on Parochial Archives respectfully presents its tenth annual Report.

The work of the Commission, as in several previous years, has been along the line of searching for items of Connecticut Church History among the archives of the American Church; and this has been carried on through the faithful and painstaking labors of our colleague, the Rev. Joseph Hooper. It has further consisted in putting the results of our past investigations into form available for future use. This was the particular phase of the work to which the Commission committed itself in its last Report; and it was for this we understand that the Appropriation, which was made by the last Convention, was intended to provide.

In the doing of this, the transcripts from original manuscripts have been accurately and carefully typewritten by a skilled hand under the eye of the Rev. Mr. Hooper. They include

Documents from the Archives of the State of Connecticut,	19	Pages;
Bishop Hobart Letters:—
Personal,	16	"
From Rev. Harry Croswell,	21	"
From Rev. Daniel Burhans, D.D.,	7	"
From Rev. Thomas C. Brownell, D.D., LL.D.,	8	"
From Mr. John H. Jacocks, Secretary of Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, New Haven,	8	"
Regarding Rev. Ammi Rogers in New York,	3	"
Regarding the Convocation of the Clergy of Connecticut, and the Controversy between Bishop Hobart and Rev. Cave Jones,	11	"
Regarding his administration of the Diocese of Connecticut,	23	"

Among the documents of particular interest from the Archives of the State there is the petition of William Pitkin and others, members of the Church of England, dated 1664, praying for recognition and membership for themselves and families in the Churches of the Colony. Another specially important document is that presented to the General Court in 1738 by the Churchmen of Connecticut, in which they ask for their just proportion of the money which came from the sale of the western townships belonging to this Colony. This contains the signatures of all the Churchmen, principally heads of families, in the Colony.

The correspondence of Bishop Hobart includes letters from Dr. William Smith, Dr. Bowden, Dr. Burhans, Dr. Bronson, Dr. Croswell, Dr. Chase and others. A letter peculiarly interesting at this time is one from the Rev. John Kewley, who for several years was Rector of Christ Church, Middletown, and influential in the affairs of the Diocese. This letter was given to Bishop Hobart when he bade Dr. Kewley good-bye in the summer of 1816, as Dr. Kewley was permanently leaving this country for Europe. It gives his reasons for returning to the Communion of Rome, in which he had received his early theological training. So far as known, he was the first clerical pervert to Rome from this branch of the Church. A letter from Bishop Brownell in 1822, and one from Dr. Croswell at about the same period, throw light upon a similar episode in the history of the Rev. Calvin White of Derby, another pervert to the Roman Communion.

Letters regarding the Christian Knowledge Society of New Haven, 1808-1816, are the only documents concerning that Society which are known to be in existence. This was the first Society to provide for the gratuitous circulation of the Book of Common Prayer.

The address of Bishop Hobart in 1819 has never been printed, except in that rare periodical, "The Christian Journal." The record of his visitations in 1817 is not found elsewhere.

The Bronson papers contain letters from Bishops Seabury, White, Bass, Hobart, Kemp, Kemper, Rev. Dr. Bowden, Bela Hubbard, Daniel Nash, the father of the Church in Western New York, and others. They deal with topics which then agitated the Church, and present comparatively new and unfamilar phases of them.

It will be remembered that in 1906 a pamphlet of earlier transcripts was published at your request. There is abundant material for further transcripts of both the colonial and later periods, should the Convention deem it advisable to continue the work.

In the final Report of the Committee on Preservation of Ancient Records, consisting of the Rev. Dr. Samuel Hart and the Rev. Dr. William G. Andrews, which was presented to the Convention of the Diocese in 1897, among the Resolutions submitted was one providing for the appointment of this Permanent Commission. In detailing the work it might do, the Committee put very prominently as a part of its duty, "to collect information about interesting or valuable miscellaneous documents bearing upon local Church history, which may exist among the papers in the possession of the various Parishes or be in the hands of individuals" (see Convention Journal of 1897, page 70). The plan we propose is to put the condensed items of the history of the various Parishes upon cards to be filed in a cabinet and completely indexed so that any desired item could be readily ascertained. Should the Convention approve, the work could be taken up immediately.

We recommend the appropriation of a sum not to exceeed One Hundred Dollars ($100) for the purposes of the Commission.

Respectfully submitted,

STORRS O. SEYMOUR, Chairman.

The Report was accepted, and the Appropriation recommended was referred to the Committee on Finance.

On motion of Mr. William W. Skiddy, it was Resolved, That the Reports of Church Wardens, required by Canons II. and III., are intended only for the use of the Bishop and other diocesan officials, and not for publication.

The Rev. E. Campion Acheson presented the following

The business of the Missionary Society of the Diocese having been taken up, Mr. Burton Mansfield, Secretary and Treasurer, presented the Reports of the Board of Directors (which included a review of the Society's history for ninety years since its inception), of the Treasurer, of the several Archdeacons, and of the Treasurers of the six Archdeaconries, all of which were accepted and ordered to be printed with the Journal. (Appendix D. and Appendix E.)

Mr. Mansfield also presented the following

The Rev. C. M. Addison presented the following

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMISSION

To the Diocesan Convention of 1908:

The Sunday School Commission begs leave to present its third annual Report.

In obedience to Canon XIII., passed at the last Convention, the Commission was duly organized and the terms of office determined by lot with the following result:

One Year.—Rev. John N. Lewis, Jr., Rev. S. R. Colladay, Mr. George H. Tracy.

Two Years.—Rev. J. DeWolf Perry, Jr., Rev. A. P. Greenleaf, Mr. William B. Olmsted.

Three Years.—Rev. E. C. Acheson, Rev. J. C. Linsley, Mr. H. H. Heminway.

Four Years.—Rev. W. H. Lewis, D.D., Rev. A. J. Gammack, Mr. William M. Stark.

Five Years.—Rev. C. M. Addison, Rev. G. W. Davenport, Mr. Henry E. Rees.

For the more careful consideration of the various branches of its work the Commission was resolved into Committees as follows:

I. The Union and the Organization of Branches;
II. Teachers and Teacher Training;
III. Methods and Courses of Study;
IV. Home Department;
V. Font and Cradle Rolls.

This report is largely made up of the results of the work of these Committees.

The Committee on Organization reports the establishment of branches of the Union in Stamford, Bridgeport and Danbury, with a branch in process of establishment in Meriden. The Commission earnestly hopes that all Sunday Schools of the Diocese naturally grouped about certain geographical centers will, during the coming year, organize as branches of the Union and thus help to complete the diocesan organization as recommended and outlined in the report of last year.

The Committee on Teachers and Teacher Training recommended the acceptance of the proposed course on teacher training as set forth by the Joint Commission in its recently published report. (See Appendix F. of that Report, page 35.) This the Commission has done and has further planned, with the assistance of certain Professors of the Berkeley Divinity School, to make it possible for teachers in the Diocese to have the advantages of this course, either through lectures in the centers where branches of the Union have been formed, or through correspondence. Full power to carry this plan into operation has been granted the Sub-Commiteee on Teacher Training.

Copies of the Report of the Joint Commission, containing much information and many suggestions valuable to the Sunday Schools, have been sent to every Rector and Minister-in-charge in the Diocese, and also to Superintendents whose names were known to the Secretary.

The Committee on Home Department, believing there is a large field for religious instruction through correspondence, have proposed a plan, including a suggested curriculum, similar to that followed by the Correspondence School of the Diocese of Michigan. As soon as this has been put in proper form it will be distributed to those who have requested information regarding the Home Department.

The Committee on Methods and Courses of Study report a number of additions to the list of graded schools and a growing desire for more modern methods and curricula approved by the best pedagogic experience.

While in many ways the outlook is most encouraging, the Commission is strongly of the opinion that before really aggressive work can be done and any large results attained a paid Secretary is a necessity. The great work accomplished in New York and Massachusetts, through the efforts of the Field Secretaries, emphasizes the possibilities in Connecticut. A Secretary with time to visit, at the invitation of the Rectors, the Schools in the Diocese, give counsel when requested, establish teacher training classes, etc., would materially advance the "forward movement" in the Sunday Schools of Connecticut. Believing the time is scarcely ripe for the engagement of a Secretary who can give his full time to this work, and having found a man eminently fitted for the position, who is ready to give part time for a small stipend and traveling expenses, the Commission at its last meeting unanimously passed the following Resolution:

"Resolved. That this Commission request the Convention to appropriate $700 to the work of the Sunday School Commission for the coming year."

It is hoped that the Convention will see the wisdom of this request and grant the Appropriation.

Respectfully submitted,

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

My Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

Within the year, indeed since the General Convention, have died four of our Bishops: The Right Reverend Doctor Leighton Coleman, Bishop of Delaware, who, in most acceptable ministrations, had come so close to many in this Diocese; the Right Reverend Doctor George Worthington, Bishop of Nebraska, my old-time and dear friend and the friend of very many; the Right Reverend Doctor Henry Yates Satterlee, Bishop of Washington, true knight of God and devoted shepherd of His people; the Right Reverend Doctor Ellison Capers, Bishop of South Carolina, who, in former years a General in the Confederate Army, as he became known to his brethren in the Church, North as well as South, was indeed a man greatly beloved.

Death has removed six of our Clergy, including two Archdeacons. The Rev. Louis Norman Booth, Rector of Trinity Church, Bridgeport, and Archdeacon of Fairfield, of distinction among our Clergy, not only for his culture and an accurate and varied scholarship, the fruit of patient and profound research, but also for his conscientious devotion to very high ideals of the priesthood. Pronounced as he was in his own convictions, his tact and courtesy, his reasonableness, sanity and wisdom, and his grace and truth of character, had endeared him to all his brethren. The Rev. Lucius Martin Hardy, Rector of Christ Church, Pomfret, and Archdeacon of New London, having entered the Church because of deep personal conviction, manifested an unswerving and outspoken loyalty to her faith and order, and cherished an earnest appreciation of her Sacramental privileges. He was a kind and genial friend, a single-minded, earnest Christian, a diligent Parish Priest. In his office of Archdeacon he was a pattern of courtesy and sympathy, and of painstaking, untiring and self-sacrificing energy. The Rev. Horace Hall Buck, Rector of St. Peter's Church, Cheshire, was a singularly pure and spiritually-minded man, and a most faithful Pastor, who, by the attraction of his character, had won the respect, confidence and affection of the entire community. The Rev. Dr. Edward Hurtt Jewett, by his learning, his services as Professor in the General Theological Seminary, and his theological works, had reflected honor upon the Diocese. The Rev. Wemyss Thompson Smith, Rector of St. Paul's Church, Norwalk, was a devoted Priest, an assiduous Pastor and efficient administrator, apt to teach, a man of faith and prayer, an example of self-sacrifice and godliness. The Rev. Dr. Edmund Rowland, Rector Emeritus of St. John's Church, Waterbury, was an able minister of the Word, a thoughtful and forcible preacher. Upon all who knew him he impressed himself by his intellectual and spiritual virility. Within a day or two I have been shocked to hear of the death of the Rev. Edward Harold Fitzgerald, transferred only last December to the Missionary District of Hankow, a young man of bright promise, who gave himself to the foreign field. I know your sympathy goes out to his afflicted parents, who had already made a great sacrifice, and have now to bear this great sorrow.

Of the faithful Laity there have died: Col. Leslie Smith, Senior Warden of Trinity Church, South Norwalk, and Treasurer of Fairfield Archdeaconry; Mr. Philander C. Royce, for many years a Vestryman of Trinity Church, Hartford; Mr. Arthur Dutton Noble, who had rendered long service as Clerk of Trinity Parish, Waterbury; Hon. Civilion Fones, D.D.S., long a member of the Vestry of Christ Church, Bridgeport; Mr. Paschal K. Hoadley, for many years Senior Warden of St. John's, North Guilford; Mr. Cyrus A. Todd, for thirty-five years Treasurer of St. John's Parish, New Milford, and Trustee of the Terrell Fund; Mr. George H. Day, Vestryman of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Hartford; Mr. Charles H. Fowler, of Christ Church, New Haven; Mr. N. Albert Hooker, of St. Mark's, New Britain; Judge James H. Huntington, Clerk and Treasurer of St. Paul's, Woodbury; and others.

When we pray for the whole estate of Christ's Church militant, let us remember, before God, also these departed servants of His.

Here followed the celebration of the Holy Communion. At a later hour the Bishop continued as follows:

My Brethren of the Clergy and the Laity, I welcome you to Middletown, where, in August, 1785, was held that Convention memorable as the first meeting of the first American Bishop with his Clergy, and the occasion of the first Ordination and first Episcopal act in the New World.

I have accepted the invitation to the Lambeth Conference, and have requested the Standing Committee to act as the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese during my absence.

I may not forbear to mention that to-morrow will be the eightieth birthday of the Rev. Dr. Francis T. Russell. Our felicitations go forth spontaneously to one who, by reason of his personal gifts and his services, has long been held here in esteem and veneration. In such a connection let me read our Honor List of long rectorships: The Rev. Louis French has been Rector of St. Luke's Church, Darien, forty-five years; the Rev. F. W. Brathwaite has been Rector of St. Andrew's, Stamford, forty-three years; the Rev. J. J. McCook, D.D., has been Rector of St. John's, East Hartford, forty-two years; the Rev. Samuel F. Jarvis, D.D., has been Rector of Trinity Church, Brooklyn, thirty-four years; the Rev. William C. Knowles has been Rector of Emmanuel Church, Killingworth, thirty-three years; the Rev. John T. Huntington has been Rector of St. James's Church, Hartford, thirty years; the Rev. Arthur T. Randall has been at St. Andrew's Church, Meriden, as Curate and Rector, twenty-eight years; the Rev. Stewart Means, D.D., has been Rector of St. John's, New Haven, twenty-five years.

It has meant much that the Diocese has been able to command the gratuitous services, wisdom and experience of certain men for a long term of years. In some cases, as of Dr. Seymour, Dr. Hart and Mr. Mansfield, such services have been recognized by formal act of this body. It seems proper that mention should here be made of others who have served in this Diocese long and well:—

The Rev. Francis Goodwin, D.D., has been for thirty-two years a member of the Board of Education of the Church Scholarship Society, for thirty-one years a Trustee of the Berkeley Divinity School, and for thirty years a Trustee of the Bishop's Fund; the Rev. John Binney, D.D., who has been obliged on account of ill health to resign as Dean of the Berkeley Divinity School, has not only been Professor there of Hebrew and of the Literature and Interpretation of the Old Testament for thirty-four years, but has for thirty-six years served as Examining Chaplain, being among those first appointed by Bishop Williams; Mr. Samuel Taylor has been a member of the Board of the Church Scholarship Society thirty-five years; Dr. Gurdon W. Russell has been a member of the same Board twenty-eight years; Mr. Henry K. Morgan has been a Trustee of the Bishop's Fund for twenty-nine years, and Mr. Benjamin R. English a Trustee of the same Fund for twenty years; Mr. Charles E. Jackson has been a Trustee of the Berkeley Divinity School for thirty-three years, and a Director of the Missionary Society twenty-three years; Mr. Charles H. Lawrence has served as Treasurer of the Hartford Archdeaconry for twenty-nine years; the New London Archdeaconry recently celebrated the completion of twenty-five years of Mr. William M. Stark's services as Treasurer; and the Hon. A. Heaton Robertson has been a Trustee of the Episcopal Academy twenty-two years.

Bishop Seabury's first Convention Address was largely taken up, as was natural, with the subject of Confirmation. It may interest you to note that last year the total number of those confirmed was the largest in the history of the Diocese, and that this year the total exceeds that of last year by two hundred and fifty-eight.

The mention suggests the subject of Christian instruction. A year ago you took action for the permanent organization of the Sunday School Commission. For the Commission I would earnestly ask the coöperation of all interested in this most important work. I would also urge upon you a liberal appropriation for certain expenses necessary to the efficient doing of the work to be done. In this connection let me call attention to the Report of the Joint Commission of the General Convention on Sunday School Instruction. I wish that Report might be studied by each Parish Priest and each Sunday School Superintendent in the Diocese. Copies may be obtained from the Secretary of the Diocesan Commission.

The Joint Commission just referred to is giving attention to the possibility of some week-day religious instruction. There is a wide-spread conviction that one prime element is too largely lacking in the education of the children of this land. Many years ago I suggested, as a solution of the problem of religion and the public school, an arrangement whereby children, under the approval of parents or guardians, should attend on some week-day afternoon at their respective places of worship for instruction in religious truth and conduct. The same idea is receiving the serious consideration of the Joint Commission. A Committee of which I am Chairman is preparing to submit to educators throughout the land questions touching the practicability and advisability of such a plan. Meanwhile I recommend to the parochial Clergy that they themselves initiate some plan of week-day instruction in definite doctrine and in moral duties like purity, respect for law and for elders, courtesy, self-control and service to others. This they might begin, as has been done in a number of Parishes, in Lent, say on Friday afternoons.

A year ago it was my urgent request that there should be arranged throughout the Diocese an increase of the salaries of the parochial Clergy. I am thankful to be able to state that action has been taken toward addition to the stipends of the Diocesan Missionaries, and also that there have been gratifying instances of a substantial increase of the Rector's salary by the Parish. The general subject was intrusted to an efficient Committee. Their operations have been delayed by the financial depression. But they have been at work, and, if continued, will, I earnestly hope, attain some results. One hindrance involved in the straitened circumstances of the Clergyman is his inability to buy the books he ought to be reading in this age of quickened thought. For those of the Clergy who are somewhat isolated in the country there would be signal mental gain if each Archdeaconry had a Book Club which would afford opportunity to read the latest books and, at the end of the season, to buy them at reduced price. This matter I commend to the attention of the Archdeacons, who may obtain information and suggestions from the Litchfield Archdeaconry, which has long enjoyed the benefit of such a provision.

Again I commend to the sympathy and generosity of our people the Diocesan Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows and Orphans of Clergymen. I also commend the General Clergy Relief Fund, to which our Diocesan Board has been obliged to refer some cases. Many of you may be surprised to learn that to the General Clergy Relief Fund the total contributions from Churches in this Diocese from June, 1907, to June, 1908, was $933.82. For the same period to Connecticut beneficiaries the grants from the General Clergy Relief Fund amounted to $2,150.00. I do not think we in this Diocese ought to be willing to take from the General Clergy Relief Fund more than double the amount we give thereto.

You will take such action as shall seem to you proper regarding the representation of this Diocese in the Council of the Missionary Department of New England.

You will hear reports from the Commission on Social Service and Social Research, and also from the Commission on Work among Foreigners. Concerning this latter work I will add to what I said a year ago the suggestion that our Clergy be ready hospitably to offer the use of our Church buildings at proper times to the Clergy of Oriental Churches for services in their own tongues.

A proviso at the last General Convention added to Canon 19 has been in certain quarters, although not, I think, in this Diocese, the occasion of an alarm which in some instances has seemed to me unreasonable. The Resolution sent to the Bishops by the House of Deputies was open to evident objections. The amendment in its present form was passed in the House of Bishops without a dissenting voice or vote, so far as I, who was present, could hear. This fact in itself constitutes a presumption that the amendment involved nothing revolutionary. I have not seen it pointed out that, in strict literalism, the amendment enacts nothing new. Reading it over will show that it is merely an interpretation, in my opinion not necessary, but still only an interpretation, securing that nothing in the foregoing Canon shall prevent the Bishop from allowing, on proper occasion, the testimony or message of any baptized member of the One Body. It is really restrictive, as it explicitly limits to the Bishop the giving of permission to speak. It does not mean an open pulpit or exchange of pulpits. The pulpit is not mentioned. It requires considerable ingenuity to construe this clause regarding addresses upon special occasions into anything inconsistent with the doctrine of this Church regarding Holy Orders, or with that settled principle in accordance wherewith the authoritative teaching from her pulpits is solemnly intrusted to men who have received her Apostolic commission.

What shall constitute the "special occasions" referred to in the proviso, circumstances in each case would determine. Certainly "special" is not equivalent to ordinary or usual. In my own opinion, not only is there to be a special occasion, but also it is to be a man who brings a special message regarding some subject upon which he is particularly qualified to speak. That such a man should, on occasion, be permitted to make an address involves, to my mind, no sacrifice of principle, though he be not ordained to minister at our altars, and even although he followeth not with us. Let it be remembered that the permission is vested explicitly in the Bishop. As he is responsible, he must have the authority. His permission is not to be taken for granted. In all cases the first step is to be consultation with him. None of our Bishops claims to be infallible. It is nothing strange if there have been mistakes. Their repetition, however, is not inevitable. The Church may safely, I think, trust her Bishops, and rely upon their general good sense, loyalty and integrity of purpose.

These are not days when this Church should heed counsels of timidity, take alarm and draw in within a shell. It needs no prophet's eye to see that "this American Church" has opportunities and a mission such as Church never had before. Let her not be wanting to the hour. It is not a time to sacrifice any matter of principle, not a time to deny the Apostolic faith or minimize the Apostolic order. But it is a time for manifestation of the Apostolic spirit, a time for large-minded and strong-hearted counsels after the example of the Apostle Paul.

At a recent memorable meeting in the Parish House of Christ Church, New Haven, (from the Rector of that Parish came the suggestion,) some of us had the privilege of hearing an eminent Congregational divine make a most earnest, and, from his standpoint, generous proposal toward the restoration of visible unity. It behooves us to give heed to the spirit we manifest toward brethren of other names who are nevertheless members with us of one body. "For in one Spirit were we all baptized into one Body." We may well beware of cherishing pride and prejudice, and what our own Bishop Williams once described as that "hard, narrow and really Donatistic temper, which is sometimes mistaken for Churchmanship." Let ours be a spirit not unworthy of our Catholic heritage. Cherishing that spirit, we shall not be alarmed to learn of yearnings and efforts after unity also with the Church of Rome, notwithstanding the very small encouragement there may be in the policy at present prevailing in the Roman Curia. Brethren, there is enough evil in the world to fight against. Toward Christian people, on the one side and on the other, what becomes us, in my opinion, is that Christian and Catholic attitude which might be generally described as not polemic but irenic. In the one direction and in the other much may not be accomplished immediately or in our day. The world's pace, however, is undeniably quickened. Its movement is in the direction of great unities, and the ultimate result is sure, as the Lord liveth. His prayer, "that they all may be one," is not a prayer for an impossibility, a mere dream incapable of realization. It is a prayer to be in God's time and way answered and fulfilled.

Let me turn your thought to another movement among Christian men, inaugurated at a recent Conference of Lay Brotherhoods. After remarks by the President of the Presbyterian Brotherhood as to the spiritual value of the Church year, in which the other delegates concurred, it was voted to recommend to each Brotherhood the observance of the first week in Advent as a season of special prayer. Next Advent thus will see many men, of various names, all at the same time praying for the coming of Christ's Kingdom. A characteristic achievement of this age is likely to be a recovery of the value of prayer.

We have seen signs of an awakening throughout this land to the need of that righteousness that alone exalteth a nation. Furthermore, as we note the many currents of thought now coming together to make the mighty tide that sets away from the materialistic thinking of a generation ago, may we not, in patience of faith and prayer, hope for a great awakening of faith and revival of spiritual life? It is an august hour for the assembling of the Conference of Bishops at Lambeth. For that Conference and for the Congress that precedes I have asked your prayers. Again I ask you, in the Churches of this Diocese and in your homes, to pray for Christian unity, for the revival of righteousness and spiritual life, and for the extension of Christ's Kingdom among men. For the interests of that Kingdom you are here met in the holy Whitsuntide to deliberate and take counsel. By His Spirit may the Divine Head of the Church be present to inspire and guide your deliberations!

The provisions of the preceding sections of this Canon shall not be held to interfere with the rights and privileges of any corporation holding a special charter from the General Assembly of the State. But, for the sake of uniformity, it is recommended that all such corporations, and all trustees holding funds under wills for Church purposes, shall comply with this Canon so far as their charters or the conditions of their trusteeships will permit.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the Church Wardens of each Parish to report to the Bishop, in connection with the report required by Canon II., Section 4, whether and in what way the provisions of the first three sections of this Canon have been complied with.

CANON IV.—Of the Trial of a Clergyman

SEC. 1. When a Clergyman is to be presented for trial for any offense specified in Canon 23 of the General Convention, the charge shall be made in the first place to the Standing Committee, in writing, under the proper signature of at least two Communicants of this Diocese, one of whom shall be a Presbyter. If the Standing Committee shall deem the offence charged as coming within the offences enumerated in the Canons of the Diocese of Connecticut, or of the General Convention, they shall present the charge to the Bishop in the following form:

To A. B., Bishop of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Standing Committee of this Diocese respectfully represent that C. D. has been accused under the hands of E. F. and G. H. of [here recite the charge or charges], and the Committee are of opinion that there is sufficient ground for presenting the said C. D. for trial, agreeably to the Canons in such cases made and provided.

[Signed by the Standing Committee.]

SEC. 2. Upon the receipt of the foregoing presentment, the Bishop shall summon nine Presbyters to meet, not within ninety days, at some place within the County where the accused shall reside or officiate for the time being; not less than five of whom shall constitute a Court for the trial of the charge or charges; and the accused may object to any two of such members, at his discretion, and to any for cause or favor, the sufficiency of which objection for cause or favor shall be determined by the other persons so summoned; or if by reason of such objections the number shall be reduced below five, the Bishop shall designate Presbyters to supply such vacancies. The Standing Committee shall have the same right to object, provided they exercise the right alternately with the accused, he being allowed the first privilege. All of such Presbyters not objected to or found disqualified shall sit as a Court.

SEC. 3. The Bishop shall forthwith furnish to the Standing Committee and to the accused a list of the Presbyters summoned to constitute the Court, accompanied with a notice of the time and place of the meeting of the Court. The Standing Committee shall act as prosecutors in the case, and at least sixty days before the trial shall furnish the accused with a copy of the presentment, notice of the time and place of trial, and a specification of the facts on which they expect to maintain the charges. And the accused, at least thirty days before the trial, shall furnish the Standing Committee with a statement of the ground of his defence on each specification.

SEC. 4. At the time fixed for the trial the members of the Court shall assemble and choose a President from their own number, and a Secretary, either from their own number or otherwise, as they shall see fit; and they shall, before they proceed, adopt and declare the rules by which the trial shall be conducted. A member of the legal profession, who is a Communicant of this Church and a resident in this Diocese, shall be selected by the Court as Assessor, who shall sit with and advise the Court upon all legal questions that may arise, whether in regard to the admission of evidence or other points, but shall not be entitled to vote upon charges contained in the presentment.

SEC. 5. If the accused shall appear, the Court shall proceed to the trial on the presentment, and shall adjudge him guilty, or not guilty, according to the evidence; and if he be found guilty, the Court shall declare to the Bishop to what ecclesiastical censure he ought, in their judgment, to be subjected. But if he shall neglect or refuse to appear, or to answer in person, according to the notice served on him as aforesaid, except for some reasonable cause to be allowed by the Court, they shall proceed to pronounce him in contumacy, and thereupon the Bishop shall suspend him from the functions of the Ministry. And if he shall not appear within six months, the Bishop shall proceed to depose him from the Ministry of this Church.

SEC. 6. The Secretary shall keep a record of all the proceedings, which shall contain a copy of the presentment, of the specifications, of the notice to the accused, and of his answer, with a statement of all the evidence, both oral and written, and the final judgment of the Court; and an attested copy of this record shall be forthwith delivered to the Bishop. If the judgment be not guilty, the Bishop shall give a certificate of acquittal to the accused, embracing a copy of the presentment and specifications; and the accused shall not be subjected to a second trial on the same charges. If the Court judge him guilty, on one or more points at issue, the Bishop may disapprove the judgment and order a new trial, stating his grounds for such a decision; or he may approve the judgment; and in that case he shall, within thirty days, proceed to such ecclesiastical censure as the case may, in his judgment, require, whether it be admonition, suspension, or deposition from the Ministry; provided the penalty be not greater than that expressed in the judgment of the Court.

SEC. 7. Every summons, notice, or citation mentioned in these proceedings shall be deemed to be duly served, by the delivery of a written notice or paper to the person to be summoned, notified, cited, or by leaving it, or a certified copy of it, at his residence, or last known residence, by a person duly appointed in writing by the Bishop, Standing Committee, or Court, as the case may require.

Prefix to the Constitution the following

PREAMBLE

This American Church first planted in Virginia, in the year of our Lord 1607, by representatives of the ancient Church of England; acknowledging the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, the record of God's Revelation of Himself in his Son, and to contain all things necessary to salvation; holding the Catholic Creeds, to wit, the Apostles' Creed and the Nicene Creed, to be a sufficient statement of the Christian Faith; maintaining the Orders of the Sacred Ministry in such form as from the Apostles' time they have been continued; reverently conserving the Sacraments ordained by Christ Himself; and accounting to be members of the flock of Christ all who have been duly baptized in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, has set forth and established, for the furtherance of the work to which it has been called of God, the following

CONSTITUTION

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Strike out Section 3 of Article I., and insert in place of it the following:

SECTION 3. Upon the expiration of the term of office of the Presiding Bishop, the General Convention shall elect the Presiding Bishop of the Church. The House of Bishops shall choose one of the Bishops having jurisdiction within the United States to be such Presiding Bishop, by the vote of a majority of all the Bishops entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, such choice to be subject to confirmation by the House of Deputies by vote of a majority of the Clerical and Lay Deputies of all the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies, voting by orders.

The Presiding Bishop shall discharge such duties as may be prescribed by the Constitution and the Canons of the General Convention.

The Presiding Bishop so elected shall hold office for six years, unless meanwhile he shall have reached the seventieth year of his age, when his tenure of office shall end in any case, or shall have resigned his Episcopal jurisdiction, or, with the consent of the General Convention, his office as Presiding Bishop, or, unless, for infirmity or other sufficient cause, he may have been relieved of such office by the General Convention by the concurrent vote, first of a majority of all the Bishops entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, and then of a majority of the Clerical and Lay Deputies of all the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies, voting by orders.

The salary of the Presiding Bishop as such shall be fixed and paid by the General Convention, as may be provided by Canon of such Convention.

When, for any reason, a vacancy in the office shall occur, or if, by reason of infirmity, the Presiding Bishop shall become disabled, the House of Bishops shall elect one of its number to act as Presiding Bishop until the next meeting of the General Convention.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Insert in Article II. as Section 4 the following, and renumber the present Section 4:

It shall be lawful for a Diocese, with the consent of the Bishop of that Diocese, to elect one or more Suffragan Bishops, without right of succession, and with seat and without vote in the House of Bishops. A Suffragan Bishop shall be consecrated and hold office under such conditions and limitations other than those provided in this Article as may be provided by Canons of the General Convention. He shall be eligible as Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor of a Diocese, or as a Suffragan in another Diocese, or he may be elected by the House of Bishops as a Missionary Bishop.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Add to the second paragraph of Article IX. of the Constitution the following sentence, namely:

The General Convention may also provide by Canon for the trial of a Presbyter or Deacon in the Diocese or Missionary District in which an offence is alleged to have been committed by him.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Add to Article X. at the end thereof the following proviso:

And provided further, that in editions of the Book of Common Prayer in foreign languages, such verbal alterations as may be necessary to adapt the same to local conditions may be made by the authority of the Bishop of the Diocese or Missionary District in which it is used, subject to the approval of the Presiding Bishop.

Missionary Society

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

To the Convention:

Pursuant to Article V. of the Constitution, the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society makes its annual report of Appropriations and other proceedings for the year 1907-8, as follows:

Appropriations and Apportionments

The last Convention (see Journal 1907, page 61) appropriated a sum not exceeding $12,500 for carrying on the missionary work of the Diocese during the then ensuing year, in addition to the proceeds from the funds of the Society and other sources available for the purpose. It was ordered that said sum be apportioned among the several Archdeaconries on the basis of "Current Expenses (including Salaries)," as reported in the last Journal; and that said sum be appropriated among the several Archdeaconries, as the Directors of the Society might deem best.

The net proceeds from the funds held by the Society were estimated at about $1,750, thus making with the $12,500 to be raised, the sum of $14,250 for missionary work.

At the beginning of the year Appropriations for this work were made as follows:

To Fairfield Archdeaconry,	$1,500.00
Litchfield "	1,275.00
New Haven "	1,300.00
Hartford "	2,800.00
Middlesex "	2,250.00
New London " (including the income of the Tracy-Eaton Fund)	3,520.00
Total,	$12,645.00

In accordance with the earnest suggestion of the Bishop in his last address, and in accordance with the recommendation of the Directors of the Society made one year ago, the present Board appointed the Archdeacons a committee to consider the question of an increase in the salaries of the Missionaries and the enlargement of the work. The Archdeacons made their report during the year, and as a result extra Appropriations to the amount of $975 were made to the Rectors and Missionaries of twelve Parishes and Mission Stations distributed as follows:

To Litchfield Archdeaconry,	$100.00
New Haven "	75.00
Hartford "	100.00
Middlesex "	500.00
New London "	200.00
	$975.00

This made a grand total of Appropriations for the year as follows:

To Fairfield Archdeaconry,	$1,500.00
Litchfield "	1,375.00
New Haven "	1,375.00
Hartford "	2,900.00
Middlesex "	2,750.00
New London " (including the income of the Tracy-Eaton Fund)	3,720.00
	$13,620.00

To meet these Appropriations said sum of $12,500 was apportioned among the several Archdeaconries, as follows:

To Fairfield Archdeaconry,	$3,449.28
Litchfield "	1,148.71
New Haven "	3,877.19
Hartford "	2,274.70
Middlesex "	762.80
New London "	987.32
	$12,500.00

Pursuant to the rule of the Board, made many years ago, only the difference between the Appropriation and the Apportionment in each Archdeaconry is in fact paid to, or paid by, the Treasurer, as the case may be. The sums so paid and received were as follows:

Paid to Litchfield Archdeaconry,	$ 226.29
Hartford "	465.65
Middlesex "	1,987.20
New London "	2,732.68	$5,411.82
Received from Fairfield Archdeaconry,	$1,736.05
" " New Haven Archdeaconry,	2,072.19	3,808.24
Difference,		$1,603.58

This difference has been met entirely from the Society's income, outside of its Apportionments; and it has not therefore been necessary to borrow for that purpose.

The Fairfield Archdeaconry has paid the balance due on last year of $218.26, and on account of the current year $1,517.79. The New Haven Archdeaconry has paid on account of the current year $2,072.19.

There is a balance due from the Fairfield Archdeaconry on account of the year 1907-8 of $431.49, and from the New Haven Archdeaconry of $430.

Of the one hundred and seventy-seven Parishes and Mission Stations in the Diocese, among which the sum of $12.500 was apportioned, one hundred and forty-four paid in full their Apportionments, or more, twenty-two paid in part and only eleven paid nothing.

Donations

The Board gratefully acknowledges the receipt of special offerings and contributions, as follows:

Pequot Chapel, New London; Christ Church, Hartford; the Women's Church Missionary Association, of New Haven; Miss Juliette B. Wheaton, of Marble Dale; and the Church people at Rocky Hill. We have also received the offering at Christ Church, Bridgeport, upon the ordination of the Rev. Mr. Root.

Legacies

We reported last year that notice of a legacy under the will of Julia E. Briggs, formerly a member of Calvary Church, Round Hill, in the town of Greenwich, had been received, but that the amount thereof could not then be determined. The estate has not yet been settled, but we are in a position to say that the legacy will amount to about twenty thousand ($20,000) dollars, the income of which is to be applied for the use and purpose of said Society, preference to be given to aid weak Parishes and Missions in said Diocese.

Notice has also been received of the legacy of five hundred dollars, under the will of the late Martha C. Pierce, of Bridgeport.

Deceased Members

The Diocese and the Missionary Society have lost by death during the year two of its Archdeacons, namely: the Rev. Louis N. Booth and the Rev. Lucius M. Hardy. Mr. Booth had been Archdeacon of Fairfield from 1898 to August 19, 1907, the day of his death. Mr. Hardy had been Archdeacon of New London from 1902 to 1907. He died in December, 1907. Both of these men were men of strong character and convictions and were faithful and devoted to the cause of Missions in this Diocese. The Board has caused suitable minutes upon their deaths to be prepared and recorded upon its records.

Col. Leslie Smith, of South Norwalk, Treasurer of the Fairfield Archdeaconry since 1901, died August 30, 1907. He was a familiar figure in our Diocesan Conventions, careful and painstaking in all his transactions with the Board, and zealous in the performance of his duties as Treasurer; he will also be greatly missed, not only in his own Archdeaconry, but in the Diocese as well.

Miscellaneous

The Rev. J. Eldred Brown has been appointed Archdeacon of New London, in place of Archdeacon Hardy, deceased, and the Rev. Allen E. Beeman has been appointed Archdeacon of Fairfield, in place of Archdeacon Booth, deceased.

St. Luke's, Bridgeport, has enlarged its Parish House, at a cost of over $2,000, paid for by the friends of the Mission.

The investments of the trust funds of the Society stand substantially as they did a year ago.

Again we are able to report that the Society is entirely out of debt.

For the names of the several Parishes and Missions contributing to the Society, with the amount of their contributions; and for the names of the Parishes and Missions receiving aid, with the amounts paid to them; as well as for a description in detail of the condition and progress of missionary work in the Diocese, we refer you to the reports from the Archdeacons and the Treasurers of the Archdeaconries.

A Review

We close to-day the ninetieth year of our existence as a corporation. Chartered in 1818 by the General Assembly of Connecticut, under the name of The Trustees of the Protestant Episcopal Society for the Promotion of Christian Knowledge, we have without interruption ministered to the people of this Diocese and carried to them, with more or less regularity, the principles and teachings of this Church as she has received the same. When Charles Sigourney, Samuel Tudor, Jr., and William McCrackan petitioned the General Assembly for a charter in 1818, there were in existence two voluntary Societies, of more or less prominence, doing their work under the name of the Society for the Promotion of Christian Knowledge and the Missionary Society, respectively; both of these were dissolved upon the organization of the new corporation and succeeded by it.

The Convention of 1817, at Guilford, appointed a committee to take up the subject of a Diocesan Missionary Society and report to the next Convention. The Trustees of the Bishop's Fund urged at this time the creation of a fund of great magnitude, for the proper support of the Bishop and his office, saying, that no fund could be too great, but if it should be then the surplus could be used to employ a respectable and well-educated missionary-clergyman, whose duty would be to visit and officiate in small, remote and destitute Parishes. Independently of this, though possibly influenced by it, the committee of 1817 reported to the next Convention in favor of a Society, which was incorporated under the name and at the time above stated, and a constitution was adopted. The existence of a similar Society in England no doubt suggested the name and purposes of the new Society. The purposes are described to be the employment of Missionaries and the distribution of Bibles, Prayer-books and religious tracts. With the sending of "missionary-clergymen" into the small, remote, and destitute parts of the Diocese, however, it had little to do at first, but contented itself with the distribution of Bibles, Prayer-books and tracts, and especially the latter, for in the first report of the Treasurer in 1819 is an item of eighty dollars, the largest single item, paid for printing the first part of a tract called "Presbyterian Orders Doubtful"; and the Board promised a second part on the same subject, later. Another tract called "Candid Examination of the Episcopal Church" was also promised and distributed about this time. The course of the Society, however, did not move in smooth water altogether, even in its infancy, for the first report of the Treasurer shows a lack of funds to meet the needs of the Society, though he says that he has great pleasure in acknowledging the kindly assistance of several female associations in different parts of the Diocese, and adds that they furnished the principal part of the fund; and who would not reëcho, ninety years after they were uttered, these other words of his, namely, "the zeal of the female members of the Church deserves the highest applause." Books and tracts were distributed at the expense of more active missionary work, for although two Missionaries were employed in 1821, in 1822 the funds had become so low that none could be employed. At the Convention in 1822 it was recommended that the distribution of books and tracts, as the main features of the work, be discontinued, and that the Society employ living Missionaries. Things looked brighter in 1823, and in 1824 work was actually and actively carried on at Salisbury and Cornwall, in Litchfield County, and in Brooklyn and Poquetanock, in eastern Connecticut. The amount annually raised was only a few hundred dollars, barely enough to support one Missionary properly all the time, but it marked the beginning of a work which from that time to this has almost constantly expanded. The work lanquished at times and its promoters were frequently disheartened in those early days; a condition which continued to exist, more or less, until 1838, when a new Secretary having been installed and a permanent fund consisting of two shares of Phoenix Bank stock having been gathered together, a strong effort was made to arouse interest in the Society and its work and increase the financial support on which it depended. The Rev. Dr. Jarvis, the new Secretary, worked with considerable success. The income jumped to over a thousand dollars a year and thirteen Missionaries were helped annually in sums varying from seventy-five to one hundred dollars each. It is difficult to see, as a rule, any decided improvement in conditions with which we are familiar, as we compare those conditions from year to year, but when we take the beginning and the ending of a comparatively long period we realize that, in spite of many discouragements and disappointments, our efforts have not been in vain. This was so in the first twenty years of the Society's life. When Bishop Brownell entered the Diocese in 1819 there were only seven self-supporting Parishes; in 1838 there were twenty-four; the additional seventeen had all received help from the Society at some time during that period. A glance at the names of some of the Parishes which received help in 1838 discloses the following among them, namely, Cheshire, Milford, New Britain, North Haven, Greenwich, Guilford and Bristol, all now independent. Some of the places aided then are aided to-day and will no doubt continue to need our help indefinitely.

We notice a pathetic parallel between the year of financial panic, 1837, and the year of financial panic, 1907, in this respect, to wit: In 1837 the Board issued an appeal asking for a more adequate support of the clergy and saying it will be conceded that the smallest amount of salary for each clergyman should not be less than five hundred dollars. Our Bishop's appeal of a year ago, followed by the action of this Board and the action of this Convention, is to the same point. No one we are sure will begrudge the hard-working, earnest and deserving Clergymen of this Diocese the extra appropriations which the consummation of that object will require. The year 1838 marked a distinct step of progress in our Diocesan missionary work. The next distinct step was taken in 1877, when the Archdeaconry system was organized. In the meantime the old corporation had become practically defunct and had to be revived by an act of the legislature in 1865, when we find such familiar names as John Williams, John C. Hollister, John Ferguson and C. H. Northam among the new incorporators. Places aided at this time, 1865, and now self-supporting were, Sharon, Winsted, South Manchester, Thompsonville and Washington. In 1866 the Trustees of the Protestant Episcopal Society for the Promotion of Christian Knowledge had its name changed to, and began to bear, its present title. That it served so long under such a cumbersome name is not so remarkable perhaps as it is that it served so well. The Society at this time distributed forty-seven hundred dollars among thirty-seven Parishes and Missions. An itinerant Missionary had been working for several years and the Journal of 1866 says that unusual satisfaction prevailed. Rockville, Willimantic, Putnam and Central Village appear above the horizon and the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars was appropriated for three of these places in 1867. In 1873 the largest amount, fifteen thousand dollars, ever appropriated in a single year was appropriated for diocesan work, but only a little over two-thirds of that amount was actually raised. So we come to the Archdeaconry system of 1877. To rehearse the work since then is quite unnecessary, but we may surely say of it, as a whole, that in spite of its defects the system has, through God's providence, met with approval and the cause of Missions in this Diocese has grown and prospered. On the material side, the permanent fund of 1838, consisting of the two shares of bank stock mentioned above, has become over forty thousand dollars in value now, and there are over seventy thousand dollars more in which we have a vested interest, though not the right of immediate possession. We are out of debt and our Parishes and Missions are meeting the pecuniary responsibilities, so far as this particluar work is concerned, with remarkable promptness, even in this year of financial distress. The twenty-four self-supporting Parishes of 1838 have increased to over one hundred in number, and what is more important, we are occupying, in a decidedly emphatic way, many of the towns which in 1838 numbered sixty, according to Bishop Brownell, and of which he said that no Episcopal congregation had then been organized therein. Of course some of the places then occupied we do not occupy now, but we may without fear of contradiction say that the growth and development of this Church in Connecticut are in a large measure due to the Society whose ninetieth birthday we celebrate at this time. God grant that in the coming years this Society and this Church may fulfil in this old Diocese their mission, as successfully as they have done in the past.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board,

BURTON MANSFIELD, Secretary.

APPENDIX E.

REPORTS OF THE ARCHDEACONRIES

I.

Fairfield Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Fairfield respectfully reports that the work at St. Luke's, Bridgeport, under the Rev. Mr. Wells has prospered during the year. The Parish House has been completed at a cost of $2,350, of which $2,000 has been paid. Of this $2,000 all but $250 has been given by people outside the Parish. The women of the Guild have put in and paid for a new carpet in the Church at a cost of $280. Curbs, gutters, and sidewalks around this Church have been put in good order by the city, and the Missionary Society has paid for the same.

The Missions at Byram and Round Hill have had regular services through the year. Holy Communion is celebrated at Round Hill on the first, and at Byram on the third, Sunday of each month. Stormy weather and scarlet fever have interfered with the work, but Rev. Mr. Magill has made 349 calls, and at Byram contributions have been larger than promised. All assessments have been paid and there is no indebtedness.

Rev. Mr. Jepson has faithfully taken care of his charges at Redding, Weston and Easton. On November 10 and 11, 1907, Christ Church, Redding, celebrated its one hundred and seventy-fifth anniversary, the Bishop, Clergy and several former Rectors gracing the occasion. A Sunday School and Bible Class are in operation, the Rectory has been completely re-covered and painted, and other repairs costing $175 have been made and paid for.

At Weston, Mr. Charles Adams, a Vestryman, has passed away, and removals, too, are felt by this little community. The Church has had two coats of white paint, and money has been given to paint the Rectory.

At Huntington and Nichols good work was done by Rev. Mr. Everest up to his departure at the end of January. Since then Lay Readers have helped out, and a Rector has been called to come July 1.

At East Norwalk a stone Church is nearly done. This Parish has united with Calvary Church, Bridgeport, to call a Rector, and in this way salary sufficient can be raised.

New work is opening at Danbury, where a Mission is to be started in a promising field.

As to the loss to the Archdeaconry suffered in the death of Rev. Mr. Booth, another more fittingly speaks, but his wise counsel and wide knowledge of Fairfield County are much missed among us.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

ALLEN EVERETT BEEMAN, Archdeacon of Fairfield.

II.

Litchfield Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Litchfield respectfully reports that during the year eight Parishes and Missions have received aid.

St. Mark's Parish, Bridgewater, continues under the faithful care of the Rev. Gideon D. Pond. During the year a Rectory has been built at the cost of $3,196.35, all of which has been paid except about three hundred dollars. The Parish was never in better condition spiritually and materially than at the present time.

St. Andrew's Parish, Kent, has renewed its vigor, chiefly through the incoming of the Kent School. The Rev. George H. Smith, the Rector, feels much encouragement in the present condition and in the outlook for the future. Substantial improvements have been made to the parish property and the services are well attended.

In Northfield conditions have not changed. The people are few and the outlook not encouraging. The Minister in Charge, the Rev. A. P. Chapman, has undertaken to do some work for crippled and unfortunate children from New York City and expects during the summer to give numbers of them the benefit of an outing upon the beautiful rectory grounds.

At Easter the Rev. J. D. Gilliland felt obliged on account of failing health to resign the charge of Plymouth, East Plymouth and Terryville. For eight years he has served this Parish and the two Missions with zeal and fidelity; and when forced to relinquish his work he carries with him the love and respect of all to whom he ministered. The resignation took effect June 1, and no one has yet succeeded him.

In Terryville services have been maintained with good attendance. Some more money has been raised during the year for the building of a Church and the members of the congregation are awaiting anxiously for the day when they shall see a church edifice of their own.

Riverton has been cared for, as last year, by the Rector of St. John's Church, Pine Meadow. While there is little growth there, the work is faithfully done.

St. Paul's Church, Woodbury, is in the vigorous care of the Rev. J. H. Barnard. The death of Judge James H. Huntington, for many years Treasurer of the Parish, is a great loss, but Woodbury is still strong and the future not without promise.

No appropriation was made to Christ Church, Bethlehem, as it has been vacant during the year. Services, however, have been held every Sunday, and much credit is due to the officers of the Parish for their persistence in securing supplies from Sunday to Sunday while they have been unable to secure a resident Rector. The Rector of Christ Church, Watertown, has done much to help them, and often given them an afternoon service when they could not get a supply for the morning. It is hoped that before long a Rector may be called.

The Church of the Transfiguration, Norfolk, was open as usual during the summer months. The entire expense of these services is met by the offerings, and each year the attendance increases.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN F. PLUMB, Archdeacon.

New Haven Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of New Haven respectfully reports:

Eight Parishes and one Mission have been aided during the past year.

Christ Church, East Haven, continues under the care of the Rev. George A. Alcott, Rector of Grace Church, New Haven, who reports the work to be very encouraging.

Grace Church, Hamden, is still under the rectorship of the Rev. James E. Coley. He reports the Parish to be in good condition. Mr. Coley is trying to do some Church work amongst the Italian laborers in the "Web-Shop" in Hamden.

The Rev. J. D. S. Pardee, Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Northford, and Minister in Charge of Zion Church, North Branford, reports that both Parishes are holding their own.

Christ Church, Bethany, is still served by the Rev. A. MacDougall, Ph.D., as Rector.

The Rev. George Buck, Rector of St. John's Church, North Guilford, reports that the work is going on quietly. Owing to the small population of North Guilford the Church cannot be expected to grow, but rather a decadence must be expected.

St. Peter's Church, Oxford, and Christ Church, Quaker Farms, are in a flourishing condition. The Rev. Mr. Sutherland, the Rector, gives a most encouraging account of the work and the interest shown by the people in both Parishes. Large confirmation classes were last month presented to the Bishop. Recently the parishioners raised, with the assistance of the Archdeaconry, enough money to purchase a horse for the Rector's use. It is Mr. Sutherland's intention to hold church services in Southford this summer, and the Archdeacon hopes with Mr. Sutherland's assistance to have the Church in Southbury reopened before long.

Services of the Church were held last summer in Madison by the Rector of the Church of the Holy Advent, Clinton, acting for the Archdeacon. The services were well attended and much interest shown by the summer residents.

The Clergy of the New York City Mission continue to hold services in the Chapel at Milford Haven during the months of July, August and September.

The Rector of Christ Church, West Haven, has started mission services at Savin Rock and Tyler City.

Several Parishes in New Haven are maintaining Missions and are doing splendid work. This might also be said of Clergymen in other parts of the Archdeaconry who are holding church services in places other than their own Parishes.

The Parishes receiving assistance have been paid their Appropriations for the year.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

GEORGE HICKMAN BUCK, Archdeacon.

IV.

Hartford Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

After an unusual number of changes, all of our Parishes and Missions except St. Gabriel's, East Berlin, and St. Paul's, Southington, are enjoying regular ministrations of a settled Clergyman.

East Berlin has a Lay Reader from Berkeley Divinity School in regular charge and is greatly favored by the priestly ministrations of Dr. Samuel Hart as occasion requires. He administers the Holy Communion on one Sunday each month and in the last six years has baptized 10 adults and 28 infants. We renew our cordial thanks for these and many other services in this Archdeaconry rendered freely and gratuitously.

St. Paul's, Southington, will be supplied by the Rev. F. C. Wainwright, of Hartford, until the Bishop is able to send a Rector to that Parish. The scarcity of Clergy has been felt to a marked degree. One Parish in a pleasant village, with a nucleus of devoted people, easily accessible, with a comfortable Rectory and a salary of $900, only secured a Minister in Charge after four calls had been declined. While this lack of Clergy sometimes lengthens the intervals between rectorships, it tends to increase the pay of the Clergyman and to decrease the desire of the laity for change. Both are blessings to be devoutly desired.

St. James's, Glastonbury, and Christ Church, Unionville, have raised the salary of their respective Clergymen fifty dollars and the Archdeaconry has added a like sum in each case. Glastonbury will make another increase as soon as the Archdeaconry can do likewise.

St. Monica's Mission for colored people in Hartford has agreed to increase their Priest's salary from $550 to $600 by our aid. On the whole the people are showing commendable readiness to carry out the Bishop's suggestion in his last convention address that we seek to raise all salaries that are below the mark towards a minimum of $1,000. It is worthy of mention also that St. Monica's Mission rejoices that the Deacon in Charge has been advanced to the Priesthood, that a boy choir has become a reality, and that a friend has added $100 to their building fund, which now amounts to $360. They should have a building of their own very soon. They now have 57 Communicants.

The barn purchased by the Church of Our Saviour, Plainville, has now been moved, and fully transformed into a Parish House. A kitchen has been added and the entire work paid for except about $100.

St. John's, Rockville, held a Parochial Mission last Advent by the aid of the neighboring Clergy. The Rector reports gratifying results.

The Rev. F. B. Cole has done good work at Suffield, Windsor Locks and Broad Brook. Since these places have been connected by trolley it is possible to serve them from one center. With the assistance of a Lay Reader the Missionary is able to hold services and Sunday School in each place every Sunday at regular hours. Grace Church, Broad Brook, will be extensively repaired this summer and the funds will be forthcoming to pay the bills. Through the careful management of the Senior Warden of Calvary, Suffield, several small legacies and gifts have grown into a fund of nearly $1,300. Efforts are making to purchase the Rector's "hired house" in Windsor Locks for a Rectory. This is one of our most pressing needs.

Trinity, Collinsville, has acquired and partly paid for land and buildings adjacent on the west side of the church lot. This is a very important step. It removes a defacing eyesore from proximity to the Church. It also affords a site and temporary buildings for a much needed Parish House.

St. John's, Forestville, has exchanged ten feet along one side of its lot for a like strip on the other side, to facilitate the use of the side entrance of the Chapel.

St. James's, Glastonbury, recently celebrated its 50th Anniversary with much éclat and seems full of vigor and cheerfulness under the ministrations of the Rev. E. G. Reynolds.

The women of Tariffville have raised and spent for new carpets and other purposes $374.21.

The Treasurer's report will show what Parishes and Missions have been aided and to what extent.

The need of more advance in the work of proper financial support for our Missionaries is best shown by the following extracts from the report of one of the oldest and best of ours:

"To the amount paid the Rector, $250, is to be added a like amount from the Mitchelson Fund, which, with the Appropriation of $200 from the Archdeaconry, makes $700, not a princely stipend certainly when it is remembered that there is no Rectory. To help out a little, for twelve years the Rector has held a civil office under the appointment of six successive Governors."

It is impossible in this brief report to even mention all the good features of the work accomplished by our faithful Clergy. Only the salient points can be noted in some places. The detailed reports printed in the Journal will furnish full information. It is impossible to give any adequate idea of the spiritual conquests and fruitage of souls.

Suffice it to say that effective, devoted, self-sacrificing work has been done all along the line to the Glory of God and the benefit of His Holy Church.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

HARRY I. BODLEY, Archdeacon.

Middlesex Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Middlesex respectfully reports:

There has been no change in the list of aided Parishes and Missions, nor in the amount of assistance extended to them. The accompanying table gives their names with the Appropriation, which I need not rehearse here. There is very little new to note, as conditions continue about as they have been, with quiet, patient work all over the field and as much in the way of gain as could reasonably be expected.

St. Luke's, Chester, still enjoys the faithful and efficient services of Mr. Samuel McKibbin, a student of the Berkeley Divinity School. There is a band of loyal church people which is steadily growing, and when the little Chapel, which they have in prospect, is built, I look for still more marked results. The Bishop made a visitation within the year and confirmed four persons.

Holy Advent, Clinton, lost its Rector in September by the removal of the Rev. C. E. Roberts to Farmington, but services have been regularly maintained and the Sacraments administered. Much credit is due to Mr. John L. Elliot, Senior Warden, for his watchful oversight of the Parish during this trying period. The Rev. Chas. A. Tibbals of the Diocese of Newark has been called, and accepted and took charge at Easter. He promises to be the right man and the Parish is taking hold with new interest and growing congregations.

The Rev. Joseph Hooper continues in charge of Epiphany, Durham, and St. Paul's, Middlefield. These are fields lying off to one side, thoroughly rural, where there is very little chance for change or expansion. The Durham Parish is more than holding its own and a good and necessary work is being done by the Rector, over a widely scattered field. The Church, already so well appointed and furnished, has been presented with a pair of brass alms basins by Mrs. Joseph Smith, in memory of her husband, for many years the Treasurer and Vestryman of the Parish. The old Parish in Middlefield has been weakened by constant removal; the town has recently been connected, by trolley, with Middletown. What the effect of this is to be, whether of help or hindrance, we shall be better able to report a year hence.

The Rev. Prof. Colladay, Minister in Charge of Christ Church, Middle Haddam, has taken up the building project of the Mission at East Hampton with new vigor. The old plans, which called for a larger expenditure than was warranted by the means in sight, have been abandoned, or rather, very considerably modified. They are now in the hands of the architect and it is expected that work will be begun in the fall. The delay has been due, principally, to the fact that this is a Mission of the old Middle Haddam Parish, which has had frequent change of Rectors in the past few years. In spite of this, the Mission is in a healthy condition, and numbers and interest have been maintained.

Grace Chapel, Hadlyme, which is a Mission of St. Stephen's, East Haddam, is served by the Rector, the Rev. Mr. Parker, who conducts one service there every Sunday. The locality is far removed from all lines of communication and the work is necessarily a sowing beside very still if not stale waters. Nevertheless, it is the salvation of eastern Connecticut to look out for such places.

Mr. C. J. Harriman, a student of the Berkeley Divinity School, who for the past three years has served so faithfully and acceptably as Lay Reader of All Saints' Mission, Ivoryton, has been ordained. He was particularly successful in interesting the many young people of the Mission and organizing them into guilds. He leaves the Mission in a greatly improved condition. He is succeeded by Mr. Hawk of the Divinity School. The Mission, whose whole support comes from the mill people, has felt the pinch of the business depression.

The Rev. Mr. Knowles, for thirty years and more the faithful Missionary of Killingworth and Ponsett, who formerly had some American stock to care for, finds his work now mostly among Bohemians and other strange peoples, really of Roman affiliation, who look to him as a Pastor to care for their sick and to bury their dead. It is a very unique niche he is filling and none more necessary. He has also been giving a service once in two weeks to St. Paul's Mission at Shailerville, which was so thinned by removals in the winter that we hardly felt warranted to incur the expense of a student every Sunday.

The winter is the discouraging part of the year in St. Paul's Mission, Westbrook, nevertheless services have been regularly maintained by a very efficient Lay Reader from Berkeley, Mr. Montgomery Smith. The Mission is well filled for the three summer months by the cottagers and others who come to the shore.

Since my last report, service has been held twice a month at the Soldiers' Home in Cromwell. The notice is given out at the Congregational Church and several from the community attend.

Generally speaking, although there is no resident Missionary in several of these Missions, the Sacraments have been regularly administered, mainly by the Divinity School staff, to whom we are also largely indebted for the Cromwell services.

The Archdeacon respectfully repeats his plea for a year's trial, with the assistance of the Board, of a Deaconess to go in and out among the people of those Missions, which, being served only by a Lay Reader, present conditions and needs which are peculiar to this Archdeaconry. Two-thirds of the necessary sum have been pledged by the Woman's Auxiliary and the Girls' Friendly Society, leaving the balance to be looked for from this Board. All the Parishes and Missions have paid their Apportionment with possibly one exception.

Respectfully submitted,

O. H. RAFTERY, Archdeacon.

New London Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The present Archdeacon received his appointment to the office on December 6, 1907. Since that date he has visited, in some cases more than once, all the aided Parishes and Missions except those at Hebron, Colchester and South Lyme, which will be visited in the near future. On the whole, what he has been able to learn and to accomplish at these visitations has been very encouraging. Most of the visitations were made during Lent. Everywhere the attendance at the Lenten services showed a much higher average than has been the case for some years past. But while this was encouraging as an indication of quickened spiritual life, it was accompanied, in many cases, by a counter-note of discouragement. The financial depression in the commercial world had made itself apparent in church receipts, and the outlook for closing the parochial year without debt was not encouraging. This led the Archdeacon, in several cases, to urge upon the Lay Committees an earnest canvass of the members of the congregations, in the hope of securing large Easter offerings to offset threatened deficits. This was done, and it is gratifying to hear that, as a result, the Easter offerings were uniformly larger than usual, and the deficits were either reduced greatly, or wiped out altogether. During the year two vacancies have been filled and one created. The Rev. Raymond M. Dow Adams entered upon the rectorship of Grace Church, Stafford Springs, on January 1, and there are many evidences that his vigorous labors are bearing fruit. A vested choir has been introduced, an excellent work accomplished among the boys of the Parish, and an earnest effort is being made to secure funds for the redecoration of the interior of the Church. This will cost about one thousand dollars, of which the ladies already have on hand some three hundred dollars.

In response to an appeal from the Archdeacon, this Parish has recently made a reduction of twenty-five dollars in the amount it asks of the Archdeaconry. This is only one of similar reductions the Parish has made in the past few years, and is a further step towards ultimate self-dependence. The Mission to the Lymes, which has been vacant since August of last year, has been filled by the appointment of the Rev. Franklin S. Moore, who entered upon his duties on June 1. This Mission includes four points or stations, Black Hall, Niantic, South Lyme and Millstone. In preparation for Mr. Moore's coming the Guild at Black Hall has spent some four hundred dollars in repairs and improvements to the Falls Memorial Rectory. Of this sum, one hundred dollars was appropriated by the Archdeaconry from the accrued interest of the Isabella Tracy Eaton Fund. At the request of the Archdeacon, the Black Hall Mission has added fifty dollars a year to the amount it has hitherto contributed towards the stipend of the Missionary. Several candidates for Confirmation will be presented at the next visit of the Bishop.

The Rev. Dr. Grint, of New London, relinquished the charge of the Bishop Seabury Memorial Mission, Groton, on May 1, and it is at present under the care of the Rev. A. C. Jones, of Mystic. A plan is under consideration to combine Groton and Noank, and make them a separate cure. The plan seems entirely feasible, and approves itself to the members of the Missions.

St. Paul's Mission, Willimantic, is in vigorous condition. It reports one of the largest Easter offerings in its history, enabling it to pay all bills and start the new year with a comfortable balance. The Rectory and Parish House are sadly in need of repairs and painting. A fund is now being raised for this purpose, and the Archdeaconry has recently voted an appropriation of one hundred and twenty-five dollars for the same object from the Tracy Eaton Fund. The Missionary reports some sixty Syrian men as connected with the Mission, and energetic efforts are being made to win and hold them for the Church. The Rev. Mr. Hatch has come into touch with them in their homes, and about fifteen have been studying English in a night school in the Parish House. The people of the Mission are rejoicing over the recent decision of the Superior Court, which assures to them the twenty thousand dollars towards a new Church promised by the late Mrs. Boardman, of New Haven, together with a year's interest. With the immediate prospect of thirty thousand dollars to proceed with, the new Church edifice promises to be a fact in the near future. Willimantic is a strategic point, and a more adequate equipment for its growing work is sorely needed.

Calvary Parish, Stonington, fittingly celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone of the Church, and the fifty-ninth of its consecration, on the Sunday after Ascension. The Church edifice has been recently redecorated, and the affairs of the Parish, both spiritual and temporal, are in a satisfactory condition.

The Missionary of St. Philip's, Putnam, was obliged by ill-health to absent himself from his work during a space of two months in the spring. In his absence, the Mission was under the efficient care of the Rev. William Walker. The Rev. John W. Walker has now resumed his post in improved health and hopes this summer to inaugurate regular services at Thompson.

At the request of the Archdeacon, the Mission at Putnam has promised to increase its part of the missionary stipend by the sum of fifty dollars. This, together with the additional amount recently voted by the Board of Directors, will considerably increase the stipend and bring it more on an equality with that of other parts of the Archdeaconry. The Easter offering was large and prospects are bright.

St. James's Church, Poquetanuck, reports six confirmed and twenty baptized during the past year—an unusual record. The Parish has felt the effects of the financial depression considerably, as most of its members are employed in mills. But, already, things are looking brighter, and the Rector and Vestry are in a hopeful frame of mind.

At St. Mark's Church, Mystic, the year has, on the whole, been a prosperous one. There have been eight baptisms and six confirmations. A new furnace has contributed greatly to the comfort of the congregation. The Lenten services were exceptionally well attended, and the Easter offering was one of the largest in the history of the Church. Owing to exceptional expenses, and the effect of the financial depression, there was a considerable deficit at the close of the fiscal year. Energetic efforts are now being made, under the leadership of the Guild, to efface this deficit.

The Missionary of St. Alban's, Danielson, reports a year of quiet progress.

With the assistance of the Rev. Mr. Bohanan, the Archdeacon has held monthly services in Jewett City since January, with an average attendance of twenty. There are some fourteen Communicants and one person from the Mission was confirmed recently in Norwich.

This year marks the completion of twenty-five years of faithful and efficient service by Mr. William M. Stark as Secretary and Treasurer of the Archdeaconry. In recognition of this fact, the members of the Archdeaconry tendered him a dinner at the Crocker House, New London, on January 13. Speeches were made by the Archdeacon, Mr. Stark, and others, and, in the name of the Archdeaconry, Rev. Dr. Grint presented to Mr. Stark a copy of the "Temple Bible."

The lamented death of the Rev. Lucius M. Hardy, for some years Archdeacon of New London, occurred at his home in Pomfret on Sunday, December 29, 1907, and fitting tributes to his memory have been passed by the Archdeaconry and other bodies with which he had been associated, but the writer cannot close without expressing afresh his appreciative recognition of Mr. Hardy's earnestness and fidelity in the discharge of his Archidiaconal duties.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

J. ELDRED BROWN, Archdeacon of New London.

Church Scholarship Society

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, MIDDLETOWN, June 9, 1908.

The annual meeting was held at the above time and place, the Rt. Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., President, in the chair.

The Secretary presented the following

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

A review of the business of this Society since the last report to the Convention, brings to notice the fact that sixty-seven Parishes have contributed $691.69. A larger number than that have failed to contribute.

The sum of $465 in notes, from eight individuals, has been paid back into the treasury.

Nine students have been helped; eight at Berkeley, and one at Trinity College. These loans amount to $900.

The work of the Society continues to be appreciated and is still felt to be needed in the life of the Diocese. The Board of Education must therefore continue to depend upon the generosity of Connecticut Churchmen, and begs them as individuals and as members of Parishes not to forget the claims of this Society. Our work is to lend money without interest to deserving students of good scholarship, who are studying for the Ministry in Connecticut.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE T. LINSLEY, Secretary.

The Treasurer also presented his Report.

Both these Reports were accepted and ordered to be printed with the Journal.

The following were reëlected as members of the Board of Education for the ensuing year:

A large part of the congregation is made up of the pupils of Miss Porter's School. Consequently the number of actual Communicants is much greater than the record shows.

The meetings of the Girls' Friendly Society are well attended, and are of great benefit to the community. There is a monthly service for this Society, with a special address, except during the summer months.

The Holy Communion is celebrated on all Sundays and Saints' Days throughout the year.

The Archdeacon desires to record his regret at the loss of Mr. C. J. Harriman, who has been the faithful and efficient Lay Reader for the past three years, and who, having been ordained to the Diaconate in June, goes as Curate to the Rector of All Saints' Church, Worcester, Mass. Under him the Mission was thoroughly organized for active and aggressive work among the many young people in the vicinity, whose hearty good wishes attend him to his new field. He is succeeded by Mr. Hawk of the Berkeley Divinity School.

The list of Communicants has been carefully revised, causing an apparent loss since last year.

During the year the Altar Society has given to the Church a stole and two brass alms basins, and the Parish has fitted up the Rectory with a complete bathroom and laundry outfit of the best modern fixtures. The ladies have also sent barrels of clothing to the Comfort Club and elsewhere—value not estimated.

June 7, the fortieth anniversary of his ordination to the Diaconate, the congregation surprised the Rector with a purse containing $55.00 in gold, with other testimonials, not included in the above report.

The present rectorship dates from December 16, 1907. Previous to that date the Parish was without a Rector for five weeks. The apparent loss in the number of Communicants is mainly due to a difference in the method of counting. The number 142 includes many not positively known to be active Communicants. The Easter communions numbered 75.

Last year there was reported a fund of $130.00 held by the Minister in charge as part of a Parish House Fund. This fund was increased during the year just ended to $916.46, which has been expended for a convenient Parish House, now in use. Of this sum, $100.00 is a temporary loan. Of the remainder, about half was given by friends without the Parish, the rest having been given and earned in the Parish within the past three years.

The parish endowment has been increased within the year by a legacy of $5,000.00 and a handsome residence on Main Street through the will of the late Mrs. Abigail Gleason, for many years a faithful Communicant of Trinity Church. Also by a gift of $3,000.00 from the Misses Ann and Corinne Brainerd. All of which have been included above under the head of endowments.

Mrs. John Henry Hall of Hartford, who three years ago erected a handsome and costly Parish House in memory of her husband, sometime Vestryman of the Parish, has further improved and enlarged the building, making it even more complete and adapted to its uses than before.

Services have been regularly maintained at the Chapel of St. John the Baptist, the report of which is included above. The Rector is assisted by Mr. Todd of the Berkeley Divinity School as Lay Reader.

The Rector has also conducted a Sunday afternoon service throughout the whole year in Union Chapel at Saybrook Point, consisting of the shortened form of Evening Prayer and a sermon. There has been an average attendance of fifty-five. About two hundred dollars have been raised by the voluntary offerings of those who attend these services to meet the current expenses, and also to defray the cost of two coats of paint, by which the Chapel has gained much in attractiveness of outward appearance.

Twelve hundred and seventy-five dollars have been realized from the sale of property in Saybrook, given to the Church some years ago by the late Mrs. Elizabeth H. Colt of Hartford. This will be known as the Colt Memorial Fund.

The chief new item in the visible life of the Parish is the organization and vesting of the choir of thirty voices; a mixed choir, full of enthusiasm, faithful and much appreciated.

A flourishing Castle, Knights of King Arthur, may also be mentioned as doing finely.

Of the higher things, the attendance at early Celebrations may be noted as unusually good, as such attendances average in proportion to the number of Communicants.

FINANCIAL REPORT

RECEIPTS		I. PAROCHIAL EXPENDITURES
From offerings,*	$6.96	Horse hire, ...	$6.50

*Since January 1, 1908.

Buff Cap Mission, about four and a half miles from Grace Church, is conducted once a month in a schoolhouse. It is unorganized, and services are attended by few. Owing to removals from the locality (to the Springs and elsewhere) there are not over a dozen families connected with the Church, I think. All, or nearly all, of these have teams, and come to the village to trade, and might come to Church occasionally, likewise. The statistics, aside from the money items, are included in the report of the Parish of Grace Church.

On the Sunday after Ascension Day, May 31, an interesting commemorative service was held in the Church. It was the sixtieth anniversary of the first Confirmation service in the Parish, and of the laying of the corner stone of the Church edifice, which was consecrated one year later on the same day.

The Rector has officiated once or twice at the (now union) Chapel of the Holy Cross, Wequetequock.

On All Saints, a richly carved oak pulpit, with figures of St. Columba and St. Augustine of Canterbury, was blessed. It is a memorial of Henry John Hendey, for thirty-one years a Warden of this Parish, and is the gift of Mrs. Hendey and her daughters, Mrs. Charles H. Alvord and Mrs. Charles S. Palmer.

On Easter, gifts in the Baptistry were blessed as follows: Three windows picturing our Lord's Baptism, the Baptism of Ethelbert by St. Augustine, the Ark, the Passage of the Red Sea, and Angels with scrolls. Also a richly wrought quartered oak wainscoting, buttressed and paneled. These gifts are in memory of Josephine Workman. A massive font cover of bronze and oak was at the same time added, completing the memorial marble font and baptistry, erected when the Church was built, to the memory of Jennie Gould Workman. These gifts were made by the parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Workman.

During the year the Parish has received a legacy of $2,500.00 from the estate of the late Henry J. Hendey, and the same has been invested as an endowment fund.

A granite Parish House, partly two and partly three stories, is being built, to cost, when completed and equipped, about $35,000.00. It is to be ready for use in the late autumn.

On September 26 the new Church, completed at a total expenditure of $57,000.00, was consecrated by the Bishop of the Diocese. On September 30 the Parish House was destroyed by fire. The Parish, after the strain of building the Church, felt itself unequal, financially, to build a substantial and adequate new Parish House, and was compelled to erect a temporary structure to meet immediate needs.

The old Church erected in 1739 has been taken down and the materials are being used to erect a Chapel within the Parish on the West Shore and in the neighborhood of Savin Rock, to be called St. Martin-in-the-Fields, to associate it with the name of the first Rector of the Parish, Rev. Samuel Johnson, who was ordained in the Church of the same name in London in the year 1723. In the last year services have been held in the locality of the Chapel and were largely attended. A promising Sunday School is held near by in a private house.

In Tyler City the Mission of the Good Shepherd has come into existence in the last year. Sunday School is held every Sunday, and a service by the Rector of Christ Church is held every month in the house of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Scharf, the former acting as Lay Reader.

NOTE.—"Sittings" and "Free Sittings" are given as last reported, usually in 1899, but sometimes earlier or corrected later. These items, being permanent and not changing annually, were omitted from the form for Parochial Report by the Convention of 1899, on the understanding that the Secretary would publish them in a separate list. Where no Sittings are reported, there is no building completed and belonging to the Parish or Mission. "Current Expenses (including Salaries)" are tabulated for convenience in making the assessments based upon them.

The information about Buildings was first added, by request of the Convention, in 1906; and was obtained by inquiring of the various Rectors. Since then the changes have been noted by the Secretary, so far as reported in any way; and this year the list has been corrected by comparison with the Wardens' Reports to the Bishop, (on value of Church Property, etc.,) supplemented by special inquiries in cases of doubt. The Secretary will be grateful for further corrections, if needed.

Mr. Charles H. Tibbits presented the following

To the Diocesan Convention of Connecticut:

Your Committee, appointed two years ago to take into consideration the matter of increase of salary of the Clergy, beg to report that they have attended to the duties assigned them.

Since the last Diocesan Convention, at which time the Committee reported progress, they have given the subject most careful thought, and beg to submit the following.

There are many instances in the Diocese where a real need exists for a larger salary for the Clergy. To meet such a demand, your Committee have exhausted all possible plans looking to such a result, and believe that the most practical method of obtaining funds for such a purpose is by the payment of personal subscriptions from those throughout the Diocese who are willing to give, the same to be paid annually for a period of three or five years; such funds to be placed in the hands of a Committee to be appointed by this Convention, said Committee to be entirely responsible for and to use its discretion in the distribution of such funds for such purpose. This plan carries with it no thought of an endowment, but suggests a plain business proposition, which, if properly carried out, will in the opinion of your Committee largely accomplish the desired result to the satisfaction of the Diocese as a whole.

They therefore present the following Resolution:

Resolved, That a Committee of seven, of which the Bishop of this Diocese shall be Chairman, be appointed by this Convention, the duties of said Committee to be as follows:

First, To solicit pledges of money throughout the Diocese for the better support of the needy and deserving Clergy, said pledges to take the form of annual payments for a period of three or five years.

Second, To be responsible for all such moneys as shall be collected, and to have entire charge and authority in the matter of all distribution of such funds to such of the Clergy as in their opinion are rightly entitled to such payments, it being clearly understood that in event of the increase of any Clergyman's salary from this fund, the Parish of which such Clergyman is Rector, if it be able, shall contribute an amount equal to and for the same period as, the sum to be paid from such fund.

Respectfully submitted,

C. H. TIBBITS,
JAS. J. GOODWIN,
NELSON J. WELTON,
WALTON FERGUSON,
F. J. KINGSBURY, JR.,
Committee.

On motion of Mr. William W. Skiddy, the Resolution was amended by including the five members of the present Committee, and was then adopted unanimously.

The Rev. J. Chauncey Linsley presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON WORK AMONG FOREIGNERS

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut:

It will be remembered that this Commission was appointed by the Convention of two years ago to consider what service the Church might render to the immigrants recently come into the Diocese. The Commission made a report to the Convention of last year, presented a series of recommendations, and asked to be authorized to continue its investigations and to report to the Convention in 1909.

During the past year the Commission has become more and more impressed with the gravity of conditions and the Church's evident and great responsibility for the spiritual care of large numbers of the foreign-born, while it has been greatly encouraged by the earnest and successful efforts of many Rectors to reach these people. It is no unusual thing to find confirmation classes which include representatives from a half dozen or more lands. In some of our Churches hospitality is being shown and services are held in foreign languages; in Swedish by Swedish Missionaries of our own communion; in Greek, by Priests of the Russo-Greek Church. Such services are well attended, with the result that the foreign-born are greatly comforted to hear in their own tongues the wonderful works of God, and are spiritually edified; and also that the children are urged by their Missionaries to attend our Sunday Schools and services. The value of such work is inestimable. It proves our brotherliness, gives us points of contact, insures membership for our Parishes for the next generation in our rapidly changing towns, and gives opportunity for teaching true citizenship to a people who side by side with us are sharers in the welfare of Connecticut.

But this Commission knows that much more than this should be done. While the Church has no desire to proselyte or to set up altar against altar, or disturb the faith of the faithful, it ought to shepherd the shepherdless, and to give faith to the weak in faith. Therefore, the Church should be able to make its historic faith and ways known to men of other tongues. To this end the Commission has prepared for publication in various languages, as need may arise, the following statement, which has the approval of our Bishop.

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH

THIS CHURCH IS CALLED EPISCOPAL. This Church is commonly called Episcopal because it keeps the succession of bishops (vescovi, etc.) from the Apostles. Its Bishops, consecrated by their predecessors, in turn consecrate their successors, and ordain Priests and Deacons. Thus the Church is called Episcopal because it keeps the Holy Orders of the Ministry through Bishops. The full name used in legal documents,—that is, its title before the civil law,—is The Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. The word Protestant in this title refers to the protest of the English people in the sixteenth century against the rule of the Papacy. At that time the English Bishops, denying the right of the Bishop of Rome to rule the whole Church, asserted the political independence of their national Church as the Church of England; and from this, planted in the English colonies, sprang the Church in the United States called Episcopal. Like the Church of England and the Orthodox Eastern or Greek Church, it is Protestant politically in being independent of the Papacy, or see of Rome.

THIS CHURCH IS CATHOLIC. In the same sixteenth century other nations protested against the Papacy and withdrew. This period throughout Europe is called the Reformation. But the Church of England participated in the Reformation only so far as to establish her political independence, not so far as to give up any part of the Catholic faith. In certain countries on the other hand,—for instance, Germany and Switzerland,—the Reformation led to a general giving up, not only of Papal authority, but of Holy Orders through Bishops and of the Catholic administration of the sacraments. The Church of England and the Episcopal Church in the United States have kept the Catholic faith and practice concerning both Holy Orders and the sacraments. The Episcopal Church, therefore, is Catholic, but not Roman Catholic. It is an American Catholic Church, holding in this respect the same position as the Church of England in Great Britain and the Orthodox Eastern Church in Russia and Greece, except that it has no connection with the State. In short it is an American part of the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church. Catholics coming to the United States from Roman Catholic countries, and keeping their allegiance to the Church system of those countries, the Episcopal Church does not disturb in that allegiance. Catholics coming from the countries of the Orthodox Eastern Church it receives among its own people, or offers its buildings for the celebration of the Greek rite. All Americans, whatever their race or previous Church allegiance, who in this country wish to keep the Catholic faith without other allegiance than to the whole Catholic Church and the Bishop of each Diocese, are welcomed to the Episcopal Church.

THIS CHURCH KEEPS THE GREAT CREEDS. To such Americans the Episcopal Church offers as summaries of her faith the great creeds of the Church Universal: The Apostles' Creed (the shorter creed said at Morning and Evening Prayer); The Nicene Creed (the fuller creed said at the Holy Communion).

THIS CHURCH INTERPRETS THE BIBLE THROUGH THE SACRAMENTS AND THE CHURCH YEAR. The Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ is called in this Church Holy Communion. The office for this, as for Baptism, Confirmation, etc., with the epistle and gospel for each Sunday and holy day (e. g., Christmas, St. John Baptist, All Saints', etc.), the calendar of these feasts and fasts, the offices for Daily Morning and Evening Prayer, and the Psalter, are all in The Book of Common Prayer, which is used by all the lay people, not only to follow the service, but to join in it responsively. In this and other ways The Book of Common Prayer interprets to the people both the Church and the Bible. The Bible is read as a whole each year in the daily lessons; it is summarized in the creeds; it is used devotionally in psalms and responses; it is interpreted, not only in preaching, but in all the Prayer Book services. The Book of Common Prayer in English or Italian may be obtained by applying to the Rector of the nearest Church; in Spanish, of the New York Bible and Common Prayer Book Society, which can also furnish certain services in Swedish; and in other languages.

The Commission desires to repeat from the recommendations made to the Convention of last year the following:

That encouragement be given to religious workers speaking foreign tongues, in their efforts to attach their former fellow-countrymen, scattered in our towns and villages, to our Churches.

That devoted and systematic attention be given to bringing into our Sunday Schools the children of the foreign-born who are now unattached.

The offer of the hospitality of our Churches and Chapels to such groups of communicants as desire the ministration in their native language of such Priests as are permitted to officiate in Churches of our Anglican Communion, e. g., Russo-Greek Church Priests.

The distribution and use among Swedes of leaflets containing Morning and Evening Prayer and the Communion Office in the Swedish language, and among Italians, of our Book of Common Prayer in the Italian language; whereby these people, long trained to a liturgy, may the more readily and intelligently join in our services.

That careful observation be made of youths from other lands, with a view to securing Candidates for Holy Orders able to speak in some foreign language, the better to enable the Church to minister to in grants; and that the special opportunities for those speaking langu of our immigrants be commended to students for Holy Orders.

The Commission begs to add, that inasmuch as its work has bro it into correspondence with commissions and committees of other Dioc and with the first Missionary Department, and inasmuch as ther apparent need of some diocesan bureau of information on this impoi work, this Commission respectfully asks that it be continued for anc year.

Respectfully submitted,

J. CHAUNCEY LINSLEY,
JAMES GOODWIN,
ERIT B. SCHMITT,
RICHARD L. DEZENG,
CHARLES SEARS BALDWIN,
Commissio

The Report was accepted and ordered to be printed with Journal, and the Commission was continued.

Judge L. P. Waldo Marvin presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON SOCIAL SERVICE A SOCIAL RESEARCH

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Commission on Social Service and Social Research, createc a Resolution of the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut in J 1907, presented its first Report to the following Convention which was in June of 1908, recommending especially an effort on the part of the Cl and laity of this Diocese to secure an appropriation by the Legislatur this State for the erection and equipment of an institution in the na of a sanitarium for the treatment, care and custody of persons addi to the excessive use of narcotics and other stimulants. The Report the Commission was accepted, and by Resolution the recommendati contained therein were endorsed, and the Commission continued, v power to add to its number. The Commission has had a number of m ings during the past year, and individual members have investigated sc conditions, to the betterment of which it seemed possible that the eff of the Church might be wisely and efficiently directed. The Commiss however, has devoted most of its time and efforts in an attempt to se from the present Legislature an appropriation for the erection and eq ment of such an institution as was recommended in its last Report, and i that there are no social conditions more urgently demanding relief wi the scope of this Commission than those which such an institution w alleviate, except possibly conditions resulting from tuberculosis and i the improper treatment of juvenile offenders and criminals, both of w bills now pending before, and likely to be enacted by, the present Legislature will go far to remedy.

Your Commission secured the introduction by President Luther of Trinity College, a Senator representing the First Senatorial District, of a bill creating a Commission of seven persons to be nominated by the Governor to investigate the care and treatment afforded to persons addicted to the intemperate use of narcotics and stimulants, and persons afflicted with the milder forms of insanity; and this bill was referred to the Committee on Humane Institutions, together with a number of bills originating from other sources, among them, a bill establishing a State Reformatory, and a bill establishing a State Farm for the care and treatment of the classes of persons above referred to. Members of the Commission attended hearings in relation to the bill prepared by them, and also attended hearings relating to the other bills above referred to; and it finally appearing probable that but one of the proposed measures could receive the favorable action of the Committee on Appropriations and be enacted by the Legislature, the proponents of the various bills united in giving first place to the bill creating a State Reformatory; and this bill was favorably reported by the Committee on Humane Institutions, and afterwards referred by the House to the Committee on Appropriations. At the moment of writing, no report has been made by the Committee on Appropriations, but there is every good reason to expect that they will report favorably on an appropriation of $400,000 to establish and equip such a Reformatory. The Commission hopes and expects that this bill will become a law, and that its provisions will be such that the Reformatory when completed will also serve as a proper place for the treatment and care of the class of persons referred to in our previous report; and, to assist in bringing this about, recommends the adoption by this Convention of the accompanying Resolution. The Commission also recommends that the influence of the Clergy and laity of this Diocese be exerted as far as possible to secure the enactment by the present Legislature of bills pending before it for more adequate supervision and restriction of child-labor.

The increase in crime among boys and girls in our cities brings us face to face with the stern necessity to do something radical in their behalf. These juvenile offenders ought not to be classified with older offenders. They should not be tried in the same courts or confined in the same prison. The establishment of a State Reformatory will in a measure improve these conditions; and we also invite your attention to movements already under way in various parts of the State for the establishment in cities and larger towns of juvenile courts with probation officers in attendance, and of better equipped play-grounds for children. We would especially call your attention to The Connecticut Branch of the George Junior Republic, located in Litchfield. This Republic is an offspring of the older and better known Republic in Freeville, N. Y. The Connecticut Branch is about to be set apart as a separate institution and incorporated under Connecticut laws. It is hoped that State commitment to the Republic will be made possible by legislative enactment.

The founders of the George Junior Republic have laid hold of some fundamental principles of education in dealing with reformatory methods.

It is not a reformatory but a school republic. A capacity for self-co trol or self-government is cultivated in the child. He is not asked to su mit to some arbitrary power which is external to his interests. He creat the power. The ones who exercise authority over him are chosen by h own votes and those of his peers. The principles of the Constitution of t United States are applied to the Republic, with marvelous success. The c izens are trained for the kind of life they are to live when they go out their smaller Republic into the larger but similar coöperative life of t world. Furthermore, the children of the George Junior Republic are deve oped through productive activity. They make or produce something usef to themselves and their fellow citizens. In the Republic the citizen mu work or starve. He invariably chooses work as the lesser of these evil The experiment of Mr. George in this Republic has been a success. is a bold idea, and it has worked out well. Resolved, That the Clergy and laity of the Protestant Episcopal Chur in this Diocese urge upon the Legislature of the State of Connecticut, no in session, the necessity of enacting a bill for the erection, equipment a maintenance of a State Reformatory; an appropriation of a sufficie sum of money to cover the cost of the same; and the incorporation such provisions in the law that commitments of persons addicted to t excessive use of narcotics and other stimulants may be made to such Reformatory by Police Magistrates and Courts of Probate.

About one o'clock the Convention took a recess until 2.30 P. M during which luncheon was served in Foot Guard Hall, 159 Hig Street, by the kindness of the Churchmen of Hartford.

TUESDAY, 2.30 P. M.

The Convention having reassembled, the Rev. Dr. Seymo presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON PAROCHIAL ARCHIVES

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Permanent Commission on Parochial Archives respectfully prese its eleventh annual Report.

The Commission has continued its work of research among the archives of the American Church for items relating particularly to this Diocese. This has been done mainly by our colleague, the Rev. Joseph Hooper, whose careful work has, in former years, done so much for the Commission. It is hoped that he will be able to continue his labors, as he has leisure, during the coming year.

The results of these investigations are being put into typewritten form, available to the future historian, from the transcripts made from the originals by him. Among the papers copied are the following:—

The only known letter of the Rev. Daniel Brown, and his license as a Congregational Clergyman. It will be remembered that he was one of the seven highly esteemed Congregational Ministers in the Colony of Connecticut, who in 1722 presented to the Trustees of Yale College an expression of their conscientious scruples concerning the validity of their orders. He was also one of the three who determined that the arguments advanced at the memorable debate at that College were insufficient, and avowed their intention of seeking Holy Orders in the Church of England. He was ordained in England in 1723, but died before his return, and was buried in London. A tablet was erected to his memory in 1908, which was unveiled by the Bishop of this Diocese.

An address of the Church Clergy of New England to the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts. This address was made at a voluntary Convention of these Clergy held at Newport, R. I., July 12, 1725, and shows the wise and broad plan for the extension of the work of the Church in this country, and the dangers to be met and overcome.

A series of letters from the Rev. Dr. Mansfield, 1757-1774. These were found among papers of the Rev. Dr. William Smith, Provost of the University of Pennsylvania, and deal with the affairs of Dr. Mansfield's cure at Derby and vicinity, but embrace many items of general interest.

An item relating to our first Bishop of Connecticut was discovered in the volume of manuscripts relating to New York. It deals with an offer of Sir William Johnson to him, to become Minister at the new settlement of Johnstown, and to have charge of the Mohawk Indian Mission. This incident has hitherto been entirely unknown, and there are no allusions to it in manuscripts preserved by the Seabury family.

Through the kindness of Miss Mary Fogg, of Brooklyn, Conn., a granddaughter of the Rev. Daniel Fogg, two very interesting documents have been received; one is a letter of Col. Godfrey Malbone to the Rev. Isaac Brown, of Newark, N. J., concerning Church affairs in Pomfret in 1774; the other is a letter written by the Rev. Dr. Samuel Parker to the Rev. Daniel Fogg, in reply to his well known letter announcing the proceedings of the Convention at Woodbury, Conn., and the election of Dr. Seabury as Bishop.

In a box of miscellaneous papers at the Church Missions House at New York has been found a series of letters bearing upon the condition of the Church in Connecticut immediately after its organization. These include letters from the Rev. Thomas Fitch Oliver, the Rev. James Sayre, the Rev. Bela Hubbard and the Rev. Daniel Burhans.

From the Bishop Hobart correspondence has been taken a letter of the Rev. Palmer Dyer upon assuming the editorship of the Episcopal Watchman in 1829; also letters of the Rev. Harry Croswell concerning the arrangements for the Diocesan Convention of 1819, at which time Dr. Brownell was elected Bishop.

The Rev. James Gammack, LL.D., has presented to the Commission the following:

Papers relating to the Erection of the Seabury Memorial Tablet on the University Buildings, Aberdeen, Scotland, 1899.

It is purposed, if thought desirable, to carry out the plan outlined last year of collecting condensed items of the history of the various Parishes in the Diocese, to be placed upon cards, filed and indexed, so that a desired item can be immediately found. This work will need the k coöperation of the Rectors of the various Churches and of the Par Clerks to make it full and complete.

The Commission reports that during the past year it has met with severe loss in the death of one of its most interested and active me bers, Mr. Clarence Bryant, of Windsor; and suggests the appointment the Bishop of some person from the Hartford Archdeaconry to fill vacancy made by Mr. Bryant's death.

We recommend an Appropriation of $75.00 for the purpose of the Co mission for the coming year.

STORRS O. SEYMOUR, Chairman
F. CLARENCE BISSELL, Secretary

The Report was accepted, and the request for an Appropriati was referred to the Committee on Finance.

The Special Order of the day was then taken up, and the f lowing Resolution was moved by the Rev. Dr. Harriman, a seconded by Mr. Charles H. Tibbits, both speaking in favor division:

Resolved, That a Committee of seven Clergymen and six laymen appointed by the President, to consider and report to the next Conv tion upon the advisability of dividing the Diocese, on what lines, and w what provision for future support.

Judge A. Heaton Robertson spoke briefly, and, while oppos to division, favored the adoption of the Resolution, with th addition:

"or any other provision to meet the difficulties suggested by the Bish or those seeking a division of the Diocese."

Dr. Harriman accepted the amendment; and the Resoluti was then adopted as amended.

In accordance with the Second Order of the Day, the Rev. Dr. Hart then presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND CANONS

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut, to be holden on the second Tuesday in June, 1909.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons begs leave respectfully to report in regard to the matters which have been referred or submitted to it.

1. The Committee has been asked to consider the provision made in the Rules of Order, by action taken at the last Convention, that the Committee appointed to nominate persons to fill vacancies in Boards of Trustees and Lay Directors of the Missionary Society, should also nominate persons to be elected representatives to the Missionary Council of the First Missionary Department, now named the Department of New England. It is the opinion of the Committee that these representatives should always be elected by ballot and after nomination in open Convention, as the Standing Committee is elected. And, as the Canon of the General Convention does not prescribe the tenure of office of these representatives, it seems necessary to define how often a new election shall be held. The Committee recommends the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, That Rule of Order I. (5) be amended by omitting the words "and representatives to the Missionary Council of the First Missionary Department"; and that after I. (14) there be inserted as follows: "(15) The election by ballot, after nomination, of Clerical and Lay representatives to the Missionary Council of the Department of New England (in the year following each General Convention); and that the present (15) and succeeding items in Rule I. be renumbered, the words "and the election of representatives to the Missionary Council of the First Missionary Department" being omitted.

2. It has again been referred to the Committee (see Journal, 1906 page 80, 1908 page 63) "to consider and report whether under Canon I. Section 4 a woman may be member of a Parish; and if not, whether, under certain circumstances at least, it would not be well to provide that she may be." As to the specific matter referred, it may be well to refer to the report presented by the Committee on Constitution and Canons in 1896 (Journal 1896, page 68). At that time the Committee, being of the opinion that it was "advisable to define more explicitly who may be members of Parishes," recommended that the word "male" be inserted before the word "person" in the first line of Canon I. Section 4. Action on this recommendation was deferred until the next year; but there is no record of action taken upon it in 1897 or at any later date. The Committee, now considering the matter, and believing that the present inquiry or proposal has reference to the needs of Parishes in which the number of members has become so small that the continuance of their legal existence is endangered and the title to their property is put in jeopardy, while yet it is impossible under the Statutes and the Canons to require them to terminate or suspend their parochial organization (see Canon I. Section 10), is of the opinion that the whole matter should be referred to a Committee of persons learned in the law for full consideration and report; and it recommends the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the President appoint a Committee of three persons learned in the law to consider the whole matter of the condition of weak and decadent Parishes, and to report what provisions of Statute or Canon law are necessary or desirable for the preservation of the property of such Parishes and for putting them into right relations to the Diocese, and also what changes, if any, should be made in the requirements for the membership of Parishes, either in all cases or to meet special needs.

3. At the last Convention (see Journal, pp. 44, 63) the first paragraph of Canon I. Section 6 was amended by substituting for the words "a Clerk and a Treasurer" the words "a Clerk, a Treasurer, and an Auditor or Auditors." The Committee is of the opinion that this change calls for a corresponding change in the second paragraph of the same Section; and it recommends the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the second paragraph of Canon I. Section 6 be amended by substituting for the words "The members of the Vestry, the Clerk, and the Treasurer," the words "The members of the Vestry, the Clerk, the Treasurer, and the Auditor or Auditors."

4. At the last Convention (see Journal, pp. 44, 63) the Committee recommended the addition in Canon XI. Section 4 of the words "including an Auditor of its accounts," and the addition in Canon XII. Section of the words "and the Archdeacon shall appoint an Auditor." The proposed amendments were referred back to the Committee; and the Committee, having further considered the whole matter, recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the following amendments be made in Canons X and XII.:

(a) That Canon XI. Section 4 be amended by adding at the end the words "including an Auditor of its accounts";

(b) That Canon XI. Section 8 be amended by omitting the words "except on the application of the Wardens and Vestrymen of said Parish" and inserting in place thereof the words "except on the application of the Vestry of said Parish, enclosing a copy of the latest annual financial report of the Parish duly audited";

(c) That Canon XII. Section 4 be amended by adding at the end the words "and the Archdeacon shall appoint an Auditor."

5. At the last Convention (see Journal, page 63) the third paragraph of Canon XI. Section 2 was amended by the insertion of the words "and two Auditors." The Committee is of opinion that the Auditors should not be, by virtue of their office, entitled to votes; and it recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the third paragraph of Canon XI. Section 2 shall be amended by inserting in the fourth line before the words "shall be entitled to vote" the words "the Secretary and the Treasurer."

6. At the last Convention (see Journal, page 53) an amendment to Canon III. Section 2 was proposed and was referred to this Committee. The Committee has considered the matter and recommends the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, That Canon III. Section 2 be amended by adding at the end the words: "and the names of officers authorized to be present at such times shall be recorded with the safe-deposit company or bank in which the deposit is made."

7. The Committee has been asked to consider whether Section 3 of Canon III., which forbids any Parish, Society, or Institution connected with the Diocese through its Convention to loan any part of its trust funds or investments to any of its members should not be repealed. The Committee has considered the matter and is of the opinion that such repeal would not be expedient; and it asks that it may be discharged from the further consideration of the matter.

8. The Committee has been asked to consider whether Article IV. of the Constitution should not be so amended as to require of clergymen actual as well as canonical residence in the Diocese to qualify them to vote at the election of a Bishop. The Committee has considered the matter and recommends the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the following amendment to the Constitution be proposed and approved, and that it be printed in the Journal in order that final action thereon may be taken at the next annual Convention:

Substitute for the proviso at the end of the first paragraph of Article IV. the following: "Provided, however, that no Clergyman shall be entitled to vote for a Bishop unless he have been canonically and actually resident in the Diocese for at least one year immediately preceding the election."

All which is respectfully submitted.

SAMUEL HART,
JAMES H. GEORGE,
WILLIAM A. BEARDSLEY,
MORRIS W. SEYMOUR,
GARDINER GREENE,
Committee.

All the Resolutions proposed in this Report were adopted, except the last, which was referred back to the Committee for further consideration.

The Rev. Charles M. Addison presented the following

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMISSION

To the Diocesan Convention of 1909:

The Sunday School Commission begs leave to present its fourth annu Report.

The Commission held a meeting in June, 1908, and elected the Re Samuel R. Colladay, Professor in the Berkeley Divinity School, to t Organizing Secretary for the year at a salary of $500.00 and travellin expenses. This election was confirmed by the Bishop.

Meetings have also been held in October, January and May, at whic the following matters, among others, have been carefully discussed an acted upon:—the grouping of the Sunday Schools of the Diocese int Local Branches, which was finally left to the Organizing Secretary, wit power; the Fall meeting of the Sunday School workers of the Dioces which was held in Hartford in November; the establishment of Teache Training Classes, and the awarding of certificates and diplomas t teachers successfully passing examinations in the same; this was put int the hands of the Teacher-Training Committee with power; the maj ping out of a Curriculum or Course of Instruction to be suggested fc use in the Sunday Schools of the Diocese; this was finally accomplishe at the meeting in April, and the Curriculum with explanation has bee published within the past week.

The following extracts from the annual Report of the Organizing Secr tary will give the best idea of what has been accomplished:

"Of the twelve Local Branches into which it is planned to divide tl Diocese, three had already been established when the Organizing Secr tary began his work, viz., Bridgeport,. Danbury, and Stamford. Eig Branches have been established in the past year, viz., Ansonia, Meride Middletown, New London, Norwich, Winsted, Hartford, and Waterbur This leaves one yet to be established, viz., New Haven; and it is hop that this may be accomplished in the early Fall. The importance of the Local Branches as centers of enthusiasm in the Sunday School work the Diocese can hardly be over-estimated. The Organizing Secretary h reason to believe that all of the Branches established are alive to tl responsibility and possibilities which are opening before them. He h kept in touch with the Presidents of the various Branches, and sever meetings have been held throughout the Winter in addition to the o at which the Branch was organized.

The Organizing Secretary has travelled two thousand and ninety-thr miles during the year in the interest of the Commission. In additic to visits made to Local Branch meetings, he has visited the following ind vidual Sunday Schools: Christ Church, Stratford; St. Mary's, Sou Manchester; St. James's, Winsted; Christ Church, Norwich; Trinit Seymour; St. John's, Waterbury; Christ Church, Westport; Gra Church, Stafford Springs; and Trinity, Hartford. He would gladly ha visited other Sunday Schools had opportunity offered.

Regular Training Classes have been established in New Haven and in Hartford. The class in New Haven has met in Trinity Parish House, and has been attended by an average of about thirty-five teachers. The class in Hartford has met in Trinity Parish House, and has been attended by about forty teachers on the average. About ten teachers in each center have taken the examinations. The Organizing Secretary has delivered four lectures in the New Haven center, and fifteen in the Hartford one. On the whole, it may be said that the classes have been moderately successful and some important lessons have been learned. It is expected to continue the subjects outlined in the Standard Course in both centers; and, if possible, complete plans for next year's work will be made this Spring, and circulars announcing the course and lecturers in both centers will be sent to all the Clergy of the Diocese. In addition to these Diocesan classes, for such they are in intention at any rate, important classes have been held in Stamford and in Danbury; and there have been several educational lectures delivered at the various Local Branch meetings. One of our teachers has expressed a desire for a Correspondence Course, and has been placed under the direction of the Rev. Dr. Lewis, Sunday School Secretary for the Diocese of Vermont, who has worked out a most admirable correspondence course for Sunday School teachers, and is glad to extend it beyond the limits of the Diocese of Vermont.

A small exhibit of Sunday School literature has been gathered by the Organizing Secretary. He has hesitated to spend any large amount on this exhibit until the Diocesan curriculum has been finally decided upon, as he feels that the value of an exhibit will be its fitness to illustrate the plans of the Commission."

The Commission is of the opinion that the results of the work of the year fully justify the Appropriation made by the last Convention; and therefore respectfully asks that the following Resolution be passed by this Convention, appropriating the same amount for the ensuing year:

Resolved, That the sum of $700.00 be and hereby is appropriated for the work of the Sunday School Commission during the ensuing year.

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

My Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

Since we last met three of our Bishops have died, the oldest, one of the youngest in office, and also one of the greatest. The Right Reverend Doctor George De Normandie Gillespie, Bishop of Western Michigan, died in March at the age of ninety. He was an old-school evangelical. Recent tendencies in the Church occasioned him an alarm which he would not have felt had his faith included in larger measure elements of idealization and vision, and the comforting assurance of the continued guidance of the Church by the Holy Spirit of truth and life. None the less was he a sweet-spirited, saintly man, and a very soldier of duty. In social reform, notably as regards charitable institutions and prisons, he was a leader and a recognized authority. The Right Reverend Edward Jennings Knight, Bishop of Western Colorado, leaves the pathetic story of nine months of tireless work in the field committed to his oversight, and the inspiring example of a life freely spent and bravely laid down for Christ's sake and the Gospel's.

It was at Morning Prayer in the Chapel at Lambeth that, to a few guests gathered there, our host announced the death of the Bishop of New York. It seemed fitting to hear the sad tidings in that historic place associated with the names of illustrious Prince-Bishops of the past. For to that class belonged Henry Codman Potter. He had the signal abilities of a statesman and born leader of men. Yet withal, as I learned when I came to know him, his was a simplicity that many guessed not of. One could not know him well without being impressed by his conscientious and unsparing fidelity in work, and by his kindliness and love for humanity. He took a vital interest in social questions, and was a true friend of the wage-earners, outspoken on their behalf, outspoken to them in counsel which was faithful even if unwelcome. Always a champion of public righteousness, he was an authority on social and civic matters, and the first citizen of our greatest city. He leaves behind him the enduring fabric of a great Cathedral, and the immortal memory of a great Bishop.

The death of Mr. George C. Thomas brings to the whole Church sorrow and grave concern. His abilities and his integrity had won for him the devotion and confidence of all. His name was a tower of strength: his voice a potent force. Moreover his Christian character, his whole-hearted consecration, and his spirit of service made him a great example. What he did for Missions cannot be told. It consisted not only in what he gave, but in what he was. More than the generous sums he was always giving, often withholding his name, were his constant love and care for the work, and his unsparing expenditure of time and thought and energy. His love for God and little children made him a leader in our Sunday School work and the most important member of the Joint Commission. A great host of friends will mourn him. To the Church his passing is an irreparable loss, even although we have the memory of such a man as a precious treasure.

From our Clergy death has taken four men who have been conspicuous figures in the Diocese. The Rev. Francis Windsor Brathwaite had been Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Stamford, for nearly forty-four years. In his personal religion was a deep evangelical piety together with strong Catholic convictions. As regards ritual, he had a military sense of order and a keen appreciation of beauty. His qualities of manhood won many to him. Declining repeated calls to go elsewhere, he devoted his ministry, in all its efficiency, to the field he entered upon as Deacon. The favoured Parish, in the beauty of its group of enduring buildings, its ample equipment and assured continuance, will stand as a monument to his pastoral devotion, his forethought and loving care, and also as an object-lesson, showing the results a Parish Priest may accomplish through patient continuance in faithful work.

In the tragic taking off of the Rev. Dr. George Brinley Morgan there was removed in the midst of his labours one of our foremost Parish Priests, who was a Deputy to the General Convention and a member of the Board of Missions. His was a rare spirit. First comes to me the thought of his loyalty. His was a most loyal soul, loyal to the Church, her ancient faith, her sacred cause. His was a fine example of loyalty to the Church's Missionary work. Next comes to me, in connection with him, the thought of beauty. Truly he adorned the doctrine of God his Saviour in all he did. He was a poet, endowed with the vision and the faculty divine. And not only was he a man of vision; his, moreover, was a faith that wrought the realization of the vision. He was that which the word poet literally means, a maker. That noble Church edifice is a unique memorial to him as maker and builder. Next I think of his love of men for Christ's sake. It was this, together with his large vision, which enabled him to look forward in hope and faith to a genuine unity of Christians in the Holy Catholic Church. His culture, his attainments and abilities, including a delicate and delightful humour, were consecrated to the service of his Priesthood. He seems to me altogether worthy to be numbered with the choice souls that illustrated the Anglican priesthood of an elder time. Well may we cherish the memory of his gifts and graces, his life and life-work, as are treasured, for example, the memories that cluster about the names of George Herbert and Bemerton.

The Rev. Charles Melbourne Selleck was, at the time of his death, Rector Emeritus of St. Paul's Church, and Rector of Christ Church, Norwalk. An immense throng at his funeral testified to his prominence as a citizen and the honor and love in which he was held through all that region, because of his work as historian, his services as an educator, his long and devoted ministry to a multitude of souls, and his character as a man.

On May 9th, in Colorado, there was called to rest the Rev. William Allen Johnson, D.D. Dr. Johnson, who had held parochial cures in other Dioceses and been Rector of St. John's Church, Salisbury, became in 1883 Professor in the Berkeley Divinity School; and, since 1900, has been Professor Emeritus. By inheritance a scholar and a Christian gentleman, he was a most loyal Churchman and a devout and devoted Priest. He was truly, like the Apostle this week commemorated by the Church, "a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith."

George Leavens Lilley, Governor of Connecticut, was a member of St. John's Parish, Waterbury. The last wish he expressed was on Easter morning, when he said: "I wish I could go to Church to-day." Others of the faithful laity whom we shall presently remember at the Altar are: Mr. Samuel Taylor, of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Hartford, long a valued member of the Board of Education of the Church Scholarship Society;

Mr. Clarence Bryant, Senior Warden of Grace Church, Windsor, Secretary of the Church Home, President of the Seabury Club, and a member of the Diocesan Commission on Public Archives; Mr. John H. Barlow, Senior Warden of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Shelton; Col. George B. Sanford, a Vestryman of St. Michael's Church, Litchfield; Mr. William Kimberly, for more than forty years a member of St. Paul's Parish, New Haven; Mr. John Close, who had rendered long service as Clerk and Treasurer of Christ Church Parish, Redding Ridge; Mr. Clarence Everett Bacon, Vestryman of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Middletown; Mr. Calvin C. Kirkham, former Warden of Christ Church, East Haven; Mr. Philip B. Segee, for many years Senior Warden of Christ Church, Bridgeport, and one of the founders of the Parish more than fifty years ago; Col. Woolsey R. Hopkins, Vestryman of St. John's Church, Stamford; Mr. Stephen French, a Vestryman of St. Peter's Church, Monroe; Mr. Edward C. Beecher, for over thirty years Vestryman and Clerk of Trinity Church, New Haven; Mr. James H. Townsend, long Senior Warden of St. Peter's Church, Hebron; Mr. Charles Bradford Johnson, Warden of Christ Church, Quaker Farms; Mr. Frederick P. Le Pard, one of the original members and the oldest communicant of Trinity Parish, Hartford; and Mr. John Workman, Senior Warden of Trinity Church, Torrington.

Dr. Gurdon Wadsworth Russell recently died in his ninety-fourth year, the oldest alumnus of Trinity College, and well worthy to be called our foremost layman in New England. An honored citizen and distinguished in the medical profession, he had been President of the Hartford Hospital and of the Hartford Retreat, to which latter institution he gave its stone Chapel. More than sixty years ago he became a Vestryman of Christ Church, Hartford; had been Senior Warden; wrote and published a history of the Parish; and attended its services regularly long after the failing of his sight and hearing. As an evidence of what he was, I may now tell that, a year ago, after my appeal on behalf of the poorly paid Clergy, he sent me at Christmas $1,000 directing that it be distributed at once among the Clergy with the lowest salaries, and requesting that his name remain unknown. This last Christmas, without solicitation, he repeated the gift, with a like request. God is not unrighteous that He will forget the works and labour that proceedeth of love, which love they have showed for His Name's sake who have ministered unto the saints, and who, let us trust, in some other sphere, yet do minister.

The past year has been on the whole a period of quiet progress, perhaps most notably in our Sunday School work and the training of teachers. I commend to you the Reports of the Archdeacons, which will be found unusually full of interest and encouragement. Never do I remember receiving in the same length of time so many applications for admission as Postulants for Holy Orders as were received in the early part of May.

DIVISION OF THE DIOCESE

The reasons for considering a division of the Diocese I shall not at this time discuss. Those reasons may briefly be summed up thus: not for the Bishop's sake, but for his work's sake, that it may be better done; for the Church's sake, that it may be set forward and may more fully accomplish its mission in this Commonwealth; and also, let me add, for the sake of genuine Diocesan unity. The true unit of Church life, it should be remembered, is the Diocese. That Diocesan unity, under present conditions, is not in adequate measure practically realized. Myself a native of Connecticut, I can well understand the feeling of pride in the old Diocese as it has been and is. On the other hand, Diocesan efficiency would seem to be a more weighty consideration than any Diocesan prestige. In recent years much has been said regarding "the Historic Episcopate, locally adapted." Whether somewhat more of local adaptation thereof be not a necessity here would seem to be a reasonable question. Let me express the hope that you will authorize the appointment of a representative Committee seriously to consider the whole subject and report to the next Convention. Let me also say that, while I should desire sometimes to meet with that Committee, I think it better that I should not be a member or officer thereof.

BETTER SUPPORT OF THE CLERGY

Other important matters will, I trust, also receive your attention. Among these let me mention first the report of the Committee on Better Support of the Clergy. Action has been already taken to increase the stipends of the Diocesan Missionaries.

There are now Rectors receiving considerably less than the stipends paid to the Missionaries. I earnestly hope that the general subject may command your interest and effective action, and, throughout the Diocese, hearty coöperation.

In this connection let me again urge upon the Parishes the claim of our Diocesan Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows and Orphans of Clergymen. The demands upon this Fund the past year have largely exceeded the receipts. Let me also remind you that we of this Diocese are, I am sorry to say, pensioners upon the General Clergy Relief Fund, which thus has a claim not only upon our sympathy but upon our Diocesan gratitude and our support. The past year fifty-three Parishes contributed to the General Fund a total of $1,102.38; and the amount appropriated from the General Fund to beneficiaries in the Diocese was $3,150. Those of us who have any pride in the Diocese may well feel shame at these figures; and those who have either pity or a conscience will surely be quickened to remember this year the General Relief Fund, together with our Diocesan Fund. While I am speaking of offerings, let me express my earnest hope that the Diocese may meet its Apportionment for Missions, and my urgent request that there be no congregation failing to make an offering and to send it to the Church Missions House by August 1st. In this connection let me remind you that, in accordance with Canon 52: "Of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society," Section 13, there are four clerical and four lay delegates to be elected by this Convention to represent the Diocese in the Council of the Department of New England to meet in Hartford on the fourth Tuesday of next October.

SOCIAL SERVICE

The Commission on Work among Foreigners have, as I know, devoted time and earnest thought to certain of the problems presented to them, and will report what it is proposed to do. The Commission on Social Service and Social Research are entrusted with subjects of great practical importance. In my opinion it would be well if this Commission were instructed to organize in the several Archdeaconries local Committees or Boards to study social and industrial problems from the Christian point of view. This would increase among our people an intelligent interest, and tend to promote the spirit of social service.

CHANCELLOR OF THE DIOCESE

Now and again are referred to me for official decision cases involving legal questions which I am not competent to decide without information and advice from some person learned in the law. It has long been in my mind to make the request I now formally make, namely, that you will consider the advisability of electing a Chancellor of the Diocese, or legal adviser, to whom the Bishop may apply for occasional advice as need shall require.

During my absence at the Lambeth Conference the Standing Committee acted as the Ecclesiastical Authority. For this service on my behalf, involving, I fear, not a little expenditure of time, thought and trouble, I desire to make my acknowledgments to the members, particularly to the President of the Committee, and to express my grateful appreciation.

THE LAMBETH CONFERENCE AND CHRISTIAN UNITY

Sailing soon after the last Convention, I arrived in London in time to be present at St. Paul's at the great closing service of the Pan-Anglican Congress; also at the memorable services, in Canterbury Cathedral and in Westminster Abbey, which opened the Lambeth Conference. From July 6th to August 5th I was in attendance upon the sessions of the Conference and the meetings of the Committee on which I had been appointed. The Encyclical Letter together with the Reports and Resolutions of the Conference will be found in a paper volume which I am confident would be of interest and value to many.

Therein let me call attention to the Resolution and Report on Reunion and Intercommunion, and particularly now to the following words of the Report (page 185): "Members of the Presbyterian Churches who have, or may have, a real desire for fuller union with the Churches of our Communion, may be assured that the way to such an arrangement as has been indicated above is not barred by obstacles which cannot be overcome by mutual considerateness, under the guidance of Him who is the Spirit alike of unity and truth." Here I must confess my disappointment at the lack of specific mention of others besides Presbyterians, in view of the remarkable paper read by Dr. Newman Smyth, at my invitation, in the Parish House of Christ Church, New Haven, a year ago. In explanation of this omission, let me say that, while the Committee were deliberating, leading English Congregationalists appeared before them, as I understand, and disavowed sympathy with those suggestions and endeavors toward unity. Moreover, while in England Congregationalism is not so important relatively as it is in New England, in Britain the Presbyterian Kirk established in Scotland naturally occupies a large place in the public eye.

To my regret, I was not a member of the Committee on Reunion. When its Report, however, was brought into the Conference, I moved that there be inserted, after the sentence above quoted, an asterisk with the following footnote: "A like assurance is expressed to such members of other non-episcopal Churches as, while loyally holding the faith, may also be looking to the Historic Episcopate as the bond of visible unity." It had been decided that the Reports of Committees should, if adopted, be received without any change. My hope was that an exception might be made in regard to this proposed footnote. But I was not surprised when the Archbishop, with entire courtesy, declined to entertain my motion. I had done what I could.

CHRISTIAN UNITY IN CONNECTICUT

Just now I referred to what I have understood to be the attitude of certain Congregationalists in England. How different is the attitude of some of our brethren of that name in this state may be seen from the fact that they made the earliest response to the utterance of the Lambeth Conference, in the passage of the following Resolution at the last Congregational Conference of Connecticut: "Whereas, the Conference of Bishops of the Anglican Communion, recently held in London, have given expression to the conviction that 'for the effective conduct of the war against mighty forces of evil in Christian lands, a new demand for Christian unity' has arisen; and, besides other notable utterances looking towards a greater comprehension of the Christian Churches, they have resolved that it is desirable 'to arrange conferences with representatives of other Christian Churches, and meetings for common acknowledgment of the sins of division and for intercession for the growth of unity'; therefore resolved that this Conference, appreciating the spirit of this utterance, and recognizing the supreme importance of the realization of the visible unity of the Christian Church, appoint a committee three to take under consideration our relations and obligations to other Christian bodies, to further during the coming year any such conferences for this end which the Committee may deem desirable, and to report upon the whole subject of Church unity at the next annual meeting of this Conference." Upon this Committee were appointed two distinguished divines and the Chief Justice of the State.

This Committee requested of me an informal conference. In the communication addressed to me was presented, to quote its language, "an ideal of essential unity above mere half-way federations." By my invitation there was held at my house on May 5th the informal conference requested. There were also present by my invitation the Rev. Dr. William R. Huntington of New York, the Rev. Dr. Francis Goodwin of this city, and the Rev. Dr. William M. Grosvenor of New York. By those of us there gathered it was, I am sure, felt to be a memorable meeting. Regarding it, it is enough now to say that, while we knew ourselves to be confronted by grave problems of momentous importance, yet, after a full and frank discussion, we were beyond expectation encouraged to find how few, after all, were the difficulties in the way of coming more closely together, and how much within possibility seemed the solution of those problems.

Action or resolution by this Convention I do not propose. To the Archdeacons, however, I have already suggested, and I take this opportunity to recommend to you, that throughout the Diocese there be held, with our Congregational brethren and other Christian brethren, should they desire it, informal conferences, which shall not be too large, and which may carry into effect the following Resolution of the Lambeth Conference (Resolution 77): "The members of the Anglican Communion should take pains to study the doctrines and position of those who are separated from it and to promote a cordial mutual understanding; and, as a means towards this end, the Conference suggests that private meetings of ministers and laymen of different Christian bodies for common study, discussion and prayer, should be frequently held in convenient centres."

As I frankly told those brethren, at that private conference referred to, we could not and would not even seem to move this Church from her place among the ancient historic Churches; and our desire for unity must look in those directions also. None the less may we, and without compromise of principle, give words of sympathy and hands of help to these neighbors and brethren who have a yearning after genuine and visible unity. Let me once more quote from the Lambeth Report these words (page 186):

"Meanwhile the Committee would commend to the Church an ideal of reunion which should include all the elements of divine truth now emphasized by separated bodies; in a word, the path of efforts towards reunion should be not compromise for the sake of peace, but comprehension for the sake of truth, and the goal not uniformity but unity."

It is, I am convinced, brethren, no mere sentimental and temporary make-believe that we ought to be seeking, such as an exchange of pulpits, which has never brought any two denominations that practice it into one, and which manifestly would only delay such a movement as now seems not beyond the bounds of possibility. It is the real thing that we ought to endeavor to attain. To that end it is useless to ignore or minimize differences. Facing them frankly, it is better to seek matters of agreement as starting-points of definite endeavor toward overcoming the differences in a larger unity. To that end we may well "take pains to study the doctrines and appreciate the position of those who are separated from us." In particular I deplore the perhaps honest but certainly quite unwarranted misconceptions of Dr. Newman Smyth's proposal which were expressed last summer in certain contributions to the religious press. The end ought to be the attainment of unity without any sacrifice of principle; while there may be requisite and necessary, on our part and on the part of those brethren, a sacrifice of prejudices which have sometimes been mistaken for principles.

Our end ought to be such a visible unity as shall be agreeable to the Will of God. To that end the great means is prayer in the name of Him who prayed for the oneness of His disciples. To that end, also, there is something else in its bearing important, namely, that all should be, as the Lambeth Report suggests, "careful to avoid in speech and act anything savouring of intolerance or arrogance." To that great end, whither many hearts yearn, and whither the Lord in His own way and time is, I believe, leading His people, suffer me to exhort you, Brethren, to the cherishing, and the manifestation, of that spirit of brotherly kindness and of love which is of the essence of practical Christianity. Dr. Smyth bears witness to this spirit in the heart of our departed brother, Dr. George Brinley Morgan. His last words to him were: "Dr. Smyth, in view of the great problems which our increasing population is bringing upon us, we must become one." And, he added, "It is love in the hearts of us all that shall make us one." Soul of loyalty to Christ and His Church, our dear brother said that among his latest utterances; "and by it he being dead yet speaketh."

Love believeth all things, hopeth all things. Faith, hope and love may look for and pray for, and may work toward, the realization, in God's own time, of that vision of the city at unity in itself, into which each now separated part of Christendom shall have brought its particular contribution to the rich life of the whole; the Catholic Commonwealth, the city, one, yet free, which is the mother of us all.

Report of the Registrar

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut to be holden on the second Tuesday in June, 1909:

The Registrar of the Diocese begs leave to present his report.

The sets of Journals of the Dioceses and Missionary Districts have been continued, partly by copies received from the Bishop and the Secretary, and partly in response to special requests; that for 1907 is now complete, while that for 1908 still lacks two numbers. I have also received a copy of the Minutes of the General Association and General Conference of Connecticut for 1908, and the Litchfield Archdeaconry Record. With the increase in the number of Dioceses and the changes in the boundaries of the Missionary Districts, it is a matter of considerable difficulty to secure copies of all the Journals published in a year, and sometimes not easy to learn what Journals have been published; I think, however, that I have succeeded in keeping complete our sets of current publications of this kind, and I have also done something towards filling out our collection for early years. Twenty volumes of Journals of recent dates are in the hands of the binders. The Registrar of Western Michigan has sent a copy of the Journal of Northern California for 1897.

The Secretary has furnished for the Archives officially certified copies of the Journal of our last Diocesan Convention, printed on record paper, two of which I have had suitably bound and lettered.

Mrs. M. F. Lovett, of Groton, has presented to the Diocese, through the Rev. Albert C. Jones, the manuscript records (imperfect) of St. Thomas's Church, Canterbury, from 1818 to 1827.

From the Library of the General Theological Seminary, I have received, in numbers, volumes 1 and 2 (1835-1837) of The Christian Witness (Boston), various numbers of The Chronicle of the Church, 1839, 1840, 1842, and of The Church Eclectic, a part of the numbers of The Churchman for 1870, and No. 17 of 1874 of the same paper, needed to complete our file for that year.

The Rev. William C. Knowles has presented four manuscript sermons of the late Rev. Dr. Thomas W. Coit, "On the Verb to be in the Eucharist," the text being Exodus xii. 26.

The Rev. Dr. Foster Ely has presented a manuscript sermon of the late Bishop George W. Freeman, and several theological pamphlets.

I have also received—

From the Rev. James E. Coley, a collection of numbers of The Spirit of Missions and other pamphlets.

From the Rev. William P. Waterbury, volume 2 of The Evergreen, handsomely bound.

From Mr. John H. Sage, of Portland, two numbers of The Connecticut Churchman, 1897 and 1901, the latter having a history of St. James's Church, Westville.

From Mr. Cornelius R. Duffie, of Litchfield, four bound volumes, two of which contain Journals of New York, 1818-1824 and 1846-1851, one is volume 3 of the New York Missionary Magazine and Repository of Religious Intelligence, 1802, and the other contains, with other pamphlets, obituary sermons on Bishop Benjamin Moore, Bishop Claggett, and Bishop Dehon, Mr. Judd's Anniversary Sermon at the Episcopal Academy in 1812, Dr. Jarvis's Address at laying the corner-stone of Trinity Church, New Haven, in 1814, Bishop Hobart's Sermon at consecrating the same Church in 1816, and Mr. Croswell's Election Sermon in 1818.

The Year-Book of St. Mary's Church, South Manchester, has also been sent for the Archives.

I have sent to the Registrar of Los Angeles a copy of the reprint of our Journals to 1820, with seventeen Journals of later date before 1865, and to the Registrar of Tennessee a copy of our rare Journal of 1849;

To the Library of the General Theological Seminary, a large collection of duplicate numbers of The Calendar;

To the Library of Yale University, two hundred and twenty-seven duplicate Journals of other Dioceses, for the most part of recent date;

To the New London Public Library, a copy of The Church in Colonial Connecticut; and

To two individuals interested in history, Journals of Connecticut needed to complete their sets.

At the request of the Treasurer of the Parish of Grace Church, Saybrook, in August last, I withdrew from the vault of the Connecticut Historical Society, where they had been deposited under my official custody, various records and papers of said Parish, and sent them to the Treasurer.

y be proper to note that an insurance for $500 has been effected books and other printed matter belonging to the Diocese and n the house No. 15 Church Street, Hartford, without expense to ese.

All which is respectfully submitted.

SAMUEL HART, Registrar.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

To the Convention:

Pursuant to Article V. of the Constitution, the Board of Directors the Missionary Society makes its annual report of Appropriations other proceedings for the year 1908-9, as follows:

Appropriations and Apportionments

The last Convention (see Journal 1908, page 60) appropriated a sum not exceeding $12,000 for carrying on the missionary work of the Diocese during the then ensuing year, in addition to the proceeds from the funds of the Society and other sources available for the purpose. It was ordered that said sum be apportioned among the several Archdeaconries on the basis of "Current Expenses (including Salaries)," as reported in the last Journal; and that said sum be appropriated among the several Archdeaconries, as the Directors of the Society might deem best.

The net proceeds from the funds held by the Society were estimated at about $2,000, thus making, with the $12,000 to be raised, the sum of $14,000 for missionary work.

At the beginning of the year Appropriations for this work were made as follows:

To Fairfield Archdeaconry,	$1,700.00
Litchfield "	1,475.00
New Haven "	1,300.00
Hartford "	3,000.00
Middlesex "	2,830.00
New London " (including the income of the Tracy-Eaton Fund),	3,695.00
	$14,000.00

To meet these Appropriations said sum of $12,000 was apportioned among the several Archdeaconries, as follows:

To Fairfield Archdeaconry,	$3,313.00
Litchfield "	1,079.00
New Haven "	3,684.00
Hartford "	2,288.00
Middlesex "	724.00
New London "	912.00
	$12,000.00

Pursuant to the rule of the Board, made many years ago, only the difference between the Appropriation and the Apportionment in each Archdeaconry is in fact paid to, or paid by, the Treasurer, as the case may be. The sums so paid and received were as follows:

Paid to Litchfield Archdeaconry,	$ 249.33
Hartford "	582.14
Middlesex "	1,688.35
New London "	2,712.20	$5,232.02
Received from Fairfield Archdeaconry,	$1,271.39
" " New Haven Archdeaconry,	2,000.00	3,271.39
Difference,		$1,960.63

This difference has been met entirely from the Society's income, out of its Apportionments; and it has not therefore been necessary to bor for that purpose.

The Fairfield Archdeaconry has paid the balance due on last yea $431.49, and on account of the current year $839.90.

The New Haven Archdeaconry has paid the balance due on last of $430, and on account of the current year $1,570.00.

There is a balance due from Fairfield Archdeaconry on account of year 1908-9 of $773.10 and from the New Haven Archdeaconry of $81

Of the one hundred and seventy-nine Parishes and Missions in Diocese, among which the sum of $12,000 was apportioned, one hun and forty-four paid in full their apportionment or more, twelve in part, and twenty-three paid nothing. This is not so good a showin last year.

Donations

The Board gratefully acknowledges the receipt of special offerings contributions, as follows:

Pequot Chapel, New London; Christ Church, Hartford; the Wom Church Missionary Association, of New Haven; Miss Juliette Wheaton, of Marble Dale; and the Church people at Rocky Hill.

Legacies

We have received during the year the legacy given to the Society u the will of Julia E. Briggs, formerly of Calvary Church, Round l Greenwich. This legacy, which amounts to $24,967.72, is given to Society, in trust, the income thereof to be applied for the uses and p poses of the Society, preference to be given to aid weak Parishes Missions in said Diocese.

The legacy of $500 under the will of the late Martha C. Pierce Bridgeport, of which notice was made in the last annual report, has l received. This legacy, after deducting the succession tax to the Stat Connecticut and the proportionate part chargeable to this legacy of expenses of appeal ($49.47), now amounts to $450.53. This legacy co to the Society without restriction.

The Society has also received a legacy of $500 under the will of A Pray Cryer, in trust, the income to be used for the general pa expenses of Grace Church, Yantic.

Notice has been received of a legacy of $3,000 under the will of Gurdon W. Russell, late of Hartford; and also one of $2,000 under will of Helen A. Strickland, late of Hartford, one-half of whicl subject to life estates.

Church of the Epiphany, Southbury

In 1905 the legal existence of the Parish of the Church of the Epiph Southbury, ceased, upon the death of the last member of the Pa Before his death an attempt was made to secure a transfer of the p erty of the Parish to the Missionary Society. Nothing came of t however. In December, 1905, the Standing Committee, with the approval of the Bishop, consented to the acquisition of the title to this property by this Society, provided it could be done. This year the Society made application to the General Assembly to vest the title of this property in the Society, and the bill has been reported favorably, so that the Missionary Society will own, in all probability, the property which formerly belonged to the Parish of the Church of the Epiphany, in Southbury. There is also in addition to this land a small piece of land in Southford, in the town of Southbury, with an old house thereon, which will also come into the possession of the Society through the operation of the same act of the legislature. We have also received from Mr. Alfred N. Wheeler, executor of the will of Mrs. Eliza A. Wheeler, his mother, who was a devoted attendant at and deeply interested in this Parish, the sum of $84.92, which she had accumulated from time to time, to be used for repairs upon the church property. We have also received two other sums for this purpose, as will appear in the Treasurer's report—one of $45, rent for the second piece referred to above, and the other a contribution from Mr. Richard T. Goodman, of $10. We have spent $93.55 in re-shingling and otherwise repairing the church edifice, and now have a balance on hand of $29.62 for this purpose for further use.

Sunday School Advent Offerings

The offerings of the Sunday Schools in Advent, 1907, amounting to $656.10, were sent to the Bishop of Oklahoma for the Chapel at Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

The offerings of the Sunday Schools in Advent, 1908, were made for the benefit of Saint Monica's Mission, Hartford. The amount thereof, thus far received, is $776.32, the largest amount which has been contributed since the Advent offerings of the Sunday Schools were begun.

Work Among the Deaf Mutes

A contribution of $325 has been received through Mr. J. G. Estill, of the Hotchkiss School, Lakeville, from Mr. Ben B. Bryan, for work among the deaf mutes of the Diocese; and the Sunday School of the School has promised an annual offering for the same purpose; and Mr. Estill has promised a further annual offering of $60 from Mrs. N. R. Luther, of Buffalo, New York. This of course is an entirely new work, and we appreciate very highly the generous spirit which has prompted the donors of these various gifts and contributions. The Board has authorized the Rev. George H. Hefflon to begin the work, and has appropriated $500 for the year for that purpose.

Miscellaneous

There are a few matters to which the Board desires to refer at this time.

1. The most striking event in the year, in the Hartford Archdeaconry, was the opening of St. Andrew's Parish House, in Hartford, in December, 1908, established in the new residential section of the city a cost of about fifteen thousand dollars, to meet the social and relig needs of the people. It is under the care of one of our Clergymen, Rev. John H. Jackson, and is not connected with the Society.

2. Another equally important matter is the work in connection v St. Monica's Mission, in Hartford, under the care of the Rev. Alo Johnson. Here there is pressing need for a new Church, a fund which, amounting to thirteen hundred dollars, has already been secure

3. In connection with the Hartford Archdeaconry the Board expre through it its great appreciation of and gratitude for the work of Charles H. Lawrence, who for thirty years has been the faithful Treasi of this Archdeaconry.

4. We desire also to express to the Rev. Mr. Knowles, who for thi seven years has been the faithful Missionary, Pastor and friend of people in the vicinity of Killingworth and Ponsett, our appreciation his quiet and effective work; and we regret exceedingly to hear that account of failing health he has been obliged to relinquish his serv at Killingworth.

5. To Judge Willey we also express our deep thankfulness that he been permitted, and is willing to continue, his services as Lay-Reade Hadlyme, and that his four score and ten years still rest so lightly u him.

6. The Board also, in connection with this same Archdeaconry, rec mends the transfer of the town of Berlin to the Middlesex Archdeacon

7. There are three Mission Stations in the eastern part of the I cese which for years have received the care and watchfulness of Society. These are Putnam, Rockville and Willimantic. At this time desire to call special attention to the work at Willimantic. It is gr ing and prosperous to a remarkable degree. The need of a new chu building is absolute. The building now in use, moved to its present from the extreme eastern section of the Diocese about thirty years a is small, inconvenient and entirely inadequate to the needs of the wo The Church in Willimantic should be represented by a church build dignified and commodious. We recommend to the church people eve where this particular need at this time, and hope that they will resp to the full measure of their ability to any appeal which may come to th for this purpose.

Conclusion

For the names of the several Parishes and Missions contributing the Society, with the amount of their contributions; and for the na of the Parishes and Missions receiving aid, with the amounts paic them; as well as for a description in detail of the condition and prog of missionary work in the Diocese, we refer you to the reports f the Archdeacons and the Treasurers of the Archdeaconries.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board,

Burton Mansfield, Secretar

New Haven, June 8, 1909.

APPENDIX E.

I.

Fairfield Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Fairfield respectfully reports that Rev. Mr. Magill has worked faithfully at Round Hill and Byram; and the outlook at Byram is exceedingly good. That the help afforded Round Hill is appreciated, the bequest of $3,000 to Calvary Church at that place, and $24,676.74 to the Missionary Society of the Diocese, makes clear. Mrs. William H. Briggs, long a Communicant, has thus displayed her interest in the work.

At Nichols, Rev. Mr. France has done well; and at Huntington the congregation has increased, the buildings are in good repair, twelve are ready for confirmation, and a vested choir of twenty-four is established.

Rev. Mr. Jepson reports a goodly number ready to be confirmed, and six Communicants have been admitted from the Sanford School at Redding. He has had a "good year." At Weston the Rectory has been re-shingled, and payments made for painting the exterior of the Church. A good balance at Easter was in the treasury.

At St. Luke's, Bridgeport, all the building and improvements at the Parish House, amounting to $2,500, have been paid for by money raised at the personal solicitation of Rev. Mr. Wells, Minister-in-charge for the past six years. His much to be regretted resignation has left a fine city Church and Parish property to show his faithful work.

The Archdeacon was allowed $150, to use in his discretion, and he has given to Rev. Mr. Brown of Calvary Church, Bridgeport, the said amount in order that he might devote Sunday mornings to Christ Church, Norwalk. Trolley connection makes this practicable. A well-conceived church building of concrete is about finished, seventeen have been confirmed, there are sixty Communicants, eighty-six Baptized persons are in the Parish, and they agree to give the Rector $420 the coming year, $60 coming from investments. They ask $200 aid from the Archdeaconry the next year. As soon as the congregation can leave their hired rooms, and occupy their Church, good growth is assured.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

ALLEN EVERETT BEEMAN, Archdeacon of Fairfield.

II.

Litchfield Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Litchfield respectfully reports that during the year nine Parishes and Missions have received aid, viz:—Bethlehem, Bridgewater, Kent, Northfield, Plymouth, East Plymouth, Terryville, Riverton and Woodbury.

Christ Church, Bethlehem, has been without a resident Minister during the year; but services have been maintained every Sunday. An arrangement has just been made with the Rector of Christ Church, Watertown, the Rev. H. N. Cunningham, whereby he is to assume charge of the Parish in connection with his other work. This under the present conditions seems to be the best arrangement that can be made.

In St. Mark's Parish, Bridgewater, the happy conditions that have prevailed for some years still continue under the rectorship of Rev. Gideon D. Pond. The new Rectory, built last year, adds much to the comfort of the Rector and the well-being of the Parish.

St. Andrew's Parish, Kent, continues to receive increasing help and encouragement from the Kent School, which has grown to very considerable numbers. The Rector reports larger attendance at the services, and especially at the early celebrations, than for many years.

In Northfield conditions seem to have improved. The Parish was unwilling to take the final steps necessary to become a Mission, and consequently remains a Parish. Perhaps the agitation of the matter has had good result in awakening the congregation to a fuller realization of their privileges and duties.

Plymouth, East Plymouth and Terryville came under the care of the Rev. Herbert L. Mitchell as Rector of St. Peter's, Plymouth, Sept. 1, 1908. Since that time very efficient work has been done, and the outlook is promising. At Terryville the lot purchased a few years ago has been sold and a more desirable lot secured. It is hoped to build a Church in the near future.

At Riverton services have been held regularly, and the attendance has been good. The Rector of St. John's Church, Pine Meadow, who has charge, ministers to a great many families scattered over a large area, and is doing a very necessary work.

St. Paul's Church, Woodbury, was left vacant by the resignation of Rev. J. H. Barnard, July 1, 1908. Until Easter of this year, services were maintained by supply. Extensive repairs were made to the Church edifice and Rectory at a cost of $450, all of which was paid. At Easter a call was extended to the Rev. Alexander Hamilton, who took charge of the Parish, April 18th.

In the Church of the Transfiguration, Norfolk, services were held as usual during the summer months, with good congregations. The expenses were met by the offerings.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JOHN F. PLUMB, Archdeacon.

New Haven Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of New Haven respectfully reports:

Eight Parishes and one Mission have been aided during the past year.

Christ Church, East Haven, continues under the care of the Rev. George A. Alcott, Rector of Grace Church, New Haven, who reports that the affairs of the Parish are in a good condition and everything seems to be going on smoothly.

St. John's Church, North Guilford. The Rector, the Rev. George Buck, reports the work to be encouraging.

St. Peter's Church, Oxford, and Christ Church, Quaker Farms, are both in a flourishing condition under the pastoral care of the Rev. George J. Sutherland. Eighteen persons have been confirmed in the two Parishes the past year.

Christ Church, Bethany, under the rectorship of the Rev. Dr. MacDougall, is progressing.

St. Andrew's Church, Northford, and Zion Church, North Branford, are still under the care of the Rev. J. D. S. Pardee, who reports that the Parishes are holding their own.

Grace Church, Hamden, under the rectorship of the Rev. James E. Coley is doing well. The attendance and interest have been kept up during the past year.

Services of the Church were held as usual in the Chapel of the Congregational Church, Madison, during the months of July and August, 1908. The Rev. F. R. Sanford had charge of the same. The average number of persons present on each Sunday was thirty-six. It is a question whether the Mission should be continued after this Summer, on account of the trolley line being opened between Guilford and Clinton.

The New York City Mission has services each Sunday in the Chapel at Milford Haven, which the people residing in the vicinity have the privilege of attending. Services are held at Savin Rock and Tyler City under the direction of the Rector of Christ Church, West Haven.

The Archdeacon is pleased to report that the Church of the Epiphany, Southbury, and the Chapel at Southford have been reopened for services. The Rev. Mr. Sutherland of Oxford is in charge, who is assisted by a Lay-Reader. The work at both places is most encouraging and the outlook bright for the future.

Looking over the field covered by the Archdeaconry of New Haven, the Archdeacon desires to say that all the work is in a most excellent condition.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

GEORGE HICKMAN BUCK, Archdeacon of New Haven.

IV.

Hartford Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

I was appointed Archdeacon, January 20, 1909. My predecessor, the Rev. H. I. Bodley, had left archdeaconry affairs in excellent shape. Only two or three difficult problems presented themselves for solution. It is a pleasure to speak of his work. It was thoroughly done. Alert, capable, conscientious, and tireless, it was with profound regret that the Archdeaconry and the Bishop accepted his resignation.

With equal satisfaction can I speak of the long, efficient and self-sacrificing service of Mr. Charles H. Lawrence, as Treasurer of the Archdeaconry. At the Epiphany Meeting the Archdeaconry honored and delighted itself by presenting a silver pitcher to Mr. Lawrence as a small token of its high appreciation of his faithful stewardship of thirty years.

I note on my return to the Archdeaconry that the interest of the laymen has perceptibly deepened, and that the old spirit of brotherliness still abides.

Assistance has been given to fifteen Churches. It has been money well expended. These Churches report a Communicant list of 1,178. Twelve Missionaries have been supported. They have baptized 65, and presented 86 for Confirmation. The whole expense has been about $12,000, of which the Churches have raised about $9,000.

The three largest Churches in Hartford report 1,976 Communicants. They support six workers at an expense of about $26,000. They report 78 baptisms and 110 confirmations.

The Mission Churches with 12 workers have one baptism to 18 Communicants, one confirmation for every 14, at a cost of $10 per Communicant.

The Hartford Churches support six workers, have one baptism to every 26 Communicants, one confirmation to every 18, at a cost of $15 for each Communicant. In this comparison the advantage is on the side of the mission Churches. They show larger results at less cost.

One reads the reports of these Missionaries with admiration and pride. It is a record of successful service under adverse conditions. Loyalty to Christ and his Church is the dominant note.

The most striking event of the year was the opening of St. Andrew's Parish House in Hartford, Dec. 13, 1908. It is a new venture. It was conceived and largely executed by Archdeacon Bodley. It is not a Parish or Mission. It is a House opened in a new residential section of the city at a cost of about $15,000 to meet the social and religious needs of the people of that section. It is under the spiritual care of one of our Clergy, the Rev. John H. Jackson. The Prayer Book is used in worship. Churchly teaching is given from the Chancel and in the Sunday School. Many of its strong supporters are not Church people. The Congregation fills the House. The social gatherings are crowded. The Sunday School numbers 80 members. Over $2,200 have been contributed by the Congregation since the House was opened, besides what was raised by the Woman's Society. It is self-supporting, and under the enthusiastic administration of Mr. Jackson is certain to develop into a strong Parish. The results thus far have far more than justified Archdeacon Bodley's wisdom in this unique work.

St. Monica's Mission in Hartford has had a year of unusual prosperity. The Minister, the Rev. Alonzo Johnson, presented a class of 20 for Confirmation and admitted 10 by letter. The Building Fund has grown to about $1,300. They worship in Christ Church Chapel. Their pressing need is a Church of their own. The possibility of expansion under Mr. Johnson's care is very great.

St. James's, Glastonbury, added another $50 to the Rector's salary. The Parish is full of enthusiasm. The Minister, the Rev. Edward G. Reynolds, is holding a service once each month in a Union Chapel at Addison in the eastern part of Glastonbury, and is warmly received.

St. Luke's, South Glastonbury, inspired by the self-sacrificing Rector, the Rev. F. W. Barnett, dropped $25 from their application for aid. It is an act of faith. How it is to be made up does not yet appear. If it is not raised the Rector will receive only $775. It is hoped that his faith will be justified.

The Rev. Daniel E. Putnam has done admirable work in Unionville. The Parish has paid its current expenses, $50 larger than the former year, expended $600 for repairs, and raised $100 upon the debt on the Rectory. The Sunday School has been reorganized, enlarged and greatly improved. Best of all, the Rector reports a decided deepening of the spiritual life among the people. A mission study class conducted by Mrs. Putnam in Lent was well attended.

St. Paul's, Southington, has been supplied by the Rev. F. C. Wainwright and the Rev. George B. Gilbert. The people have taken heart again and pledged the usual amount as stipend. A Minister has been secured, the Rev. Herbert L. Stoddard, of Warsaw, N. Y. He enters upon his duties July 1. Under the direction of Mr. Gilbert a choir of about a dozen voices has been organized and vested. There is encouraging harmony in the Congregation. The outlook is decidedly hopeful.

The Church of Our Saviour, Plainville, flourishes as usual under the incessant labors of the Rev. Robert H. Burton. The Sunday School has doubled since Mr. Burton took charge. The debt on the Parish House is about extinguished.

Trinity Church, Collinsville, has had a hard year, financially, coming out with a deficit of $144. This was due entirely to causes outside the Parish. They are not at all discouraged. In all other ways progress is shown. The Parish is in excellent condition. The Parish House is in good shape for social work, with a debt of only $850.

St. Gabriel's, East Berlin, has been served as usual from Middletown, under the direction of Dr. Hart.

St. John's, Rockville, St. John's, Forestville, and Trinity, Tariffville, have gone on about as usual.

The Ladies' Guild of Grace Church, Newington, have purchased a lot, and collected a fund of $1,400. They purpose soon to erect a Parish House.

The United Parishes of Windsor Locks, Suffield, and Broad Brook have passed through a singularly distressing experience which has left them in a somewhat distracted condition. It ended in the resignation of the Rev. F. B. Cole, May 10, 1909. St. Paul's, Windsor Locks, has been reorganized and strengthened by the addition of ten new members. Its financial affairs have been put upon a sound business basis. Already the pledges for the coming year are more than double what they were last year. A feeling of confidence is awakening in the hearts of those who bear the burdens of the Parish. Calvary Church, Suffield, is just as ready as ever to do what it can. Grace Church, Broad Brook, appears very attractive with its newly decorated walls and newly carpeted floors. They purpose to go on at once to repaint the walls outside and then the Church will be in perfect shape. A fine spirit prevails among the people. Prosperity is sure to come to these Parishes if the right man is found to lead. We are looking diligently for the man.

Dr. Hart has been as helpful as ever in East Berlin, Newington, Plainville, Hartford Hospital, and wherever opportunity presented.

Respectfully submitted,

J. A. BIDDLE, Archdeacon.

Middlesex Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Middlesex respectfully reports:

The same aid has been extended to the same Parishes and Missions as reported last year, and noted in the accompanying table. Services have been maintained without lapse or intermission, at all points, throughout the year. Vacancies have been filled and conditions in general are as good and satisfactory as could be expected where growth is necessarily limited, if not retarded, by a depleting population. In spite of it, the Missions are in most cases stronger.

St. Luke's, Chester, loses the faithful and efficient service of Mr. McKibbin of Berkeley Divinity School, who has been its Lay-Reader for the past three years. By his tact and earnestness he has not only commended himself to the people of the Mission, but the Mission to the community. He has been ordained to the Diaconate and taken up work in New Haven. Mr. Parks of New Haven, who expects to enter Berkeley in the fall, succeeds him at Chester.

Holy Advent, Clinton, has taken on new life and interest under Rev. Mr. Tibbals, who has been Rector little over a year. He reports a decided increase both in numbers and offerings. He is also Minister-in-charge of St. Paul's Mission, Westbrook, and has had services there regularly through the winter, with a good attendance.

Things are reported in fair condition at Epiphany, Durham, and St. Paul's, Middlefield, where Rev. Mr. Hooper continues in charge. Although his health has not been good for much of the winter, he has been diligent in the discharge of his duties.

Christ Church, Middle Haddam, including St. John's Mission, East Hampton, has been in charge of Rev. Mr. Waterbury since last summer. He has done very well in both places, and it is earnestly hoped he will remain; for the work has been badly retarded in this cure by frequent changes for several years. Fresh interest has been infused into the building project at the Mission, less costly plans have been drawn up for the proposed Chapel, some new subscriptions have been received, and we seem to be nearer to starting actual work than at any time heretofore. The Bishop visited the Mission within the year and confirmed nine candidates. I regret to say, that to offset these gains there have been some serious losses by removal.

Grace Chapel, Hadlyme, continues in charge of the Rector of St. Stephen's, East Haddam, who conducts service there every Sunday afternoon. There cannot be much increase in such a retired, rural community; still the Mission is doing a good, useful work.

All Saints' Mission, Ivoryton, has Mr. Ormsbee, of Berkeley, for Lay-Reader, and likes him so well that I doubt if it would exchange him for the best city Rector. All Diocesan dues have been paid, also the Apportionment for Diocesan and General Missions, a new Sunday School library has been installed and the field in general is justifying the high expectations that we have entertained of it.

Rev. Mr. Knowles, who for thirty years has been the faithful Missionary, Pastor and friend of the whole district covered by Killingworth and Ponsett, has been in failing health for some time, and has felt obliged to give up holding service any longer at Killingworth. Deaconess Tileston is at present looking after the field, visiting among the people, preparing candidates for baptism, keeping up the Sunday School, and holding cottage services on Sundays. I may note here as well as anywhere, the great help she has been to the work in general since she began in September, although it is, as we expected, a kind of assistance which people in rural places need to get used to, but which more and more, with tactful application, will justify its use, especially for gathering in children to baptism, Sunday School and guilds, where there is a Lay-Reader in charge. I trust that the Appropriation by the Board will be continued, for retaining her next year.

The special gain of the year has been the recovery of old ground at Deep River. The Mission, which had been closed for several years, as it was thought Deep River being so near Chester, one Mission could serve both places, has been revived and started up with a good deal of interest and promise. Service has been regularly held each Sunday afternoon since August in the Lutheran Church, and has been remarkably well attended. There is also a Sunday School. Service has been conducted by the Lay-Reader in charge at Chester. The people made a special effort to defray all expenses, as beginning after the Appropriations had been made, there were no funds to help them. They are counting on receiving some assistance this coming year.

Shailerville Mission, which was never really started by the Archdeaconry, but was taken up to help Mr. Knowles and do something for a neglected piece of country running along the Connecticut River from Haddam to the edge of Chester, has always been our most difficult proposition. It is an old Baptist stronghold, with little life left except enough to prolong religious prejudices. After doing the best we could with a Lay-Reader, we have concluded to change, and rely upon our Deaconess to visit and give cottage services, with at least a monthly service by a Clergyman.

Respectfully submitted,

O. H. RAFTERY, Archdeacon.

New London Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of New London respectfully reports:

The year has been one of quiet, but, on the whole, of marked progress. The plan under consideration at the time of the last report, to make Groton and Noank into one cure, was duly carried out, and the Rev. C. S. M. Stewart assumed charge of the combined work on October first. In preparation for his coming, the Rectory at Groton was put in complete repair, the expense being defrayed out of the accrued interest of the Isabella Tracy-Eaton Fund, by vote of the Archdeaconry. The plan has worked to the satisfaction of both Groton and Noank, and the Missionary reports a year of steady progress, with all Diocesan obligations discharged.

The vacancy created at St. James's Church, Poquetanuck, by the removal of Mr. Stewart, has been filled by the election to the rectorship of the Rev. William E. Hooker, who assumed charge of the Parish on February fifteenth. This is one of the oldest Parishes in the Diocese, and has contributed largely, by the removal of many of its members, to the strength of other Parishes. At present, owing to changes in the character of its neighborhood, the work has come to be, to a considerable extent, one of sustentation. Nevertheless, there is a good deal of young life in the Parish, and the Rector reports good congregations and much interest. There is a fair prospect of opening up a new work in the village of Clark's Falls, a mill-settlement in the town of North Stonington, under the general supervision of the Archdeacon. Should this be done, the Rector of the Poquetanuck Parish, which is the nearest neighbor within the Archdeaconry, would be in a position to give some of his time to this work.

The Rev. Mr. Adams, of Grace Church, Stafford Springs, reports a year of "healthy and enthusiastic activity." Within the past few months the church edifice has been thoroughly renovated, at an expense of several hundred dollars. Of this amount the larger part was raised within the Parish, and one hundred and fifty dollars was given by the Archdeaconry, from the accrued interest of the Tracy-Eaton Fund. The Rector reports ten confirmed and eleven baptized.

The work at Calvary Parish, Stonington, has made satisfactory progress. The town does not grow, there being no inducement at present to bring new families there. Under these conditions all that can be expected of the Parish is that it should hold its own. This it is doing, and the Rev. Mr. Mason reports the receipt during the year, for parish purposes, of several substantial gifts. Among these are a grand piano, a set of china, a set of silver knives and forks, and additional facilities provided for the Sunday School building. The May meeting of the Archdeaconry was held with this Parish, and its generous hospitality was warmly appreciated.

The combined Parishes of St. Peter's, Hebron, and Calvary, Colchester, under the faithful rectorship of the Rev. Mr. Fitzgerald, have passed through another year of quiet life. It is another case of "strengthen the things that remain." Neither town is growing, and neither Parish is in a way to do aggressive work. Yet five confirmations are reported for Hebron and one for Colchester, and the Rector writes that, through the help of the women in Hebron, "the Parish has contributed more to Missions and outside objects than to objects within the Parish."

The Rev. Mr. Jones of St. Mark's Church, Mystic, reports a "fairly prosperous year," in spite of the general depression in business. The special Thanksgiving offering for current expenses amounted to $114, while the Easter offering of $168.34 was one of the largest in the history of the Parish. The St. Mark's Guild has been earnestly at work during the year, and has contributed materially to the income of the Parish. The Sunday School has been graded, and the lesson system of the New York Sunday School Commission is being used in all grades above the primary department. The attendance at the services has been good.

The Missionary at Putnam, the Rev. Mr. Walker, reports that the past year has been "very encouraging in many ways." The attendance at the Sunday services has increased by more than 75 per cent. Thirteen have been confirmed. The Communicant list has been increased during the year by about 20 per cent. All assessments have been paid, all recommended offerings made, and the Apportionment for General Missions has been nearly doubled. Besides the $900 raised for general expenses, nearly $1,200 has been collected, and a new organ has been placed in the Church. While this large increase in income has been due to special reasons, and cannot be duplicated every year, it gives warrant for a larger outlook, and it is hoped that "the day of small things" is past. Already the Lay Committee has seen its way clear to reduce by $100 the amount asked of the Archdeaconry. A vested boy choir of seventeen voices has been introduced, and the necessary choir accommodations have been provided. On the whole, it is evident that the Mission at Putnam has made a new and vigorous start, and the outlook is more favorable than it has been for years.

The work of St. Paul's Mission, Willimantic, under the care of the Rev. Mr. Hatch, has shown several notable signs of unusual life and progress during the past year. The vital statistics are exceptionally large, if not the largest in the history of the Mission. The baptisms number 23,—8 adults and 15 infants—and the confirmations number 30. There is a great deal of vigorous young life at this Mission which gives large promise for the future, and the Missionary has it well in hand. During the year the Rectory has been repaired and painted, the Archdeaconry providing part of the necessary funds. The church edifice is very much out of repair, and is entirely inadequate, both to the dignity and the necessities of the work for which it stands. The need of a new Church at Willimantic is emphatic and insistent. The present building both detracts from the dignity of the Church which it represents, and is a perpetual handicap to the progress of the Mission. I cannot too strongly emphasize my judgment that the Diocese, through the Board of Directors, should make immediate and extraordinary efforts towards securing a new Church for this most important field. At the earnest solicitation of the Archdeacon, the Mission has relinquished $25 of the amount asked from the Archdeaconry, as a beginning towards self-support. During the past year a Sunday School—believed to be the first in the history of the Parish—has been successfully maintained at St. Paul's Church, Windham.

The Rev. Mr. Moore, Missionary to the Lymes, reports evidences of a "marked advance." At South Lyme the attendance and offerings have been the largest in some years, due, the Missionary assumes, to the fact that the people have been systematically visited. At Niantic, in spite of removals, the Communicant list is larger than last year. The attendance during the year has been markedly good. Five have been confirmed, and the Mission has seen its way to meet the request of the Archdeacon to increase its portion of the stipend by $25. At Black Hall the services have never before been so largely attended. Several lapsed or indifferent Communicants have had their interest re-awakened, and there have been three confirmed. The required canonical offerings have been made at each Mission, and it is hoped that the full Apportionment for General Missions will be met in each case. The placing, by the Guild, of a new furnace in the Falls Memorial Rectory at Black Hall has added greatly to the comfort of the Missionary and his family. For good and proper reasons, services at Millstone were discontinued during the winter, but they are to be resumed shortly.

The Rev. Mr. Davis, Missionary at Danielson, reports a quiet year of "ordinary parish work." There have been ten baptisms and five confirmations. Fifty-six Communions were made on Easter Day, and the Easter offering was the largest in some years. Services in Moosup have not been held for some months, but an effort will soon be made towards their full resumption.

During the year, regular monthly services have been maintained at Jewett City by the Archdeacon, assisted by the Rectors of Christ and St. Andrew's Church, Norwich, and the Rector of Grace Church, Yantic. The average attendance at the ordinary services has been 25, and on two occasions when service was held in the Congregational Church, the attendance was about 200, in each case. At one of these latter services, the Bishop of the Diocese was the preacher. There have been four baptisms. Prayer Books and hymnals and Evening Prayer Leaflets have been provided both for this and other Missions and in several instances the choirs and organists of Norwich Parishes have been transported to and fro, adding greatly to the attractiveness of the services. Musical supplies have also been furnished to the Mission at Jewett City.

The Archdeacon has made systematic visitations to the aided Parishes and Missions, in several cases visiting them on Sunday, and in some instances more than once. Although this has necessitated the securing of "supplies" for his own services, he feels that the results have well repaid the extra efforts required.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

J. ELDRED BROWN, Archdeacon of New London.

APPENDIX F.

ANNUAL MEETING AND REPORT

CHRIST CHURCH, HARTFORD, June 8, 1909.

The annual meeting was held at the above time and place, the Rt. Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., President, in the chair.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

A summary of the business of this Society since the last annual meeting shows that eighty-two Parishes and Missions have conformed to the Canon and made offerings for this important work, aggregating $709.67; that notes from former beneficiaries have been repaid amounting to $535.00; so that the total income from these two sources has been $1,244.67. Twelve young men have been helped in pursuing their studies for the sacred Ministry, one in Yale University, three in Trinity College, and eight in Berkeley Divinity School. These loans amount to $1,075.00. Notice has been received of a legacy of $2,000.00 from the estate of the late Dr. Russell.

Your Board of Education has lost two members by death since the last Convention, Mr. Samuel Taylor and Dr. Gurdon W. Russell. Mr. Taylor died on August 3, 1908. His genial personality, his courtly bearing, his wise judgment, his Christian courtesy and high character made him a valuable member of this Board, and endeared him to its other members. All this may also be truly said of Dr. Russell, who died February 3, 1909. Besides this it may fittingly be recorded here that he had reached the advanced age of nearly ninety-four years, a lifelong Churchman faithful to the last, a leader in his chosen profession, and a citizen of influence and prominence. Mr. Taylor had been a member of this Board since 1873, and Dr. Russell since 1880. May they rest in peace; and may the Church in the Diocese of Connecticut produce more laymen of their kind, useful as citizens of the State, and faithful as Churchmen and Christians.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE T. LINSLEY, Secretary.

The Treasurer also presented his Report.

Both these Reports were accepted and ordered to be printed with the Journal.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the name of the Board of Education of the Church Scholarship Society be changed to the Board of Directors of the Church Scholarship Society, and that said Board have all the powers usually exercised by Directors of other corporations.

The following were elected as members of the Board of Directors for the ensuing year:

Rev. Francis Goodwin, D.D.,
Frederick W. Harriman, D.D.,
Oliver H. Raftery, D.D.,
John Binney, D.D.,
George T. Linsley,
Flavel S. Luther, Ph.D., LL.D.,
Mr. Benjamin Page,
John F. Tracy,
Ward C. Powell,
Richard J. Goodman,
Thomas E. V. Smith,
George W. Ellis.

The Rev. George T. Linsley was reëlected Secretary, and Mr. Ward C. Powell was reëlected Treasurer.

On motion, the meeting adjourned, and the Convention resumed its session.

HARTFORD—ST. ANDREW'S MISSION

REV. JOHN H. JACKSON, Minister in charge

The new building on Albany Avenue, which serves as Chapel and Parish House, was dedicated by Bishop Brewster, December 15th, 1908. At that time there was no organization, but a little later a general committee of fifty men was formed. Then a Ladies' Benevolent Society was organized. These two organizations have done excellent work, and their combined efforts have resulted in furnishing the Chapel and basement. The receipts total $2,500. The average attendance to the 1st of June was 150. The Sunday School numbers 80 children and 10 teachers. The Mission expects to apply for admission as a new Parish in the near future.

There have been in the past year improvements made inside the Church by staining all the wood work darker. A large closet has been built for altar hangings, drawers, dresser and lavatory in vestry room.

Mrs. Robert Norris gave as a memorial to her son a bookcase and books to fill it, which was appreciated by the Sunday School very much.

With occasional aid from the clergy staff of St. Paul's Church, the Vicar of the Chapel of the Epiphany conducted Sunday afternoon services regularly at the Union Chapel at Morris Cove (one of the nearby summering resorts of New Haven) during the months of June, July, August and September last. The congregations ranged from 15 to 50 in number, averaging 30, and the services seemed quite worth while.

Rev. Floyd S. Kenyon resigned as Vicar, June first, to become Rector of Christ Church, West Haven.

The Rev. Samuel McKibbin began his duties as Minister in charge, June 6.

During the past year a number of improvements were made on the church property. Through the gift of Miss Susan V. Hotchkiss the interior of the Church was redecorated. Through the generosity of Mrs. Selina Lenhart an oak floor was laid in the Church and an iron fence placed about the church property. The money for the other improvements was contributed by the efforts of the whole Parish.

* Died August 3, 1909.

The Parish in the Town of Plymouth is of a threefold aspect: an old Church, St. Peter's in Plymouth; old St. Matthew's in East Plymouth, with no vestry and only two strictly church families; and a Mission at Terryville.

Services at East Plymouth have been renewed this spring with a Lay Reader every Sunday morning.

At Terryville St. Mark's Mission is an active organization of church people intent on building a Church. The only organization is a Guild, all being connected with the parent Church, St. Peter's.

The financial report is included in that of the Parish above. The work is directed chiefly to earning money for the new Church, but only a small sum has been raised above expenses.

During the past fall and winter light wood has been substituted for plaster in the ceiling of the Church, and the whole interior has been beautifully decorated; the work requiring nearly four months to complete. A fund is now being raised to install electricity for lighting the Church, and it is expected this will be accomplished in the near future. The Rectory is also in the hands of workmen for thorough renovation and decoration.

The Rector also respectfully reports that he has continued the Sunday afternoon services in Union Chapel at Saybrook Point throughout the whole year. The attendance is keeping up a most encouraging average. The running expenses have been liberally covered by the free will offerings of the people. The interior of the Chapel is in process of improvement and decorating at an expense of one hundred dollars, and the money is in hand to pay for it.

The Rector is also in charge of this summer's services in the Chapel of St. Mary's-by-the-Sea at Fenwick.

Trustees:—ROBERT N. JACKSON, WILLIAM L. MATSON

The Chapel at Fenwick is this summer in charge of the Rector of Grace Church, Saybrook. The summer preachers are the Rev. Melville K. Bailey of New York, Dean Hart of Berkeley Divinity School, the Rev. James W. Bradin of Hartford, and Dr. de Vries. These gentlemen officiate alternately at the Chapel and the parish Church. This stirs up a new interest in both places. The attendance is good. The voluntary offerings suffice to defray expenses.

The large sum expended upon "Other objects within the Parish" represents the money spent upon the renovation of the parish Church, in connection with the one hundredth anniversary of the organization of the Episcopal Church in this town—on May 27, 1809. Previous to the Centennial Festival (May 27, 1909) new oak pews, a new walnut pulpit, a new marble font, a new walnut altar rail, and new electroliers were placed in the Church. The woodwork (interior) of the Church was also repainted.

"Buff Cap" statistics included in those of the above items.

The activities of the Parish have been energetic, for the most part, during the year, and the Girls' Friendly Society, which was formed last fall, and has twelve members and two associates, has been especially so. Also, the Knights of King Arthur have continued to progress well.

The Church has been renovated, inside and out, newly tinted above and on the walls, and the woodwork refinished. Four very fine windows, from the Gorham Co., have been presented, as memorials, to James F. Chamberlin, and to the former Rector, Rev. Edward R. Brown. Also, a new altar rail, a litany desk, sanctuary chairs, and several other improvements are added. The rail is a memorial to John Dobson, who was active in the founding of the Church here, and the desk, from the Masonic brethren of the late Rector, Rev. William Morrall, to his memory.

The general condition of the Parish is decidedly prosperous.

A beautiful wood pulpit has been presented to St. Luke's Chapel by the members of the congregation.

A priest of the Russian Church and a priest of the Greek Orthodox Church conduct service once a month on a Sunday for their countrymen.

The Rev. John Chamberlain, D.D., of New York, visits the Parish occasionally, celebrates the Holy Communion and later preaches to the deaf mutes of Stamford and vicinity.

The enlargement of St. John's Parish House and alterations within it have begun. The cost of these, estimated at about $12,000, will be reported next year. All but a thousand of this sum has been already raised.

Within the past year a granite Parish House, artistic and well appointed, has been built. It adjoins the Church and harmonizes with it in its Gothic architecture. In size it is 83 by 40 feet, being partly of two and partly of three stories. It contains guild, club and dining rooms, kitchen, Rector's office, room for Curate or Deaconess, lavatories, fire proof vault, choir practice room, and a Sunday School and assembly hall seating 450, having completely appointed stage and a two story transept for future pipe organ. Of its cost of $35,733, as noted in the above report, $21,000 has already been paid by the offerings of the parishioners made in the past five years. It is confidently expected that the balance of $15,000 will be met by continued offerings in a few years.

On Palm Sunday a window was dedicated as a memorial to Uri Taylor Church, for many years a faithful and devoted Vestryman of this Parish. It portrays the triumphant entry of our Lord into Jerusalem and the Institution of the Lord's Supper.

During the past year a generous increase has been made in the Rector's salary, the third increase within ten years.

Regular monthly Sunday evening services are held in Hurlbutt Street, South Wilton, North Wilton and Georgetown. The large attendance by those not familiar with the Church's ways warrants the continuance of the services.

A set of handsome white Bible, Prayer Book and hymnal markers worked by Mrs. Mary Ambler and presented by Mrs. Samuel J. Miller was last Easter's gift to the Church.

A costly and beautiful window, presented by William R. Fearn in memory of his mother, design, St. Agnes, was also an Easter gift.

A pair of bronze bases for altar vases was an Easter gift from Mrs. Sarah Beldin.

The Mission Sunday School in North Wilton public school house is very popular and doing good work.

APPENDIX Q.

To the Right Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D.:

Rev. William G. Andrews, D.D.

Respectfully reports: That in the early part of the conventional year now closing, he commonly assisted the last Rector of Christ Church, Guilford, the Rev. Frederick R. Sanford, at the Sunday morning services, including the Holy Communion, besides administering one baptism. For nearly eight months, however, he has resided in Washington, D. C., and has performed but one official act, the administration of baptism in private, though usually able to be present at Church. He is about resuming his residence in Guilford, and, he trusts, his regular participation in the offices of the Church.

Rev. Isbon T. Beckwith, D.D., Ph.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has given instruction in Biblical Studies regularly in Trinity College, and has performed clerical service, as opportunity has offered, at the College and elsewhere.

Rev. Jacob Albert Biddle, B.D.

Respectfully reports: That he has officiated nearly every Sunday in the year, baptized three infants, and solemnized five marriages. In February, 1908, he was appointed Archdeacon of Hartford, and has applied himself to the performance of the duties of that office. In addition to his clerical services he has given much time to his work as Probation Officer of the Town of Manchester.

Rev. Joel Foote Bingham, D.D., L.H.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the later fall, winter and early spring he was absent from the country, partly in search of relief from the prostrating shock of the sudden separation from the companion of his whole active life, partly from the importance of his presence in Florence to superintend a needed second edition of his great work on the Literature of Italy. In this way his time has been occupied and all his strength expended, and he has not performed and has not felt equal to performing besides any function of the Church during the past ecclesiastical year.

Rev. John Binney, D.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been engaged in the duties belonging to his chair in the Berkeley Divinity School, officiating frequently in St. Luke's Chapel, and elsewhere as opportunity offered.

REV. ELLIS BISHOP

espectfully reports: That in addition to his regular duties as Professor t the Berkeley Divinity School, he has officiated frequently in various arts of the Diocese and elsewhere.

REV. CRANSTON BRENTON

espectfully reports: That he has been occupied during the past year ith his duties as Professor of the English Language and Literature in rinity College. He has officiated and preached in the College Chapel id elsewhere as opportunity has presented.

REV. JOHN COLEMAN

espectfully reports: That during the past conventional year he has ficiated, in various Dioceses, as follows: Officiated in entire service, 12
mes. Assisted in service, 20 times. Celebrated Holy Communion, 12
mes. Assisted at Holy Communion, 3 times. Preached 21 times and elivered pulpit lecture on the Church of England 5 times. He solemnized

urches (including 2 disused), 174. Chapels, (usually with Churches,) 28. Mission apels, 17. Summer Chapels, 3. Parish Houses, 77. Parish Rooms, 32. Rectories, 127. Other Buildings, 9. Total (including 11 loaned or hired), 467.

NOTE.—The Parish Rooms and two of the Chapels are not separate buildings. "Sittings" and "Free Sittings" are given as last reported, usually in 1899, it sometimes earlier or corrected later. These items, being permanent and ot changing annually, were omitted from the form for Parochial Report by e Convention of 1899, on the understanding that the Secretary would publish em in a separate list. Where no Sittings are reported, there is no building completed and belonging to the Parish or Mission. "Current Expenses (including alaries)" are tabulated for convenience in making the assessments based upon nem. "Communicants" have been added this year, for similar reasons.

The information about Buildings was first added, by request of the Convention, in 1906; and was obtained by inquiring of the various Rectors. Since then the changes have been noted by the Secretary, so far as reported in any way; and this year the list has been corrected by comparison with the Wardens' Reports to the Bishop, (on value of Church Property, etc.,) supplemented by special inquiries in cases of doubt. The Secretary will be grateful for further corrections, if needed.

Matters of especial interest

The Convention sat all day Tuesday and half of Wednesday, with a meeting in the interest of General Missions Tuesday evening.

The Bishop's Address (page 70) discusses "Diocesan Efficiency" with reference to Division of the Diocese; more time for the business of the Annual Convention; and "Faith and Authority."

The Committee on Division of the Diocese or other Relief for the Bishop reported that Division was "not at present feasible" (page 58). They recommended an appropriation of $1,500 additional for a private Secretary or visitations by other Bishops, which was voted accordingly. They suggested that a Suffragan Bishop might be the best relief, if authorized by the General Convention. A Resolution was adopted approving the Amendment to the Constitution of this American Church permitting Suffragans (page 68); but another Resolution providing for a Special Convention to elect a Suffragan as soon as possible, was laid on the table (page 59). The Committee was discharged.

To meet the new appropriation for relief of the Bishop, the assessment for the Bishop's Fund was increased to one and one-half per cent. on "Current Expenses (including Salaries)," the assessment for the Convention Fund remaining at one per cent. (page 64).

A new "Canon VII." was adopted, establishing the office of Chancellor of the Diocese (page 45); and the Hon. Morris W. Seymour was elected, the first Diocesan Chancellor in New England (page 63).

Deputies were elected to the General Convention (page 61); but the method of election seeming slow and cumbersome, a Special Committee was appointed to suggest a better way (page 68).

A Special Committee was also appointed to arrange a program for the next Convention, to increase its efficiency as desired by the Bishop (pages 67 and 68); and another on a proposal to have salaried Archdeacons (page 61).

A Permanent Committee on Finance was elected, with power to consider subjects brought to their notice between Conventions (page 64).

A telegram of sympathy was sent to the Rev. Dr. S. F. Jarvis, in poor health (page 52); and one of greeting to the World Missionary Conference in Edinburgh (page 66).

A revised list of Parishes the Names of which have been changed, will be found on page 115.

TRINITY CHURCH, NEW HAVEN,
TUESDAY, JUNE 14, 1910.

This being the day appointed by the Constitution and the place designated by the Bishop, the Annual Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut assembled at 9.30 A. M.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Rev. Storrs O. Seymour, D.D., President of the Standing Committee of the Diocese. The Right Reverend Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese, was present, read the Gospel and pronounced the Absolution. He also closed the service with the Prayer to be used at the Meetings of Convention and the Benediction. The Rev. Doctors Samuel Hart and Stewart Means and the Rev. George T. Linsley, of the Standing Committee, and the Rev. Charles O. Scoville, Rector of the Parish, assisted in the service.

In place of a Sermon the Bishop delivered that part of his Annual Address which had reference to deceased Clergymen and laymen. (See page 70.)

The music was rendered by a male choir, vested, and reinforced with Clergymen.

The Offertory was for the General Clergy Relief Fund.

The service ended, the Bishop took the chair about 11.15 A. M.

On motion, the roll call was dispensed with; and, by means of cards deposited at the door, it was ascertained that 152 Clergymen were present (at some time on Tuesday or Wednesday), whose names are indicated by an asterisk in the list on pages 14-23. Lay Delegates to the number of 181, representing 111 Parishes, and 4 Delegates from Organized Missions were also present, whose names are marked with an asterisk on pages 29-36; a total attendance larger than ever before.

A quorum of both orders being present, the Convention was declared duly organized.

The Rev. Frederick W. Harriman, D.D., was by ballot unanimously elected Secretary; and he appointed as his Assistants the Rev. John F. Plumb and the Rev. Ellis Bishop.

Mr. Ward C. Powell, for the Committee to prepare the Roll of Lay Delegates, presented the following

NEW HAVEN, June 14, 1910.

1. A notification from the Diocese formerly called "Central Pennsylvania" that its name is now "The Diocese of Bethlehem."

2. A Report of the Girls' Friendly Society in this Diocese, showing 33 Branches and 2,245 members of different kinds, with the request that the Report be brought to the attention of the Convention. It is printed as a part of Appendix T.

4. A communication from the Secretary of the Missionary Council of the Department of New England, as follows:

ALL SAINTS' RECTORY,

THE REVEREND F. W. HARRIMAN, D.D.

The Secretary asked that the Request be referred to the Committee on Finance, and it was so referred.

On motion of the Rev. Joseph Hooper, it was Resolved, That Clergymen of other Dioceses, Clergymen of Churches in communion with this Church, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, all persons holding any office or trust under the Diocese of Connecticut, if not members of this Convention, and the Wardens and Vestry of this Parish, be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND CANONS

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut, to be holden on the second Tuesday in June, 1910.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons begs leave respectfully to report in regard to the matters which have been referred or submitted to it.

1. In his address to the last Convention (Journal, page 71), the Bishop asked the Convention to "consider the advisability of electing a Chancellor of the Diocese, or legal adviser, to whom the Bishop may apply for occasional advice as need shall require"; and the request (page 46) was referred to this Committee for consideration and report. The Committee has considered the matter, and recommends the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the following be adopted as Canon VII., the numbers of the present Canon VII. and those which follow it being changed:

CANON VII.—Of the Chancellor

The Chancellor of the Diocese, who shall be a man learned in the law d a Communicant of this Church, shall be elected by the Convention on nomination by the Bishop, to hold office until his successor shall be cted in like manner. He shall be the legal adviser of the Bishop in ch matters as may be referred to him, and shall be admitted to the sit-gs of the Convention, and with the consent of the President may take rt in its deliberations.

2. A proposal of this Committee (page 57, clause 8), that Article IV. the Constitution should be so amended as to require of Clergymen ual as well as canonical residence in the Diocese to qualify them to te at the election of a Bishop was referred back to the Committee for rther consideration. The Committee, at the request of the person by om the suggestion was made, asks that it may be discharged from the rther consideration of the subject.

3. A new scheme for the financial report of Parishes has been proposed the Committee for insertion in Canon II., Section 3; it differs from the esent scheme in calling for a separate statement of the Rector's salary, d also for a statement of bills receivable and bills payable at the close the year, and in expecting that the totals of Receipts and Expenditures all be balanced. The Committee has considered the matter, and is of inion that it is not desirable that the proposed change in the scheme of port should be made at this time; and it asks that it may be discharged om the further consideration of the subject.

4. The Committee has been asked to consider a proposal that in the rm of Parochial Report in Canon II., Section 3, there should be inserted e "number of Communicants receiving" the Holy Communion "during e year." The Committee is of the opinion that the Convention has so cently decided to make the entry of "Communicants, present number," id to insert a clause as to the application of the phrase, that it is not esirable to enter at this time upon a new discussion of the matter; and asks that it may be discharged from the further consideration of the ubject.

All which is respectfully submitted.

SAMUEL HART,
JAMES H. GEORGE,
WILLIAM A. BEARDSLEY,
GARDINER GREENE,
L. P. WALDO MARVIN,
Committee.

The new Canon was adopted, and the Committee was discharged from the further consideration of the other proposals.

The Rev. Wm. A. Beardsley presented the Report of the Committee on Distribution of the Prayer Book, which was accepted and ordered to be printed with the Journal (Appendix L.).

The Rev. Dr. Seymour reported for the Committee on Apportionment for General Missions, that the Committee met and at the suggestion of the Bishop apportioned the amount to be raised by each Archdeaconry, leaving each to apportion to the several Parishes the sums expected.

The Report was accepted.

On motion, the President appointed as

Committee on Apportionment for General Missions

Rev. Storrs O. Seymour, D.D.

Rev. Allen E. Beeman	Mr. Walton Ferguson

Mr. Burton Mansfield

Dr. Seymour also reported for the Committee on Proposed Episcopal Residence that the Committee had held no meeting.

Rev. Dr. Hart reported for the Committee on Proposed Diocesan Office that the Committee had the matter under serious consideration.

The Report was accepted and the Committee continued.

About noon the Bishop offered prayers for Missions and Unity, after which he delivered the remainder of his Annual Address (see page 73).

Mr. Charles H. Tibbits presented the following

To the Diocesan Convention of Connecticut:

Your Committee, appointed to secure subscriptions throughout the Diocese, for the Better Support of the Clergy, in accord with the Resolution adopted at the last Diocesan Convention, beg to report as follows:

The Committee have had several meetings during the year and have worked diligently at the task assigned them. A circular letter was sent to those who we thought would be interested in pledging their financial aid in this cause. Besides this many direct personal appeals have been made by individual members of the Committee. The following table shows the net results to date:

ıer of persons subscribing	82
ınt of subscriptions for each of five years . . .	$3,015.90
ınt needed to complete the annual fund of $4,000 . .	984.10

ır Committee at this time wish to express their deep appreciation of :nerosity of those who have so freely contributed to this fund. They e however that a great many people in the Diocese have hesitated in ; their aid to this cause, for the reason that they felt that what they give would not be large enough to be appreciated. It is unnecessary ate that your Committee is anxious to receive gifts of any size oever, believing that a large number of small subscriptions is indica- f a widespread interest and a healthy financial support.

:y greatly regret that they are unable to report that the full amount ɔscribed. It seems to them that not alone the cause itself, but the uards with which the expenditure of this money is surrounded, d more largely enlist the practical sympathy of our people. It is earnest hope that their appeal may be heeded at this time, and that mall balance may be secured before July 1, 1910.

Respectfully submitted,

C. B. Brewster,
Nelson J. Welton,
Walton Ferguson,
James J. Goodwin,
F. J. Kingsbury,
Richard L. deZeng,
C. H. Tibbits,
Committee.

ıe Report was accepted and the Committee continued.

ır. Burton Mansfield reported for the Committee on Decadent shes and Parochial Membership that no meeting had been . The Committee was continued.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON WORK AMONG FOREIGNERS

he Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut:

is with an increased and most solemn sense of responsibility that Commission makes this, its third Annual Report. The work with :h it has to do is enormous in proportions and importance. Of y one hundred of our population, sixty-five are of foreign parentage. ome cities and towns this high percentage is very largely increased. r two states in our Union exceed Connecticut in percentage of foreign ı, and these are our neighbors, Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

Southern New England is the land of the foreign born. We are witnessing to a changing order. There are towns in Connecticut where thirty languages are spoken. The Great Commission, "Go, baptize all nations," takes on a new meaning with our parish Priests. The Pentecostal gift of tongues may well be coveted by many a Rector. The foreign born are here and here to stay. Strong, industrious, responsive to kind and fair treatment, and possessing splendid possibilities through assimilation, they are becoming and will become just what we guide them into being. The responsibility, clear, large, immediate, is ours and we may not safely avoid it. Moreover, as State and Church we need these people. Not only the well-being, but the very being of our Diocese depends upon them. They have already entered quietly but very largely into our church life. The faithful work of our parish Priests is meeting with results. In one large and growing Parish, and quite likely in others, one-third of the communicant list and more than one-half of the financial support come from those of foreign parentage. This shows what has been done, and is an earnest of what can and ought to be done. Clearly the Church has a mission to these people. Faith in our Divine Head and in this mission of His Body, the Church, will help us to meet the many difficult phases of this work.

We beg to emphasize two essential needs of our Diocese.

First: Missionaries who can speak in foreign tongues for immediate work among the foreign born.

Second: The selecting of youths from our Sunday Schools, bright boys of foreign parentage and speaking foreign tongues, ranking high in our public schools, to be guided and trained to become Candidates for Holy Orders, for future work among the foreign born. We ought now to be safeguarding the future of our State and Diocese by laying foundations for a priesthood able by language, sympathy and godly training to meet this pressing need which will continue to be our need for years to come. It is to be remembered that the parents of such boys will be proud to have their sons become Priests and will gladly make personal sacrifice to that end.

Mindful that our Clergy are not prepared to minister in foreign tongues and that the Diocese has yet no foreign-speaking Missionaries, this Commission is endeavoring to bring such aid as is possible to our Clergy in their parochial work among the foreign born.

As an aid to work among Italians the Commission has published a translation into Italian of its summary Statement entitled The Episcopal Church, which was approved by the last Convention. This is printed in Italian and English on alternate pages, and may be had at three cents (3) a copy, twenty-five (25) cents a dozen, or two dollars ($2) a hundred, of the Secretary of the Diocese. About fifteen hundred (1500) copies have already been distributed, largely in other Dioceses. At the May meeting of the Commission it was voted to prepare for publication, on the approval of the Bishop, a small pamphlet containing the Office of Holy Communion in Italian and English on alternate pages. The entire Book of Common Prayer as translated into Italian for the Bishop White Prayer Book Society of the Diocese of Pennsylvania may be had without charge of Dr. W. H. Morse, 55 Allen Place, Hartford. The Commission suggests that the Convention express its appreciation of Dr. Morse's generous coöperation.

The opportunity of our Church for ministration to Italians appears more distinct than ever, and in this Diocese is distributed from Bridgeport to Stafford Springs. Those who read Italian—and many of us might well take pains to learn it—will find valuable information in Dr. Giovanni Preziosi's Gl' Italiani negli Stati Uniti del Nord (Milan; Libreria Editrice Milanese). Meantime the Italians of the second generation are already being graduated from our high schools, and a few of them are going to college.

Suggestions for social effort among Italians may be had from the experience of the Church of San Salvatore, 359 Broome Street, New York (see the Living Church for June 19th, 1909). Other Italian centers in the same Diocese are: St. Augustine's Chapel, 105 E. Houston Street, and Calvary Church, Mariner's Harbor, S. I. (Archdeaconry of Richmond, the Rev. D. A. Rocca, Priest-in-Charge).

The fear of proselyting has little basis. We have made clear in our statement that we have no wish to proselyte. Many Italians in this country have, not only no vital attachment to the Roman Church, but no attachment at all. Where, as in our own Diocese, our ministrations to the neglected arouse the Roman Church to more effective effort, we may still rejoice at the result, though it does not increase our own numbers. Additions to a given Parish are not a prime consideration. That an Italian laboring population, for instance, may be temporary or shifting, makes work more difficult, indeed, but not less desirable.

The immigration from the countries of the Eastern Orthodox Church, though already large, is comparatively so new that there is still time for us to deal with it by wise foresight. The Eastern Church, though it has never officially pronounced upon Anglican Orders, in practice accepts our Priests. Not only so, but in many places on account of lack of Priests of her own she explicitly entrusts her people to our ministrations. Certain social problems thereby involved lay this charge upon us with even greater force. That it can be fulfilled is clear already from the Greek and Syrian boys in our Sunday Schools, and nowhere clearer than in the excellent work at St. Paul's, Willimantic. The Commission advises every Priest who deals with these people to read in the Yale University Library the thesis of Prof. H. P. Fairchild on Greek Immigration into the United States, and the publications of the Anglican and Eastern Orthodox Churches Union (Recording Secretary of the American Branch, Rev. Charles Le V. Brine, Portsmouth, N. H.), and to keep touch with the Bishop Coadjutor of New Hampshire, who is Chairman of the Committee on Work among Foreign Immigrants of the First (or New England) Missionary Department, and who has to deal in his Diocese with large numbers of Russians, Greeks, and Syrians.

The Russians and Syrians of the Orthodox Eastern Church in this country are organized under a Russian Bishop resident in New York and the Syrian Suffragan Bishop Raphael in Brooklyn. The Russian Priest, the Rev. Vladimir Alexandrof, recently resident in Ansonia, has moved to Chicago. A Syrian Priest, the Rev. George O. Maloof, is resident in Boston, and a Syrian Priest, the Rev. Michael Hussan, in Worcester. The Greeks have no Bishop, little comity with the Russians and Syrians, and sometimes, it is feared, insufficient responsibility among their Clergy. The nearest large Greek colonies outside of New York City are in Lowell, Mass., and Manchester, N. H., but the immigration of Greeks has been so diffused that already they have their own Churches in Atlanta and Seattle. Of the Greek communities in this Diocese the largest, apparently, are in Bridgeport, New Haven, Stamford and Norwich. Considerable numbers are in Hartford, Thompsonville and Danbury. The following letter (March 15, 1910) from the Rev. John Williams, Rector of St. Barnabas's Church, Omaha, is typical, and suggests how Rectors may be helpful to Greeks and Orthodox Syrians:

"As Anglicans we have the most friendly relations with the Greeks and Orthodox Syrians. The former have now a Priest of their own, and a Church. They come to me from time to time for such friendly offices and counsel as I may be able to extend. They are an industrious, pushing sort of people, and upon the whole are doing well. The Syrians are divided into Orthodox and Uniats. The latter have a Priest of their own race, who is of course under the jurisdiction of the Roman Catholic Bishop. The Orthodox look to me for such spiritual offices as I can give them. I have not sought to separate them from their Communion at all. Whenever one of their Clergy comes, he hears their confessions, baptizes and confirms their children, and administers the Holy Eucharist. At other times they look to me for religious offices. In extremis I baptize their babies, and I bury their dead. In their worldly affairs they seek my counsel and friendly offices. I settle the differences which otherwise would lead to lawsuits and police-court scandals. Altogether my relations with them are of the happiest kind, and in everything with the approval of the Syrian Bishop of Brooklyn. While yet a Priest, Bishop Raphael, at my request made to the Russian Bishop, then at San Francisco, visited the little Syrian community here, and as there was no Priest in charge, and not enough means to support one if there were, he placed them formally under my charge to do for them what could without separating them from their own people. That compact have kept ever since. Father John of Chicago, a Russian Priest, also visited them about the same time. He also approved of my taking charge of them; and whenever a Syrian Priest comes this way, they always bring him to see me."

Most of the communities of Eastern Orthodox Christians have a leading man who is their banker, commissary and general agent, and who, since he speaks English, is the natural intermediary for religious and social efforts in their behalf. It should further be noted that these communities, especially the Greeks, have very few women. Being made up largely of men and boys, they have little family life.

The separate Armenian Gregorian Church also is probably increasing in New England. In the neighborhood about St. John's Church, Providence, R. I., for instance, the Armenian population seems to have doubled within a year. A group of Armenians placed some years ago by Bishop Potter under the charge of the Vicar of St. Chrysostom's, New York, has worshipped there regularly ever since. There is an Armenian Bishop in Worcester. There is every reason for making the Armenians of our own Diocese to know the opportunity and welcome that await them as sharers of our ministrations (see two articles in the Living Church, Oct. 16, 1909, and Nov. 13, 1909). The Rector of St. Mark's, New Britain, not only ministers personally to Armenians, but gives the use of the parish Church to an Armenian congregation at such times as the Armenian Priest from Worcester can officiate.

The French Canadians, the Portuguese and the Poles are found by the committee of the New England Department to be generally devoted to the Roman Church and well cared for religiously.

Your Commission has taken action looking to the translation of the statement called The Episcopal Church into Swedish, for which there are many requests. There are also requests for this statement which makes very clear the historical and doctrinal position of our Church, into Greek, Syriac, and other languages.

The International Committee of Young Men's Christian Associations is doing among immigrants newly landed a concerted social work that ought to be known by all our Clergy and lay workers. Especially valuable is a method of teaching English to foreigners devised by Dr. Peter Roberts and already widely successful. His little book English for Coming Americans, which sells in cloth for fifty cents, and in paper for thirty-five, is published at 124 East 28th Street, New York, the general office committee's industrial department, which also circulates gratis a number of suggestive leaflets.

The Commission desires information of personal experience with the foreigners in our own Diocese. If all our actual experience of ministration were reported annually, each Parish might gain from every other engaged in the same race problems. Such reports the Commission will be glad to compile and embody in its own report, classifying by races throughout the Diocese and in each Archdeaconry.

The Commission suggests and recommends to our Archdeaconries the plan of making provision by which Missionaries of our Church, speaking foreign tongues, and residing in neighboring Dioceses, may make tours from time to time in our Diocese, visiting and ministering to groups of foreigners, and bringing them into closer relation with our parish Churches. The planning of such tours may well be within the province of our Archidiaconal organizations.

The Commission asks that it be continued for another year.

Respectfully submitted,

J. CHAUNCEY LINSLEY,
E. B. SCHMITT,
JAMES GOODWIN,
CHARLES SEARS BALDWIN,
RICHARD L. DEZENG.

The Report was accepted, ordered printed with the Journal, and the Commission was continued.

On motion of Prof. Charles S. Baldwin, it was Resolved, That this Convention appreciates highly the generous coöperation of Dr. W. H. Morse of Hartford in the distribution of the Book of Common Prayer in Italian, and hereby expresses to him its cordial thanks.

The Rev. E. B. Schmitt moved the following:

Resolved, That this Convention learns with regret of the illness of the Rev. Samuel F. Jarvis, D.D., Rector Emeritus of Trinity Church, Brooklyn, Conn., and extends to him its sympathy with the hope that his restoration to normal health may be rapid.

Resolved, That the Secretary convey this message to Dr. Jarvis.

The Resolution was unanimously adopted, and the Secretary, during the Recess, telegraphed the following message:

To the Rev. S. F. Jarvis, D.D., Brooklyn, Connecticut.

The Diocesan Convention learns with deep regret that you are in poor health, and sends you assurances of sympathy, respect and affection.

F. W. HARRIMAN, Secretary.

During the afternoon session the following reply was received:

Rev. F. W. Harriman, Trinity Church, New Haven, Conn.

Rev. Dr. Jarvis thanks the Convention for its kind message of sympathy, which he deeply appreciates.

On motion, a Recess was taken until 2.30 P. M., during which time luncheon was served in the Parish House, 160 Temple Street, by the Church people of New Haven.

TUESDAY, 2.30 P. M.

The Convention having reassembled, the Rev. Dr. Seymour presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON PAROCHIAL ARCHIVES

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Permanent Commission on Parochial Archives respectfully presents its twelfth annual Report.

Research among the archives of the American Church for items relating to this Diocese has been continued through the year. Active work as in former years has been done, mainly by our colleague, the Rev. Joseph Hooper, who has pursued his investigations, as he has had leisure from his other duties, among the treasures stored in the Church Missions House in New York City. His attention has been largely devoted to the anuscripts of the Rev. Samuel Peters, LL.D., sometime Rector of . Peter's Church, Hebron, who by his outspoken loyalty was compelled leave this country for England in 1774. Ten manuscript volumes of s papers are among the archives of the House of Bishops and stored in e vaults at the Church Missions House. From them have been taken pies of letters bearing upon the meeting of the Clergy at Woodbury on nnunciation Day, March 25, 1783, when the Rev. Dr. Leaming and the ev. Dr. Seabury were chosen alternates for the honors and perils of the piscopate for the Diocese of Connecticut. There are letters from the ev. Dr. Bela Hubbard, Ebenezer Dibble, Jeremiah Leaming and John yler. Of special value is a letter to Dr. Seabury from Dr. Leaming in ebruary, 1785, in which he tells how eager and willing the Clergy and ymen are to receive him, and that they wish him to secure Episcopal rders from any valid line. As Dr. Seabury had already sailed to this ountry, the letter remained, as the writer desired, in the hands of Dr. eters. There are also two letters mentioning and commenting upon ishop Seabury's sojourn in Nova Scotia. This series makes plain much at was hitherto obscure.

In the archives of the State of Connecticut is a letter from the celerated Presbyterian theologian, professor at Princeton, and historian, Dr. amuel Miller, written in 1804, to Dr. Benjamin Trumbull, author of the listory of Connecticut. It mentions the "Episcopal Propaganda" at New 'ork intended to influence the people of Connecticut, and urges the Conregationalists to form a secret organization to write in opposition to piscopacy. This was done, as the pages of The Evangelical Magazine nd various tracts then circulated proved.

The Commission have also received typewritten extracts from the ncient records of the Church in Westbury, now Watertown, from Mr. . V. Magee, a member of the Parish.

If thought advisable by the Convention, valuable and interesting aterial can be obtained by the continuation of this work during the oming year; and we recommend an Appropriation of $75.00 for the xpenses of the same.

Respectfully submitted,

STORRS O. SEYMOUR, Chairman;
F. CLARENCE BISSELL, Secretary.

The Report was accepted, and the request for an Appropriation as referred to the Committee on Finance.

The Rev. Ernest deF. Miel presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON SOCIAL SERVICE

The Commission on Social Service respectfully submits the following eport:

Since the last Diocesan Convention, members of this Commission have nvestigated certain matters connected with child labor, have made several isits to the State Prison at Wethersfield, have attended the Convention of the Christian Social Union at Trenton, N. J., on April 13th last, have given study to the question of Excise, and have had under consideration matters concerning reform legislation which will be brought before the next session of the General Assembly.

In accordance with the recommendation of the Bishop of the Diocese in his address to the Convention in June, 1909, that there be a Committee on Social Service appointed in each Archdeaconry, the Chairman of this Commission addressed letters to all of the Archdeacons calling their attention to the matter and asking that if possible such committees be appointed. Favorable replies have been received from all the Archdeaconries, and local committees have been appointed to work in conjunction with the Social Service Commission and also to take up the study of social conditions in their own immediate neighborhoods.

During the past year this Commission has directed its labors along the several lines indicated in the following paragraphs:

State Reformatory

As predicted in our last report, an appropriation of $400,000 was made by the last Legislature for the erection of a State Reformatory and directors have been appointed whose duty it will be to procure a site and proceed with the erection of the necessary buildings. It is confidently to be expected that the Reformatory will, in some measure, meet the needs of the community for an institution for the care and treatment of habitual drunkards, dipsomaniacs and persons under twenty-five years of age addicted to the intemperate use of narcotics and stimulants. Institutions for the exclusive care of this class of persons have been erected at state expense in other States and a bill has recently passed the Legislature of the State of New York for the purchase of a farm and equipping the same for the detention and treatment of this class of persons in that State. This Commission in its two previous Reports has recommended the establishment of such an institution in this State and presented and urged for passage by the last Legislature a bill designed to carry out said recommendations, but in view of the great danger of waste in establishing and maintaining a great variety of institutions at state expense, we now feel that until the reformatory buildings have been completed, and the law, together with such amendments as may be made to it, has received a practical trial, it is best to defer further action until it is made to appear that the Reformatory cannot, without a great sacrifice of effectiveness in other particulars, be made to provide also care and treatment for inebriates.

Industrial Labor

The attempt made to secure the enactment by the last Legislature of further legal restriction as to the employment of child labor, which also received the endorsement of the last Convention, brought about such change in the law that children between the ages of fourteen and sixteen can now only be employed where it shall also appear that they have attained a specified proficiency in language and arithmetic. In referring to this change in the law a recent periodical says, "It may fairly be id that Connecticut has made a long step in advance in child labor ork." This bill was passed through the efforts of the Education Comittee under the chairmanship of President Flavel S. Luther, of Trinity ollege. We are informed that during the next session of the Legislature forts are to be made to raise the educational requirements and advance ıe age limit for child workers. It is recognized on all sides that the oblems of child labor and education are "two sides of the same subject," ıd we believe that the Christian sentiment of the State should declare self boldly for such measures as make for adequate protection and trainıg of the child.

We are also of the opinion that the Church should not be backward ın ıpporting legal measures which make for the physical and moral welleing of all the workers in the commerce and manufacture carried on in ıis State. The conditions which prevail in modern production were absoıtely unknown to our fathers, and laws formerly adequate are insufficient ɔ-day. Men and women have been taken by thousands from diversified nd outdoor employment and harnessed to machines, operating continously for ten hours a day; and by reason of noise, dust, rapidity of the ıachine, unnatural attitude or other causes, there results a severe strain ıpon the nervous system. Laws regulating the number of hours per day ır week during which women can be employed have long been in force n the State of Connecticut and are now being sustained as constitutional y Courts of high authority in other States. We believe that the influence f Churchmen everywhere should be exerted in any legal way to secure ɔ all laborers, whether they be men or women, reasonable hours for rest nd recreation.

Sunday Observance

The laborer has in many occupations gradually lost his day of rest. Upon umanitarian grounds alone, the physical and moral welfare of the comıunity demands that there shall be one day of rest in seven. The increase f secular employment on the Lord's Day is a direct menace to the health f society. We believe it is the duty of the State to secure for every ıdividual such release from toil as Sunday provides, if not upon that ıy, then upon some other during the week. The fact that people e obliged to work at the same task seven days successively, week after ɛek, is an infringement upon human rights. While, however, we look the State to safeguard her people from such imposition, we believe that does not lie within her province to deal with the religious observance the day. This pertains to the function of the Church and in our ɱmunion is completely covered by the Canon on the due celebration of ndays:—

"All persons within this Church shall celebrate and keep the Lord's Day, mmonly called Sunday, in hearing the word of God read and taught, private and public prayer, in other exercises of devotion and in acts of arity, using all godly and sober conversation." (Canon 43.)

The mind of the Church is here plainly expressed, and it rests with the nsciences of her own people to see that Sunday is kept by them as a holy ıy. But we believe that the conservation of Sunday as a day of rest is a matter which intimately concerns all the people of this Commonwealth, and that the State, without restricting individual liberty unduly, or prohibiting such forms of recreation as may contribute to the health of her people, should by wise legislation make it possible that the day be observed for religious purposes by those who are so inclined. We are, however, also persuaded that restrictive legislation carried to extremes is not calculated to increase the spirit of devotion. A reasonable freedom is perfectly consistent with a proper use of this day of rest, provided that the rights of those who are intent upon employing it for religious purposes are not intruded upon by unseemly disorder.

Pastoral Care of Inmates of State Institutions

The religious condition of the inmates of public institutions demands careful consideration on the part of our Church. We believe that the matter should be taken up with a view to a thorough and systematic method by which spiritual ministrations can be assured, not only to those of our own communion, but also to those who are attached to no religious body in particular. The men and women in our jails and state prison, the inmates of our county homes and almhouses, the patients in our public hospitals and insane asylums need and should receive something more than the official oversight guaranteed them by those appointed to preside over the religious life of these institutions. For a certain percentage of them, especially in large cities, regular services are provided, but we believe that these should be followed up by pastoral ministrations. It does not reflect credit upon the Church to think that there are any unfortunate people of this class who are being neglected and who, from one year's end to another, never receive a visit from a Minister of their own faith. In order that the matter may be properly cared for we recommend that this Convention, by approval of our Report, authorize this Commission to canvass the subject thoroughly, gather facts as to the number of our people who are at present confined in these places and in conjunction with the several Archdeacons provide some systematic means by which they may be visited and their spiritual interests cared for.

Life Prisoners

In this connection attention should be called to the fact that out eighty-four life prisoners in the State Prison at Wethersfield, fifte are insane. We are informed by Warden Garvin, whose humane a efficient administration has made a profound impression upon the me bers of this Commission who have visited the prison, that a man un life sentence is the most difficult of all persons to handle and usu becomes surly and unmanageable or insane. Mental derangement is natural result of depriving a man of hope. No matter how exemplary conduct he knows that he will receive no recognition for his efforts. This does not seem to be strictly just and is contrary to the law of God. A remedy for this deplorable condition would be to enlarge the powers of the present Board of Parole (not to be confused with the Board of Pardons) to cover the case of such life prisoners as have served twenty years. It will be observed that this would not give liberty to all who have served that length of time, but simply would allow the Board to exercise its discretion in the case of such of these men as they might consider to have been entirely reformed and who might thenceforth become useful members of society. Such a provision was asked for by the Directors of the Prison in their Report to Governor Woodruff in 1908. They summed up the matter as follows:

"The proposed revision of the penalty for second degree murderers, under which hope would be substituted for despair and elasticity for rigidity, would not undermine any social defenses against crime, and it would operate as a sustaining and wholesome force."

Excise

We commend to your notice a communication recently issued by the Temperance Committee of the New Haven Pastors' Union calling attention to a defect in Chapter 174 of the Public Acts of 1909 restraining the issuance of further licenses to sell intoxicating liquors in towns where the present number of saloons is in excess of the ratio of one to each 500 inhabitants of the town, but permitting the renewal of licenses already held except where the licensee has been convicted of a violation of the law concerning the sale of spirituous and intoxicating liquors, or has paid a fine or penalty for such violation, or has forfeited his bond to appear and answer charges as to such violation. By the provisions of another Act passed in 1903, it is provided that upon a first conviction for the violation of any of the laws relating to the sale of spirituous and intoxicating liquors, the Court may certify in writing that in its opinion the license of the person so convicted should not be revoked and his bond forfeited, and thereupon such conviction shall not be the basis for a suit upon such bond or proceedings for the revocation of such license nor prevent a license being granted the following year. Some of the courts of the State have held that where such a certificate has been issued and the licensee seeks a renewal of his license under the above-mentioned Act of 1909, evidence cannot be admitted to show other violations of the law, or that the licensee is an unsuitable person, and that therefore in operation the law of 1909 fails to eliminate saloons operated by licensees who violate the law. They therefore recommend the amendment of the law by the insertion after the word "violation" in the first line of the Act of 1903, the words "of a technical character," and the substitution in the place of the words "nor to prevent a license being granted the following year" the following: "Nothing in this Act shall be construed as excluding evidence of the unsuitability of the licensee, or of violations prior to or succeeding that on which conviction was had, or as relieving a principal of responsibility for the acts of his agent." The letter of the Temperance Committee of the New Haven Pastors' Union makes further recommendation for the amendment of the statutes in order that the number of saloons may be more quickly reduced than is likely under the present law, and that the ratio be changed from one to every 500 inhabitants to one to every 1,000 inhabitants. It further recommends that a State Excise Commission of three men be appointed by the Governor, who shall grant all liquor licenses in the State. The granting of liquor licenses is, in many States, entrusted to such commissions. Wherever operative, the plan is found more effective and more conducive to the public interest than the system now in force in this State, whereby the granting of all liquor licenses is left in the hands of County Commissioners who hold offices neither by appointment nor by popular vote. We believe that the Churchmen in this State should, by their influence and active coöperation, assist in making the efforts of the Temperance Committee of the New Haven Pastors' Union effective, at least so far as it concerns the proposed amendment to the Act of 1903 and the establishment of a State Excise Commission.

In conclusion this Commission would say that it believes that while the Church as a body should refrain from pronouncements on matters purely economic or political, she should regard the physical, mental and moral well-being of the industrial workers of the State as of her primary concern. We believe that Churchmen should recognize their individual responsibility in this respect. To the end that something effective in line with suggestions of this Report may be accomplished, we respectfully offer one practical suggestion. If bills are proposed at the coming session of the General Assembly which promise to alleviate some of the existing evils connected with child and woman labor, with Sunday observance, with the treatment of life prisoners, with excise and kindred matters, let Churchmen impress their representatives with the fact that they are deeply interested in these things and will not be disposed to excuse procrastination or an ill-advised economy which might stand in the way of social advancement.

The Rev. Dr. Seymour presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DIVISION OF THE DIOCESE OR OTHER RELIEF FOR THE BISHOP

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut, to be holden on the second Tuesday in June, 1910.

The Committee appointed in 1909 "to consider and report to the next Convention upon the advisability of dividing the Diocese, on what lines, and with what provision for future support;—or any other provision to meet the difficulties suggested by the Bishop or those seeking a division of the Diocese,"—beg leave to report as follows:

Under the present Constitution and Canons of the Church, there are only two methods of permanent relief for the Bishop. These are (1) The Election of a Bishop Coadjutor; (2) The Division of the Diocese.

(1) We do not recommend a Bishop Coadjutor, because the Bishop does not desire it; and furthermore because we believe that very few members of this Convention are ready to select a man who might become Bishop of the Diocese by right of succession at some future time.

(2) As to Division of the Diocese, while the Committee are divided as to its desirability, they are agreed that it is not at present feasible.

The Committee therefore recommend, as the best method of temporary relief, that a sum not to exceed $1,500 in addition to the present appropriation of $500, be appropriated from the income of the Bishop's Fund, to provide, in the Bishop's discretion, the assistance of a private Secretary or visitations by other Bishops.

The Committee furthermore call attention to the fact that if the proposed Amendment to Article II. of the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America by the addition of a section permitting the consecration of Suffragan Bishops be adopted by the General Convention in October, 1910, more adequate relief for the Bishop may be provided by the election of a Suffragan Bishop.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMISSION

The Sunday School Commission begs leave to present its fifth annual Report.

Four meetings have been held during the year, at which various matters relating to the advancement of our Sunday Schools have been discussed and acted upon.

Last fall Professor Colladay, who had done most effective work as Organizing Secretary for the year past, was compelled, on account of his removal from the Diocese, to resign. His loss was keenly felt and the work of the Commission has been somewhat hampered in consequence. And yet the good work which Professor Colladay inaugurated has gone quietly on, and we feel that there is a growing interest in the importance of religious education and a very strong desire to employ those modern methods which experience has proved valuable.

Meetings of the Local Branches have been effectual means for disseminating knowledge and studying problems.

Members of the Commission have addressed a number of these meetings and have met smaller groups of teachers for counsel. In one or two instances they have also given, at the invitation of Rectors, advice and help in the reorganizing of Sunday Schools.

One aim of the Commission during this year has been to bring the Officers of the various Local Branches and the Commission together. Arrangements have been made by which joint meetings will be held hereafter twice each year. This will enable the Commission to thoroughly understand the needs and problems of the several sections of the Diocese.

The third annual Sunday School Convention was held in St. John's Church, Waterbury, on November 27. After the celebration of the Holy Communion at which most helpful addresses were given by Clergymen from the Diocese of Newark, there was a Conference at which the Bishop presided. The general subject considered at this Conference was "The Recitation," and many stimulating thoughts were given to those present. There were also similar Conferences on Teacher Training, Class Work and Mission Study, as well as exhibits of books and helps of tested value. The attendance was very large. We believe the interest in Sunday School work was considerably advanced by this Conference.

Several Teacher Training Classes have been held by members of the Commission, with very good attendance. We mention especially those held in Hartford and New Haven.

A Committee on the nomination of an Organizing Secretary has been appointed and will shortly nominate a successor to Professor Colladay.

The Commission is of the opinion that the outlook for aggressive work with another Organizing Secretary, together with what has already been accomplished, fully justifies the request for the same Appropriation for another year. Therefore the following Resolution is presented:

Resolved, That the sum of Seven Hundred Dollars be and hereby is appropriated for the use of the Sunday School Commission during this coming year.

The Committee on Nominations to fill Vacancies reported the nomination of Mr. Gordon Russell for Trustee of St. Margaret's School, to fill vacancy caused by the death of his father, the Rev. Francis T. Russell, D.D.; and he was by ballot unanimously elected.

On motion of the Rev. J. Chauncey Linsley, it was Resolved, That the following cablegram be sent to Mr. John W. Wood, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Missions, Delegate to World Missionary Conference, now assembled in Edinburgh, Scotland:

"Connecticut Diocesan Convention sends greetings and Godspeed to World Missionary Conference."

The Rev. F. W. Harriman, Secretary of the Connecticut Diocesan Convention, Windsor, Connecticut.

Dear Sir:—The message of greeting addressed to the World Missionary Conference in Edinburgh by the Connecticut Diocesan Convention was brought before the World Missionary Conference during its recent meetings. THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

My Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

On the twenty-third day of October last there passed away the Right Reverend Doctor William Hobart Hare. Son of a distinguished professor in the Philadelphia Divinity School and grandson of the great Bishop Hobart, he himself had served in the ministry for half a century, in parochial work, as Secretary of the Missionary Society, corresponding to the present Board of Missions, and, since 1873, as Bishop of South Dakota, then known as the District of Niobrara. At the large task committed to him he wrought with a rare patience and with consummate statesmanship. He accomplished among the Sioux a work that was unique and won national recognition as an authority on Indian affairs. His eloquence and the attractive grace of his personality endeared him to all in the Church. A man of exquisite refinement and courtliness, he endured hardness, underwent experiences of toil and privation that were apostolic, and bore acute suffering in a Christlike spirit.

From the Church of England there has been taken the revered Bishop of Lincoln, the Right Reverend Doctor Edward King. He was the defendant in the famous Lincoln case of a score of years ago, when there were pressed against him charges touching ceremonial that now seem pitifully trivial. At the recent Lambeth Conference his presence was like a benediction. As one regarded his figure bowed low with the weight of years, his furrowed forehead and his face radiant with that true light, it was difficult to realize that against such a spirit could have been shot the venomed shafts of party prejudice and strife. He, without any bitterness, with charity toward all, has gone on his quiet way of godliness; and the memory of him will be cherished as one of the saintliest souls of these later days.

In the death of the Rev. Dr. William Reed Huntington we have lost our foremost Presbyter. In our church councils he was not only a debater of unrivalled keenness but a statesman.

introduced the resolution reviving the Order of Deaconesses and the resolution looking to the enrichment, and increased flexibility of use, of the Book of Common Prayer. He was the author of what is known as the Quadrilateral and of the term itself. He was for more than forty years the apostle of Christian Unity and of an American Catholicity. It may well interest us here to note that one of the last things he did was to take part in the preliminary conference held in this Diocese a year ago with certain representative Congregationalists. A leader of men, orator, poet and seer of visions, his was a persistence and a constructive potency that fashioned and wrought toward the realization of his visions.

Within a few weeks after the last Convention two of the younger Clergy of the Diocese were taken away. The Rev. Herbert Lincoln Mitchell had served at Middle Haddam, at Mystic, at Noank, at Mystic a second time, and at Saybrook. He had lately entered upon the rectorship of St. Peter's, Plymouth. On August 3d he was drowned in the attempt to save the life of his young organist. His energy and zeal had been manifested in his beginning services in more than one place where now the Church has permanent Missions and consecrated buildings. Attractive in personality, he had won the affection of all who knew him. The self-devotion that had characterized his ministry was crowned by his heroism in giving his life for another.

The Rev. Henry Claude Abbott, who had for fifteen years been a Baptist minister, came from Colorado to the Berkeley Divinity School, was ordered Deacon last June and entered upon work at Windsor Locks, Suffield and Broad Brook. A ministry of promise was closed by his death on August 28th.

Three of our older Clergy have died. The Rev. Jesse Elliott Heald, who was laid to rest on St. Andrew's Day, was ordained by Bishop Williams in 1860. He labored, in this Diocese, at Newtown, Pine Meadow, and Saybrook, where the handsome stone Church was built during his rectorship, and at Tariffville had the unusual experience of being Rector during two widely separated periods of his ministry. High-minded, of single-hearted simplicity, diligent in work and in study of the Word, painstaking and efficient in public and private instructions, solicitous and faithful in pastoral care, devoutly reverent in the sanctuary, thoughtful, earnest and impressive in the pulpit, he left a record which might be summed up in the Apostle's words, "a good minister of Christ Jesus."

On February the fifteenth there fell asleep, after a ministry of fifty-five years, the Rev. Francis Thayer Russell, D.D. As Rector of St. Margaret's School for thirty-five years, as Professor or instructor in elocution and oratory in Trinity College, St. Stephen's College, the General Theological Seminary and the Berkeley Divinity School, he had come near to many young men and women. His voice, his grace of manner, his culture, his kindly courtesy, his dignity of character, his devout and reverent spirit impressed all who knew him, and he had their affectionate esteem and veneration.

William Graham Sumner, LL.D., was ordained, in this Church where we are assembled, in 1867, and has been canonically connected with this Diocese since 1873. He was always careful to make his annual report, but it was to the effect that he had been occupied with his duties in Yale University. It is there that for more than a generation he has been doing work that is noteworthy. He was not only the earliest teacher of sociology in this country, he was a great teacher in mastery of his subject and power to stimulate thought. Distrustful of sentiment, single-minded, following the light of reason, he sought the truth of things as they are and summoned from dreams back to reality. Those who might differ from him must acknowledge that his influence was for many minds a potent tonic and wholesome in the body politic.

Of the faithful laity there have died during the year Mr. Jehiel Hale Simonds, for forty years Vestryman and Warden of St. John's, Warehouse Point, and a conspicuous example of loyalty and liberality; Mr. Joseph Sexton Palmer, a like-minded Vestryman of the same Parish; Lewis Sloat Paddock, M.D., Warden and Vestryman of Christ Church, Norwich; Mr. James Howard Wells, who had been a Vestryman of Christ Church, Norwich; Mr. Charles Preston, a Vestryman of the same Parish; Mr. Samuel B. Belden, of St. Paul's, Norwalk; Mr. Charles H. Moss, President of the Lay Committee of St. Ann's Mission, Black Hall; Mr. Walter S. Munro, Clerk of Grace Church, Norwalk; Mr. Frederick Botsford, for many years a Vestryman, and later Junior Warden, of St. Thomas's, New Haven, of which Parish he was the oldest legal member; Dr. J. P. C. Foster, of the same Parish, who had rendered valuable services to the State; Mr. Robert W. Hill, who had served as Vestryman of St. John's, Waterbury; Mr. Henry J. Church, for thirty years Clerk of St. John's Parish, Washington; Mr. Frederick W. Beard, Senior Warden of St. Paul's, Huntington; Mr. Lewis Chandler, sexton of St. Paul's, New Haven, since 1860; Mr. Richard F. Lyon, of Trinity Church, New Haven; Mr. George Pratt, for many years Warden of St. Luke's, South Glastonbury; Mr. Lewis A. Curtis, long time Warden of Trinity Church, Southport; Mr. Henry J. Smith of Immanuel Church, Ansonia; Mr. George Ransom Warner, devoted to the welfare of St. Andrew's, North Bloomfield, of which his father had been Rector; Dr. Sidney Bishop, Vestryman of Trinity Church, Bridgeport; Mr. John S. Cheney, Senior Warden of St. Mary's, South Manchester; Mr. Amasa D. Kellogg, Junior Warden of Christ Church, Middle Haddam; Judge Hiram Willey, a devoted Churchman, Clerk and Treasurer of Grace Chapel, Hadlyme, and oldest Lay Reader in the Diocese; and, amid the glorious hopes of Eastertide, there passed, in all the promise of his youth, Mr. Philip James Flanders, of Trinity College, a faithful and beloved Lay Reader at St. John's, East Hampton.

These and other departed servants of God we shall presently remember at His altar.

You will, I trust, suffer me to express my conviction that we ought to make more of our Diocesan Convention and take more time for it. In my opinion it is not well that this Convention should have so largely ceased to be a deliberative body, nor altogether seemly that its President should be expected to run it after the fashion of a railway engineer making up time. Not only is our present procedure derogatory to the dignity of the Diocese, but moreover we are thereby failing to gain not a little that might otherwise accrue from these annual gatherings. In the first place we are failing to employ a valuable opportunity for genuine realization of the unit of Church life, which is the Diocese. There are many among us whom we are failing to interest as we might in the Convention and to assimilate and incorporate into our collective life. Newcomers sit here bewildered by a rapid whirl. Some who are not strangers to our ways go home, I venture to say, with an impression of rush, routine, and ring-rule.

Such an impression, however exaggerated and unjust, is not unnatural under our present methods. Certainly we are sacrificing what might avail much against the parochialism that afflicts us, and our Diocesan life is so much the poorer. There may well be question whether we are not missing opportunities which might prove precious spiritually. Let me confess that I myself should like to see restored the Convention sermon. If the majority do not agree with me, still there might be a Conference or a Quiet Hour of meditation which should tend to lift into a purer and diviner air all the business of these sessions and to deepen the spiritual life of the Diocese. For such purposes it is not an easy matter to get together, where we have no one common center. Why is it not well to make the most of it when we are together?

Again, we are missing the practical benefit that might result from a real discussion of special problems that confront us. Something more than mere routine business might well engage our attention. For example, there are the matters which come within the view of our Commission on Social Service and Research. Here there is so much that wants doing regarding which we have need of information and mutual counsel. There are the pressing problems presented in the influx of foreign-born folk, whom we ought not to proselyte from their own faith, but whom, if straying as sheep without a shepherd, we ought to care for. Not only are there the problems of town life: this Diocese has a peculiar responsibility for its many rural communities. Far out on the hill-sides are native Americans in isolation and danger of degeneration, and many from over seas, strangers in a strange land. They need not only the gospel. It is a State and national problem how to divert the tide that has been setting toward the cities, in other words how to make country life more attractive and livable. In the socialization, the uplift and broadening, of rural life the Church has a particular, indeed I venture to think the chief, part to perform. We have among ourselves, and ought to have more, men who have made a study of these things, and who might from their observation and experience help the rest of us. Then there are the multitudes of boys and young men who might be won to better things, and there is the need that work among them be organized and correlated as is the work of the Girls' Friendly Society. There are the ever-present responsibilities of Diocesan and General Missions. In all these things there would be much deeper and wider interest, if there were more information.

With these and other things that may well claim consideration while we are gathered in Convention, I would make an earnest appeal to the lay delegates whether it is not really worth while, having come together, to remain a little longer; and I would suggest the appointment of a Committee who might consider anew the possibilities of the Convention and a programme for their more adequate realization.

Regarding this evening I have myself taken some responsibility. The Laymen's Missionary Movement has made this a signal year. Our larger cities have felt the stir. It is my desire that no part of the Diocese should be unvisited by the rising tide of missionary interest, for I believe it ushers in verily a time of refreshing and renewal of life. Therefore I have arranged for this evening in this Church a Missionary Meeting to last not much over an hour, with speakers who will be worth hearing. I hope you all will come. Particularly, those of you who are not interested in Missions and those who do not believe in Foreign Missions I urge to come here for an hour to-night.

It is, I hope, needless for me to say anything regarding my earnest desire and purpose that the Diocesan Apportionment for Missions shall this year be raised. In all parts of the Diocese there has been encouraging response to my appeal, often at cost of effort and sacrifice, some Parishes and Missions exceeding their Apportionment. We are within sight of the goal. If we fail, it will be through the refusal of a few to do their part. But we must not fail. I call on the Parish Clergy to lead, I call on the people in each congregation personally to lend a hand, in order that by a concerted effort we may swing the Diocese into line with the rest of New England and win the blessing of loyal coöperation in the Church's chief work.

Let me ask that by act of the Convention there be entrusted to the Committee for next year not merely the duty of apportioning to the several Parishes and Missions their share of the amount but moreover, as in Massachusetts, the duty of seeing that the amount is raised.

The Committee on Better Support for the Clergy has been endeavoring to raise for that purpose a fund for the next five years, sufficient to augment the stipends of those of the Clergy who are least adequately paid. The Committee will be ready to begin such augmentation as soon as we can get a little more for the above fund. It has been my confident hope that this object which I have had so much at heart might appeal to the sympathy of people generally throughout the Diocese and to their sense of simple justice.

I have been glad to visit certain of the Hospitals, Prisons and Reformatory Institutions within the State. Some of them have the regular ministrations of our Clergy; all should have, so far as the opportunity is open. This matter I commend to the attention of the several Archdeaconries.

Saint Margaret's School for Girls in Waterbury has just completed a successful year under its new Principal. Both the boarding and day departments are in a prosperous condition. The School has a long and honorable history in the Diocese and is worthy of careful consideration on the part of those to whom its high educational standards appeal.

DIOCESAN EFFICIENCY

At the Diocesan Convention of 1865, in this city, Bishop Williams, who had that year become Bishop of the Diocese, said in his address: "It seems to me that we ought to be looking forward now to the erection of a new See within the limits of this present Diocese. . . . I do not say that we ought to take it up to-day, it may be not even next year. But I do trust that we may keep it in our minds as a thing to be harmoniously and considerately accomplished at no very distant day it is because I see work growing up before me which I shall be unable to do, and yet for which I fear I am accountable: it is because of souls that will be perishing, that I ask you to think of this." Bishop Williams had then been working as a Bishop here for thirteen years. Forty-five years later, his successor, nearing the completion of thirteen years in the Episcopate, feels constrained to express his conviction that the work of this Diocese is such as to forbid the doing of it as he thinks it ought to be done. The Committee appointed in 1865, in their report the following year, said: "We think it wise to present the important subject of a division of the Diocese to the consideration of Clergy and Laity as a matter which may happen at no distant day." A year later the same Committee presented a final report to the effect that the time for decisive action on this subject had not arrived.

Now that after all these intervening years the subject is again before you, it is due both to you and to myself that some things should be said. First, regarding my own attitude and motives, I may sincerely use the language Bishop Williams used forty-five years ago: "Nor yet do I speak of it because I wish to lessen my own labors or to give myself ease and leisure." As I have myself said before, "My thought is not that I may do less work but that I may be free to do better work." Nor, brethren, have I any desire unduly to push the matter upon you or upon the Diocese. Certain considerations, however, I am conscientiously constrained to present to you.

Of the objections urged, and of the suggestions made, some have proceeded upon what I consider to be an inadequate conception of the duties of the Bishop's office. Reference is made to the tendency to-day, in the business world, to combination. It has been suggested to me: "Have enough clerks and you could be Bishop of all New England." Let me, however, submit to you my own conviction that the comparison of the office of Bishop to the headship of a business corporation fails. The work of a Bishop includes business. But it is not primarily bureaucratic. Rather is it something essentially different. It is pastoral and personal.

There is, it is true, a good deal of office work. That office-work, however, although involving much detail, is not chiefly of a merely business nature. It touches matters that cannot be so easily disposed of, because they are very personal matters: for example, frequent questions relating to marriage and divorce, involving the happiness and honor of lives, each case having features peculiar to itself; questions not seldom arising from parochial disputes usually over some matter of alleged principle and referred to the Bishop for official decision; again, questions regarding the character and qualifications of men seeking the ministry; or questions of extreme delicacy touching the characters of Clergymen and their fitness for this or that kind of work or particular position. These are not questions which can be attended to by clerks or settled even by the most competent private secretary or chaplain. The Bishop's duties are, let me repeat, primarily pastoral and personal.

That the need is not so much for more clerks as more bishops may perhaps be evident as we turn to the duty of visiting ıshes and Missions. The past year I have made as extended 'isitation of the Diocese as possible. While I have been ıged to decline some requests, I have visited one hundred and ty-one Parishes, Missions and Chapels, several of them more ıan once. In the year Bishop Williams presented the subject of ıvision the number of visitations was eighty-six. After the one ıundred and fifty-one visitations of this year there remain over sixty places which have not been visited for more than a year, and, in some cases, I am sorry to say, for a much longer period.

I am constrained to express doubt whether I could again make, indeed whether in justice to other duties I ought again to make, so many visitations as have been made this year. Time forbids my referring to other duties arising from the relations of the Bishop as Pastor Pastorum and as chief Pastor of the people.

The strong sentiment against division I do not fail to appreciate and to regard with a large measure of sympathy. None the less confident, however, am I that the day will come when sentiment shall not be suffered to outweigh essential principles involved in the Church's mission, and when more weighty than any Diocesan prestige shall be the consideration of Diocesan efficiency. In that day there will be the difficulty of drawing a line of division, and the difficulty of the financial question. But these difficulties will not, I believe, prove insurmountable. There will never come a day when to divide the Diocese will not involve a sad sundering of ties. Yet our Diocesan unity, it ought to be acknowledged, is, under present conditions, quite inadequately realized.

Where there is not a complete realization of Diocesan unity there may still be the possibility of an evil tendency which I m call Diocesanism. The great Bishop Westcott wrote w sympathy regarding a conviction entertained by Archbis Benson: "He constantly lamented the increasing pressur local work on the time and thoughts of Bishops. They becoming, he thought, ministers of a diocese and not Church." Diocesanism he greatly deplored.

There is, it will be observed, no request on my par Coadjutor. It does not seem to me a course of practical that the Diocese should at this time proceed to elect Bishop. The result of such procedure might be the ele Coadjutor who, before his succession to the duties of might become incapacitated for duty. This very thing has happened more than once.

It is only proper to say that, under present conditions, I shall be constrained to devise a different plan of making visitations. It will be a necessity to follow somewhat the custom of Bishops in England and group, where possible, several places for an annual visitation. This on a very limited scale I have already done. The plan will have to be now applied somewhat generally, for example, in the larger cities and in places like Norwalk, Westport, Middletown, Norwich. In this plan the difficulty is that, while I should want to alternate from year to year, the larger congregations cannot be accommodated in the smaller churches. Thus the smaller Parishes and Missions will many of them miss whatever benefit there may be in the Episcopal visitation. Then there are the greater number of rural Parishes and Missions, at least as many as ninety of them, that cannot be at all conveniently included in this plan. Those places may be visited in alternate years, although it is to be remembered that the isolated congregation sometimes needs the Bishop most. A trial of this general plan will probably be next year made, and I hope therein I may count upon the kind consideration of the Clergy and people of the Diocese.

In this whole question it has been my endeavor to be reasonable and to be fair toward those who look at the matter not as I do. It will, I trust, be understood that I do not appeal to any considerations personal to myself. The subject is of an importance transcending all personal considerations. You will, I am confident, consider the subject conscientiously and looking to the Holy Spirit to give you a right judgment. Whatever shall be your decision, I shall cheerfully acquiesce therein, and shall go on and do my best, counting it a privilege to be allowed to labor at the work of the Lord as long as it shall be His will, and trusting Him graciously to pardon all shortcomings, imperfections and failures.

FAITH AND AUTHORITY

For us all it is a privilege to do work and bear witness on behalf of Christ and His Church. Brethren of the Clergy, ordained for the proclamation and set for the defence of the Gospel: brethren of the Laity, by the laying on of hands in Confirmation commissioned to a vocation and ministry according to the divine principle, "to every one his work:" it is indeed for loyal souls a stirring time. There is much to encourage. What mean the signal movements of our age, such as the awakening to social service, or, again, the Laymen's Missionary Movement; what do they mean if not this: the moving away from a too exclusive attention to personal salvation which might be a refined and eternal selfishness, and a progress on and up to an enthusiasm of earnest service which, so far forth as it is unselfish, is more apostolic and Christlike?

There is not only this encouragement. There is, moreover, not a little to arouse and stimulate to a renewed and, if I may so say, a more aggressive earnestness. It is a time earnestly to contend for the faith once for all delivered. These are times, undoubtedly, such as try men's souls. It is an age of unrest, of transition, of sifting and testing. But the Spirit of the Lord broods over the chaos, and out of it all shall emerge something that is sure and that is well worth the waiting and watching and working. It is well that there should be the shaking, if there shall remain standing, firm forever, the things that cannot be shaken, that last, that are true with God's eternal truth.

Amidst the seething ferment of our time may be discerned certain chief needs. One such need is a larger fellowship, a restoration of that fellowship of Spirit which was once quite other than unanimity, and so much more than any unity of feeling, as it was the communion, the joint participation, in the gifts of the one Spirit within the one body of the Church. The modern world, in the face both of social problems and of the trials of religious faith, suffers from a signal lack; and that is the loss of a prevalent practical belief in the Ecclesia, the Republic of God, the commonwealth of man, the one Catholic Church of Jesus Christ. Well may we thankfully welcome any and every manifestation of yearning after this larger fellowship.

A second need of to-day is a simple faith, in the facts and Persons of the revelation, that may be distinguished from varying opinions, speculations and explanations regarding those Persons and facts. Thankful may we be for the old Catholic Creeds, the articles whereof are statements, not explanations. Indeed, historically, those articles were bulwarks against explanations that threatened to explain away one and another essential of Christian faith. Surviving the controversies of past ages, they stand as the most ancient granite rocks have survived the commotions and catastrophies of primeval time. Like those perpetual hills, so, viewed from different directions, and albeit compassed ever and again with clouds of mystery, yet rising above shifting theories and varying interpretations of fallible men, stand from age to age these landmarks of the faith which was once for all delivered.

A third need is a more just conception of authority in religion, of authority as not opposed to right reason but rather complementing, correcting, confirming and completing the judgment of the individual man. In the mist and fog of uncertainty and doubt it is not enough that one's intellect should go sounding on, a dim and perilous way. There is need of the chart, product of the foregoing and general experience of men guided by the Spirit of truth. It is a narrow individualism that prefers to voyage alone, ignoring the multitude of fellow travelers, and affects to despise the large universality of Catholic consent through the ages, the common consciousness, the corporate testimony, of the great company of all faithful people. For the security of true religion to-day the merely individualistic standpoint will be found not to suffice. There is need of that genuine authority which shall not be inconsistent with, shall rather safeguard, the freedom for which Christ hath made us free; the authority which, while conceding to freedom the things which belong to freedom of opinion, maintains for faith the things which belong to faith.

The age needs, over against varieties of opinions and vagaries, to set the one historic faith; over against sect-names, the one Baptism; over against the spirit of division, the one Spirit; over against the individual Christian by himself alone, the one Body, a fact in God's eternal counsel and an ideal in Christ's purposes to be ever more fully realized, the Church which is His Body, the fullness of Him that filleth all in all, the pillar and ground of the truth, the Church which in loyalty to its divine Head is bound to be at once Catholic and free.

To these facts and ideals we are pledged to bear our witness so far as in us lies. As Christian men shall more and more realize and enter into these things, this freedom of genuine authority, this fellowship of Spirit in one Body, this simple historic faith; more and more shall other men be brought to own the sway of Christ as living Lord of life and His Spirit rule their hearts and minds. May that Spirit of wisdom, life and power be with us here in all we think and do!

the course of these visitations and at other times I have .ted on two hundred and twenty-six occasions, delivered hundred and thirteen sermons and addresses, celebrated the Communion forty-six times, baptized two persons, officiated o marriages and at two funerals, and have confirmed two and and twenty-six persons. There were also confirmed by the Bishop of Massachusetts three persons; by the Bishop of Colorado one person, and by the Bishop Coadjutor of Virginia sixteen persons; making a total of two thousand and forty-six confirmed.

Four persons have been ordained to the Diaconate, viz.:

In the Church of the Holy Trinity, Middletown, June 8, 1910, I ordained Roland Jessup Mulford, Ph.D.,
Arthur Gerald Cunningham, B.A.,
Willis Bixler Hawk, Ph.B., and Arthur Hurlburt Kinney, B.A.

Three Deacons have been advanced to the Priesthood, viz.:

In St. James's Church, Glastonbury, November 29, 1909, Rev. Edward Gardner Reynolds.
In Christ Church, Ansonia, June 2, 1910,
Rev. George Henry Hefflon, B.D., and David Bowen.

Sixteen Clergymen presented Letters Dimissory and were received into the Diocese on the dates indicated, viz.:

Rev. William Porkess, Rector's Assistant in St. Paul's, New Haven, October 8, 1909; and

Charles Lewis Gomph, Rector of Trinity Church, Bridgeport, November 10, 1909; from the Diocese of New York;

Isaac Peck, Rector of Trinity Church, Brooklyn, October 5, 1909; and

The provisions of the preceding sections of this Canon shall not be held to interfere with the rights and privileges of any corporation holding a special charter from the General Assembly of the State. But, for the sake of uniformity, it is recommended that all such corporations, and all trustees holding funds under wills for Church purposes, shall comply with this Canon so far as their charters or the conditions of their trusteeships will permit.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the Church Wardens of each Parish to report to the Bishop, in connection with the report required by Canon II., Section 4, whether and in what way the provisions of the first three sections of this Canon have been complied with.

CANON IV.—Of the Trial of a Clergyman

SEC. 1. When a Clergyman is to be presented for trial for any offense specified in Canon 23 of the General Convention, the charge shall be made in the first place to the Standing Committee, in writing, under the proper signature of at least two Communicants of this Diocese, one of whom shall be a Presbyter. If the Standing Committee shall deem the offence charged as coming within the offences enumerated in the Canons of the Diocese of Connecticut, or of the General Convention, they shall present the charge to the Bishop in the following form:

To A. B., Bishop of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Standing Committee of this Diocese respectfully represent that C. D. has been accused under the hands of E. F. and G. H. of [here recite the charge or charges], and the Committee are of opinion that there is sufficient ground for presenting the said C. D. for trial, agreeably to the Canons in such cases made and provided.

[Signed by the Standing Committee.]

SEC. 2. Upon the receipt of the foregoing presentment, the Bishop shall summon nine Presbyters to meet, not within ninety days, at some place within the County where the accused shall reside or officiate for the time being; not less than five of whom shall constitute a Court for the trial of the charge or charges; and the accused may object to any two of such members, at his discretion, and to any for cause or favor, the sufficiency of which objection for cause or favor shall be determined by the other persons so summoned; or if by reason of such objections the number shall be reduced below five, the Bishop shall designate Presbyters to supply such vacancies. The Standing Committee shall have the same right to object, provided they exercise the right alternately with the accused, he being allowed the first privilege. All of such Presbyters not objected to or found disqualified shall sit as a Court.

SEC. 3. The Bishop shall forthwith furnish to the Standing Committee and to the accused a list of the Presbyters summoned to constitute the Court, accompanied with a notice of the time and place of the meeting of the Court. And the accused, at least thirty days before the trial, shall furnish the Standing Committee with a statement of the ground of his defence on each specification.

SEC. 4. At the time fixed for the trial the members of the Court shall assemble and choose a President from their own number, and a Secretary, either from their own number or otherwise, as they shall see fit; and they shall, before they proceed, adopt and declare the rules by which the trial shall be conducted. A member of the legal profession, who is a Communicant of this Church and a resident in this Diocese, shall be selected by the Court as Assessor, who shall sit with and advise the Court upon all legal questions that may arise, whether in regard to the admission of evidence or other points, but shall not be entitled to vote upon charges contained in the presentment.

SEC. 5. If the accused shall appear, the Court shall proceed to the trial on the presentment, and shall adjudge him guilty, or not guilty, according to the evidence; and if he be found guilty, the Court shall declare to the Bishop to what ecclesiastical censure he ought, in their judgment, to be subjected. But if he shall neglect or refuse to appear, or to answer in person, according to the notice served on him as aforesaid, except for some reasonable cause to be allowed by the Court, they shall proceed to pronounce him in contumacy, and thereupon the Bishop shall suspend him from the functions of the Ministry. And if he shall not appear within six months, the Bishop shall proceed to depose him from the Ministry of this Church.

SEC. 6. The Secretary shall keep a record of all the proceedings, which shall contain a copy of the presentment, of the specifications, of the notice to the accused, and of his answer, with a statement of all the evidence, both oral and written, and the final judgment of the Court; and an attested copy of this record shall be forthwith delivered to the Bishop. If the judgment be not guilty, the Bishop shall give a certificate of acquittal to the accused, embracing a copy of the presentment and specifications; and the accused shall not be subjected to a second trial on the same charges. If the Court judge him guilty, on one or more points at issue, the Bishop may disapprove the judgment and order a new trial, stating his grounds for such a decision; or he may approve the judgment; and in that case he shall, within thirty days, proceed to such ecclesiastical censure as the case may, in his judgment, require, whether it be admonition, suspension, or deposition from the Ministry; provided the penalty be not greater than that expressed in the judgment of the Court.

SEC. 7. Every summons, notice, or citation mentioned in these proceedings shall be deemed to be duly served, by the delivery of a written notice or paper to the person to be summoned, notified, cited, or by leaving it, or a certified copy of it, at his residence, or last known resi-

APPENDIX B.

Report of the Registrar

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut, to be holden on the second Tuesday of June, 1910:

The Registrar of the Diocese begs leave to present his report.

There have been sent me during the past year many of the current Journals of Dioceses and Districts; the Bishop and the Secretary have also deposited in the archives certain Journals which had been sent them; only one Journal for the past year is now lacking. I have also received the Year-book for 1909 of the Diocesan Church Club, and the Year-books of Christ Church, Greenwich, and St. Mary's Church, South Manchester, and the Minutes of the General Association and General Conference of Connecticut.

Besides the current numbers of Christ Church Chronicle, New Haven, of which we already had the first twelve volumes bound, there have been sent volumes 12 to 19 inclusive, lacking six numbers.

I have also received—

From the library of the late Dr. Gurdon W. Russell, of Hartford: a collection of pamphlets.

From Mrs. A. J. Muzzey, of Bristol: a copy of records of Baptisms and of Vestry Meetings in New Cambridge, two old Connecticut Journals, eight old printed sermons, and other publications.

From the Rev. S. Wolcott Linsley: Volumes 1 and 2 of the Sunday Visitant of Charleston, S. C., edited by the Rev. Andrew Fowler, volumes

3 and 4 of the Episcopal Watchman (nearly complete), and volumes 1, 2, 3, and 4 of the Chronicle of the Church (nearly complete).

From Mr. Frank F. Starr, of Middletown: The Parish News of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Middletown, 1878-1882 (not complete), the Living Church Annual 1903-07, and other publications.

The volumes of The Churchman for 1874, 1908 (two), and 1909 to June, have been bound, as also twenty volumes of recent numbers of Journals of Diocesan Conventions.

I have withdrawn from the custody of the Connecticut Historical Society two volumes of records of St. John's Church, North Haven, and have placed them with other historical documents in the vault of the Library of the Berkeley Divinity School.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

SAMUEL HART, Registrar.

BERKELEY DIVINITY SCHOOL, June 13, 1910.

APPENDIX D.

Missionary Society

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

To the Convention:

Pursuant to Article V. of the Constitution, the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society makes its annual report of Appropriations and other proceedings for the year 1909-10, as follows:

Appropriations and Apportionments

The last Convention (see Journal 1909, page 61) appropriated a sum not exceeding $11,500 for carrying on the missionary work of the Diocese during the then ensuing year, in addition to the proceeds from the funds of the Society and other sources available for the purpose. It was ordered that said sum be apportioned among the several Archdeaconries on the basis of "Current Expenses (including Salaries)," as reported in the last Journal; and that said sum be appropriated among the several Archdeaconries, as the Directors of the Society might deem best.

The net proceeds from the funds held by the Society were estimated at about $3,000, thus making, with the $11,500 to be raised, the sum of $14,500 for missionary work.

At the beginning of the year Appropriations for this work were made as follows:

To Fairfield Archdeaconry,	$1,950.00
Litchfield "	1,550.00
New Haven "	1,350.00
Hartford "	3,000.00
Middlesex "	2,900.00
New London " (including the income of the Tracy-Eaton Fund),	3,750.00
	$14,500.00

To meet these Appropriations said sum of $11,500 was apportioned among the several Archdeaconries, as follows:

To Fairfield Archdeaconry,	$3,309.00
Litchfield "	1,077.00
New Haven "	3,531.00
Hartford "	2,033.00
Middlesex "	661.00
New London "	889.00
	$11,500.00

Pursuant to the rule of the Board, made many years ago, only the difference between the Appropriation and the Apportionment in each Archdeaconry is in fact paid to, or paid by, the Treasurer, as the case may be. The sums so paid and received were as follows:

Paid to Litchfield Archdeaconry,	$ 431.33
Hartford "	945.90
Middlesex "	2,239.00
New London "	2,861.00	$6,477.23
Received from Fairfield Archdeaconry,	$1,410.53
" " New Haven Archdeaconry,	2,045.00	3,455.53
Difference,		$3,021.70

This difference has been met entirely from the Society's income, outside of its Apportionments, and it has not been necessary therefore to borrow for that purpose.

The Fairfield Archdeaconry has paid the balance due on last year of $773.10, and on account of the current year $637.43, which is a total payment during the year of $130.74 more than during the previous year.

The New Haven Archdeaconry has paid the balance due on last year of $814, and on account of the current year $1,231, which is a total payment during the year of $45 more than during the previous year.

There is a balance due from Fairfield Archdeaconry on account of the year 1909-10 of $721.57, which is over $50 less than the balance due a year ago; and from the New Haven Archdeaconry there is a balance due of $950, or an increase of $136 over last year.

Of the one hundred and seventy-nine Parishes and Missions in the Diocese, among which the sum of $11,500 was apportioned, one hundred and fifty-five paid in full their Apportionment, or more, eighteen paid in part, and six paid nothing. This is a remarkably good showing, and compared with the corresponding situation ten years ago, and especially twenty years ago, shows a great improvement in the disposition to meet their Apportionments, and a greater ability to meet them.

Donations

The Board gratefully acknowledges the receipt of special offerings and contributions during the year, as follows:

St. John's Church, Hartford; Christ Church, Hartford; Pequot Chapel, New London; Galilee Chapel, Eastern Point, Groton; the Women's Church Missionary Association, of New Haven; the Silent Mission of Connecticut (Deaf Mutes); and the Church people at Rocky Hill.

Legacies

We have received during the year the legacy given to the Society under the will of Gurdon W. Russell, late of Hartford, of $3,000. This legacy comes without restriction. We have also received the legacy of $2,000 under the will of Helen A. Strickland, late of Hartford, deceased; the income of $500 of this legacy is to be paid to Trinity Church, Bristol, annually for twenty-five years, and the income of another $500 is to be paid to St. Thomas's Church, Hartford, annually for ten years; the income of the other $1,000 belongs to the Society. We have also received the legacy of $20,000 given under the will of Sebastian D. Lawrence, late of New London, deceased, "to the Protestant Episcopal Church of Connecticut, for establishing small Churches within the State and for the support of same, and to aid those in need of aid in small towns, New London County in particular."

The legacy under the will of Gurdon W. Russell, and the legacy under the will of Sebastian D. Lawrence, came to us less the amount of the succession tax in each case. The Strickland legacy was paid to us in full.

The total amount of the invested funds of the Society at the present time is about $90,000. This of course does not include any of the real estate enumerated under that head in the inventory of assets, which accompanies the Treasurer's Report, which real estate consists of twenty-five different pieces, located in as many different places. In almost every case there is a building for church purposes upon the land.

Real Estate

Three pieces of real estate have been sold during the year.

About 1877 the Society purchased a small lot of land at Riverton, in the town of Barkhamsted, with the intention of erecting a Chapel thereon. The land, however, was never used for this purpose, and during the last year was sold. The proceeds, $75, are now in the treasury.

The land in Glenville, on which Emmanuel Chapel stood has also been sold with the understanding that the Chapel was to be torn down and removed. This Chapel has not been used for many years. The proceeds of this sale, $75, are also in the treasury.

The lot and old house at Southbury, to which reference was made in our last report, has also been acquired and sold during the year. The proceeds of this sale, $200, are also in the treasury.

The title to the land, with the Church thereon, in Southbury, referred to in our last report, has also been acquired under an act of the legislature, as outlined a year ago.

The land in Terryville, which has been reported for several years as an asset of the Society, has been exchanged during the year, at the request of the church people there, for a more desirable piece in the same locality, without cost to the Society.

In May, 1908, the Society voted to exchange the northerly ten feet of its lot at Forestville for ten feet on the southerly side of the same lot, which latter ten feet belonged to the Roman Catholic Church there. This transfer has been made during the year.

St. John's Chapel, East Hampton

This Chapel has been built and consecrated during the year. Of the money necessary to build it, about $1,670 came from the Advent Offerings of the Sunday Schools, in former years; $750 was given out of the Lawrence legacy, and the balance was raised among friends of the Mission. The work has been carried on under the energetic efforts of the Rev. Mr. Waterbury. The title to the property is in the Society.

Work Among the Deaf Mutes

A year ago the Board authorized the Rev. George H. Hefflon to begin work among the deaf mutes of the Diocese, and appropriated $500 for the year for that purpose. All but $23.50 of this amount has been contributed to the work by persons interested therein; the $23.50 was contributed by the Society.

In his annual report to the Bishop, which Mr. Hefflon has just made, he shows that he has held one hundred and one services, with considerable regularity, in the cities of Bridgeport, Hartford, New Haven and Waterbury; that he has made three hundred and eighty-four calls on the deaf not only in the above mentioned cities but also in New Britain, Norwich, Milford and elsewhere. The people themselves have contributed during the year $55.48, most of which was paid to the Missionary. The work will be continued another year.

Conclusion

For the names of the several Parishes and Missions contributing to the Society, with the amount of their contributions; and for the names of the Parishes and Missions receiving aid, with the amounts paid to them; as well as for a description in detail of the condition and progress of missionary work in the Diocese, we refer you to the reports from the Archdeacons and the Treasurers of the Archdeaconries.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board,

Burton Mansfield, Secretary.

All the :hools are in better condition than for years "both in numbers st shown." The indications are clear that no mistake has been upplementing the efforts of these small hill towns in Western ıt with our missionary aid, as New York people are buying land ng homes and helping the local Churches.

There are 44 Families services, 81 Communicants, and 53 Scholars in the Sunday That section of Norwalk is filling fast with a well-to-do set of d the Church is a mile and a quarter from the other Churches Its ministrations fill a district want.

:omfortable for this Archdeaconry to appear here with a deficit and to feel that the other Archdeaconries, or the credit of the Society, are annually making up the deficits in our offerings. y does not lessen our regret that four Parishes, three of them than average financial abilities, each year cause this deficiency. ıas not been within the power of the Archdeaconry to abate this its escutcheon.

Litchfield Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Litchfield respectfully reports that the same Parishes and Missions as were aided last year were also aided this year, viz:—Bethlehem, Bridgewater, Kent, Northfield, Plymouth, East Plymouth, Terryville, Riverton and Woodbury.

The arrangement between Christ Church, Bethlehem, and the Rector of Christ Church, Watertown, referred to in the last report, has proved a happy one. While no doubt a resident Rector in Bethlehem would be an advantage, the present arrangement is quite satisfactory until the right man is found.

Of St. Mark's, Bridgewater, what has been said for many years can still be said, that under the rectorship of the Rev. Gideon D. Pond the best of conditions prevail. During the year the debt remaining upon the new Rectory was paid. Repairs upon the church edifice, and improvements in the Rectory, costing in all about $625.00, were made and paid for except 100.00. This will be cleared away very soon.

Owing to failing health, the Rev. G. H. Smith felt obliged to resign the rectorship of St. Andrew's Parish, Kent, on Trinity Sunday, May 22, 1910. The resignation was accepted by the Parish with deep regret, and the Archdeaconry feels keenly the loss of one who "was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost."

A Parish which has shown renewal of strength perhaps more markedly than any other is the old Parish of Trinity, Northfield. A confirmation class of ten has added new life and strength and also testifies to the energy and vigor of the Rector, the Rev. A. P. Chapman. In connection with his parish work Mr. Chapman is doing a very useful work in providing, during the summer months, a fresh air outing for a large number of children from New Haven.

The whole Diocese was shocked by the tragic, yet heroic, death of the Rev. Herbert Lincoln Mitchell, on August 3, 1909. Although Mr. Mitchell had been Rector of St. Peter's, Plymouth, with charge of East Plymouth and Terryville, for less than a year, he had taken hold of the difficult work with a zeal and wisdom that held great promise. Immediately after his death the Parish took steps to secure another Rector, feeling that in their great bereavement their need of one to take up Mr. Mitchell's work was imperative. It was not, however, until March 1, 1910, that another Rector was secured. The Rev. Marcus J. Simpson took charge at that date, and has applied himself devotedly to his work. With the assistance of a Lay Reader, Mr. Burr S. Blakeslee, he is able to conduct Sunday services in the three places.

Riverton continues under the care of Rev. George M. Stanley, Rector of St. John's, Pine Meadow. The work is faithfully done, and the Mission at least holds its own.

St. Paul's, Woodbury, under the care of Rev. Alexander Hamilton, has had a prosperous year. Mr. Hamilton also conducts service on Sunday afternoons in the Church of the Epiphany, Southbury.

Services were conducted as usual in the Church of the Transfiguration, Norfolk, during the summer months, by a number of different Clergymen. All expenses, canonical assessments, and the Apportionment for Diocesan Missions were paid by the offerings; but the Archdeacon has not yet been able to convince the congregation of their duty toward the General Missions of the Church.

A point of great promise in the Archdeaconry is All Saints' Parish, Oakville. This has every prospect of becoming soon self-sustaining, but for a few years needs help. The Board is relieved, however, of the need of affording assistance, through the generosity of St. John's Church, Waterbury, and its Rector, Rev. John N. Lewis. With the assistance of a Deaconess, he is building up the work in Oakville in a manner that cannot fail to make the Parish independent in the near future.

Every Parish and Mission in the Archdeaconry has paid its Apportionment for Diocesan Missions in full. Also, at the request of the Bishop, the Archdeaconry has taken up the matter of General Missions more vigorously than before. While we cannot say that every Parish and Mission will pay its Apportionment in full, we have the assurance that the Archdeaconry as a whole will pay its full Apportionment, and from one to two hundred dollars more.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN F. PLUMB, Archdeacon.

New Haven Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of New Haven respectfully reports:

Eight Parishes and three Missions have been aided during the past year.

St. Andrew's Church, Northford, and Zion Church, North Branford, are under the pastoral care of the Rev. J. D. S. Pardee, who reports both Parishes to be simply holding their own. They are both strictly rural congregations, composed in most part of elderly people, as the younger generation seem to be attracted to the cities.

St. John's Church, North Guilford, is very weak in the number of its parishioners, and what the future of this Parish is to be only time can tell. The Rev. Mr. Buck, the present Rector, writes that he intends to retire from the rectorship about the first of October.

Christ Church, Bethany, is still in charge of the Rev. Dr. MacDougall, who reports the Parish to be in a good condition.

St. Peter's Church, Oxford, and Christ Church, Quaker Farms, are both in a splendid state under the efficient care of the Rev. Mr. Sutherland.

Christ Church, East Haven, is doing unusually well and the Rev. Mr. Alcott, Rector of Grace Church, New Haven, who is in charge, gives a good report for the past year. The Parish has made application for a smaller Appropriation for the coming year, and the hope is that by another year no further Appropriation will be necessary.

Grace Church, Hamden, is doing remarkably well. The Parish has a well equipped plant and the Church is in a fine condition. The Rev. Mr. Coley is still in charge.

Services were held as usual in Madison during July, August and a part of September, 1909, Mr. Clarence B. Riggs, a Lay-Reader, having charge. The attendance was not as large as in former years, owing to the experiment of holding the services in a private house at the shore. This year the Rev. Mr. Wells, Rector of Christ Church, Guilford, will have charge, and it is his intention to have the services in the Chapel of the Congregational Church as in former years.

The Church of the Epiphany, Southbury, which is now the property of the Missionary Society of the Diocese, was reopened for services last summer, as was also the Union Chapel in Southford. The Rev. Mr. Sutherland of Oxford was in charge and under him, Mr. George Barnes, a Lay-Reader, conducted the services. The attendance at first was very good but fell off considerably towards the end of the summer. This year the Rev. Mr. Hamilton of Woodbury will hold an afternoon service in the Church at Southbury, but no services will be held in Southford. The Rev. Mr. Sutherland will care for the few church people residing in the town.

The New York City Mission provides services each Sunday in the Chapel at Milford Haven. Services are held at Savin Rock under the direction of the Rector of Christ Church, West Haven.

The Archdeaconry asks for an Appropriation of $1,300.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE HICKMAN BUCK, Archdeacon of New Haven.

IV.

Hartford Archdeaconry

o the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

It gives me peculiar satisfaction to report progress all along the line. ıithful men are at their posts and are doing splendid service.

The working force has been immensely strengthened by the incoming of ree new men, the Rev. Herbert L. Stoddard to Southington, the Rev. avid C. Monroe, Ph.D., to Bristol and Forestville, the Rev. John W. ırras to Collinsville, and by the transfer of the Rev. Daniel D. Waugh om Collinsville to the "Triple Cure," Windsor Locks, Suffield and oad Brook. Mr. Stoddard took charge of St. Paul's, Southington, July 1. e fitted perfectly. The people rallied cheerfully and loyally to his pport. It has been a year of prosperity and peace. The congregations ıd Sunday School have enlarged. The Rectory has been repaired and ıinted. All bills, parochial, diocesan, and general, have been paid and o is to be added to the Rector's stipend the coming year.

Dr. Monroe, began at St. John's Forestville, December 1. The con-egations have nearly doubled. Five have been baptized and fourteen ınfirmed. The Mission is flourishing and the outlook is as promising as e could desire.

Mr. Burras came to Trinity, Collinsville, December 1, and brought unity ıd enlargement. His work prospered greatly but was interrupted by ıe prolonged illness and death of his daughter Lillian. There is no oubt that he is the man for the place.

Mr. Waugh entered upon his duties at Windsor Locks, December 1. he three Parishes had passed through years of deep discouragement, and ad lost heart. They had expected much from the advent of the Rev. lenry Claude Abbott in July. He was only 32, yet had had a successful ıinistry of 14 years in the Baptist Church. He entered our Church from eep conviction. He brought to his work an equipment that promised ıccess. Within a month he was stricken with mortal illness. His ntimely death in August called forth almost boundless sympathy and elp for his bereaved wife and children. It left the three Parishes dazed ıd hopeless. Mr. Waugh came with courage and confidence. To add to is difficulty he found it almost impossible to secure a house. The one e found was away beyond his means. From this he has been com-elled to move to an inconvenient place in Suffield. With the generous ıcking of the Archdeaconry he set himself the task of building a Rectory.

Rectory is a necessity. The present situation is intolerable. He needs least $4,000. If the Missionary Society will give him $2,000 he will be his Rectory before the snow flies. His field is desperately hard at ıe best. He is equal to the situation. With the help of Mr. Richard llen, a most devoted Lay-Reader, he has already awakened hope in the earts of the people. The crisis is here. We must meet it.

To St. Monica's Mission, Hartford, has come a unique opportunity. They are anxious to take advantage of it. A Baptist church edifice in good repair, that cost about $8,000, is offered them for $4,800. With some necessary changes it can be perfectly adapted to their needs. The changes will cost about $1,200. To meet this they have $1,330 and will raise among themselves $300 more. Here again is a most promising work, hindered for lack of equipment. The people are willing and loyal, the man at the head is capable and conservative; but they are trying to make bricks without straw. It is a vigorous plant pot-bound. If the Missionary Society will give them $2,000 and loan any needed balance without interest, the problem will be solved. A self-supporting Parish is in sight. The people are there to make a Parish. The man, the Rev. Alonzo Johnson, is there to make it. St. Monica's prospers, pays all its bills, Assessments and Missionary Apportionments under the present adverse conditions. It is easy to prophesy what they would do if they had a fighting chance.

The event of the year in St. James's, Glastonbury, was the ordination of their Rector, the Rev. Edward G. Reynolds. It brought new life to both Rector and people. The Parish is in a most flourishing condition. The Rector reports every bill paid of all sorts, 20 baptisms and 12 confirmations, and another $50 added to his stipend.

St. Andrew's Mission, Hartford, under the enthusiastic leadership of the Rev. John H. Jackson is an astonishing success. They pay their own way. They have perfected a parish organization and will apply to the Convention for admission to the Diocese.

The Rev. Jesse E. Heald of Tariffville, after about fifty years of faithful ministry, passed peacefully to a glorious reward at Thanksgiving time. The Archdeacon took charge of the Parish for a time. The conditions were not such as to warrant the settlement of a new Rector. A Lay-Reader, Mr. J. W. Woessner, a student in Trinity College, was put in charge. He has done admirable service. It is confidently expected that by next Easter a Rector may be called. In the meantime the work moves on. All financial obligations are met, The people surprised themselves by giving $10 more for General Missions than their Apportionment.

St. John's, Rockville, is celebrating the eleventh year of the Rev. J. Francis George's rectorship by installing a necessary pipe-organ. Mr. Andrew Carnegie generously helps the celebration by a gift of $500. Mr. George reports 500 calls, 12 baptisms and 10 confirmations. We still hope to see St. John's a self-supporting Parish.

The work of St. Luke's, South Glastonbury, was interrupted from Easter to Trinity Sunday by the serious illness of the Rector, the Rev. Francis W. Barnett. That has happily passed and all goes steadily on as usual. The Parish has met all its financial obligations and made up to the Rector the $25 he so courageously dropped from his Appropriation.

The Church of Our Saviour, Plainville, has had another year of prosperity. The Rev. Robert H. Burton reports 13 baptisms and 9 confirmations. A furnace has been put in the Parish House, and the church furnace overhauled. Electric lights have been installed in both buildings, and the Rectory has been repaired. All financial obligations have been met. Anticipating the ordination of Mr. Burton in the near future, the Parish has given him a unanimous call to the rectorship and added $25 to his stipend.

Christ Church, Unionville, under the efficient leadership of the Rev. Daniel E. Putnam, is making a successful fight against adverse conditions. Removals have seriously weakened their financial strength. Yet they have paid all their parochial and diocesan obligations, more than half of their General Missionary Apportionment, and have painted both Rectory and Church.

In proportion to their ability they give as much as any Parish in the Diocese. It is our wish to add $100 to their Appropriation, making the Rector's stipend $1,000.

Our beloved brother, the Rev. Jared Starr, continues his labor of love in Grace Church, Newington.

Dr. Hart has been just as helpful as ever.

The world Mission of the Church has been kept before the Archdeaconry all the year. A Conference on Our Missionary Apportionment has been a feature of each meeting.

To meet our Apportionment for Diocesan Missions we lack only seven dollars and I think that will be made up. We have exceeded our Apportionment for General Missions by over $1,100 and seventeen Churches are still working with zeal to complete their Apportionment. Most, if not all, of them will pay in full.

Respectfully submitted,

JACOB ALBERT BIDDLE, Archdeacon.

Middlesex Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Middlesex respectfully reports:

Our list of Missions has been increased by the transfer of St. Gabriel's, East Berlin, from Hartford Archdeaconry. Services have been continued there as has been the custom for the past few years by the use of a Lay-Reader; and the Holy Communion has been administered every month by Dr. Hart, who has also given much pastoral care. There is a commendable desire among several there to have the regular ministrations of a Priest in charge, and there is good prospect of meeting their wishes, provided sufficient help may be obtained from the Board, as there is a good available Clergyman near by. The Mission has been so weakened by the removal of the Bridge Co. that not much money can be raised among its members.

St. Luke's Mission, Chester, is going on about as usual, harmonious and loyal. Mr. E. J. Parks of New Haven succeeded Mr. McKibbin as Lay-Reader. There has been a Confirmation within the year.

St. Peter's Mission, Deep River, which was revived a little over a year ago, has kept up in interest with a good congregation at the one service each Sunday regularly maintained by a Lay-Reader. It will have to receive some assistance to continue. An interesting feature of this work is a group of colored people who regularly attend and bring their children to baptism. A class of seven has been confirmed.

Of the Church of the Holy Advent, Clinton, there is nothing new to note. The impetus which came with Mr. Tibbals, as Rector, continues and is quietly bearing good fruit.

St. Paul's, Westbrook, also in Mr. Tibbals's care, has been kept open through the winter by a service twice a month; but its work is chiefly that of a summer Chapel, in which capacity it reaches many people for three months in the year.

Epiphany Church, Durham, seems to have taken on new life according to recent reports, which are the best in years. Rev. Joseph Hooper is still Rector; as he is also of St. Paul's, Middlefield, where the prospects are discouraging. There is a nice little Church but few to attend it, with no present prospect of more. We are not spending much money there and may not spend any next year.

Grace Church, Hadlyme, has met with a severe loss in the death of Judge Willey, who has been not only its chief supporter but its Lay-Reader since it was started, persisting in his duties in all weather, up to the age of almost ninety. His remains were laid to rest in March by the Archdeacon, who took occasion to bear grateful testimony to his life and service as a consecrated Layman.

Emmanuel, Killingworth, and St. Andrew's Mission, Maromas, a Station recently opened in a neglected district a few miles south of Middletown, have been in charge of Rev. G. B. Gilbert. The work in both is of a pioneer character, the population to be reached being largely composed of foreigners, mostly Bohemians and Italians. Mr. Gilbert has been using the stereopticon with good effect, in illustrating talks on the Bible and the life of Christ. The first thing seemed to be to get the attention and hearing of the people, which we are succeeding in doing. I have received lists of those who attend and they are representative of the foreign peoples whom the Church in the whole Diocese is wondering how she can reach. It may be of interest to the Board to know that we have ventured upon the solution of the problem in a small way. At Maromas especially, where efforts had been put forth by the Congregationalists but abandoned, the outlook is encouraging. A class of nine was recently confirmed and several have been brought to Baptism.

Shailerville has also been put under Mr. Gilbert's care and he is working it along the same lines that he has been pursuing at Killingworth and Maromas. The services are held in a school house and the people seem eager to attend. A part of the plan is to distribute good literature among them.

Deaconess Tileston, who did faithful service in this Archdeaconry for one year, has taken up work under Bishop Vinton in Western Massachusetts. The Mission School which she started in Tylerville has been kept up by Mrs. Ellis Bishop and Miss Jackson of Middletown, and as a fruit of their labors a large class of both adults and children has been brought to Baptism.

It is gratifying to report that the health of Mr. Knowles, who is in charge of St. James's, Ponsett, is improved and he is again active in the same zealous way which has characterized his long and fruitful ministry.

All Saints', Ivoryton, is becoming a Mission to be proud of. The congregations and Sunday School have grown; every diocesan and missionary obligation has been met, and a vested choir is soon to be installed. If the community continues to grow, this will some day be a self-supporting Parish.

But the most pleasing thing we have to report is the realization of our long-deferred hope, in the erection of a suitable and indeed beautiful Chapel for St. John's Mission, East Hampton, which was consecrated by the Bishop on the 8th of May, when a class was also confirmed. It is unusually well fitted out for a new Chapel, and some of the memorials are fine enough for any Parish Church. The whole property, including site and gifts, represents a money value of $5,500, and is a memorial of the Rev. E. H. Fitzgerald, who died not long ago in China, and whose whole ministry in this country was at Christ Church, Middle Haddam, and this Mission at East Hampton. The fine-toned bell in the tower is in memory of Dr. F. D. Edgerton, for many years a devoted family physician in Middletown, who had among his patients during all that time the late Bishop of Connecticut. Much credit is due, and is here given, to Rev. Mr. Waterbury, the Minister in charge, by whose persistent efforts this result has been accomplished.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

O. H. RAFTERY, Archdeacon.

New London Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of New London respectfully reports:

The year just passed has been marked by an unusual number of changes in the personnel of the Clergy in charge of the Missions.

After several years of successful work at St. Philip's, Putnam, the Rev. John W. Walker resigned his charge, early in February, to take up work in St. Peter's Church, Philadelphia. Since that date the Mission at Putnam has been under the charge of "Supplies," and, despite the long interregnum, the interest and activity of the congregation have been maintained with commendable fidelity. Two notable events in connection with this Mission are worthy of mention here. The first is the acquisition of the Rectory by the Missionary Society. This was done in order to prevent the forced sale of the property at great pecuniary sacrifice, owing to conditions arising in connection with the mortgage. There can be no question of the wisdom and, indeed, necessity of this step at the time it was taken. Whether, however, it will be advisable for the Society to hold the property indefinitely is another question and a matter for the Board of Directors to decide. Should a satisfactory offer be made, it would probably be advisable to sell, as, under present conditions, the house is not available as a residence for the Missionary. The second notable event I referred to was a largely attended meeting of the Laymen of the Mission, held early in May, at which it was voted, with much enthusiasm, to create a Committee for the purpose of erecting the Mission into a Parish within a year. This is at least a marked evidence of the moral courage and determination of a people who have been for several months without a resident Clergyman, and I cannot but believe that the outlook at this Mission is very promising.

The Rev. Richard D. Hatch, after five years of earnest and satisfactory work, concluded his charge of St. Paul's, Willimantic, and St. Paul's, Windham, on the first Sunday in May, and his place has been filled in the combined Cure by the appointment of the Rev. J. H. Townsend. Mr. Townsend entered on his duties on the second Sunday in May, and is vigorously prosecuting all the departments of the work. During the year the Willimantic Mission lost by removal many of its prominent members and largest givers. Nevertheless, all its activities have been kept well up to the mark, and its financial condition has not materially suffered. Much needed repairs and improvements to both Church and Rectory have been made possible by special appropriations from the Board of Directors, and, with the sum of nineteen thousand dollars pledged towards a new church building, this important Mission faces the future courageously and hopefully.

The Rev. William H. Davis completed his work at St. Alban's, Danielson, on the last Sunday in May, having accepted a curacy in St. Mary's Church, Philadelphia. We have been fortunate in securing, as locum tenens at this Mission for four months, the Rev. David N. Gwilym, who entered upon his charge on the first Sunday in June. It is confidently expected that, with his unusual experience, Mr. Gwilym will infuse new life into the Mission and leave it in excellent condition for his successor.

With these exceptions, the various Parishes and Missions have been manned by the same staff as last year. St. Mark's, Mystic, reports a year of quiet progress. The church grounds have been improved by extensive filling and grading, and the addition of a bath room to the Rectory has contributed much to the comfort of the Rector and his family The financial record has been up to the average, and the Parish has maintained its usual activities. The Rev. Mr. Jones is to be commended for his continuous devotion to the work despite the heavy pressure of a great domestic strain upon his time and strength.

Calvary Parish, Stonington, reports a normal year of quiet work. The Rev. Mr. Mason continues his faithful labors here, and the annual report of the Treasurer shows a healthy condition financially. Under existing conditions in the town, the Parish is doing well to hold its own.

Grace Parish, Stafford Springs, under the Rev. Mr. Adams, has maintained all its usual activities and, in addition, has this past year organized a Men's Club, which has already proved of service to the Parish. The financial record is thought to have been the best in the history of this Parish.

St. James's Parish, Poquetanuck, under the Rev. Mr. Hooker, reports a good attendance at the services, the organization of an auxiliary choir of young people for the Sunday evening services, and the usual helpful activities of the Woman's Guild. The financial year has been well up to the average.

At St. Peter's, Hebron, and Calvary, Colchester, the Rev. Mr. Fitzgerald has continued to do, as in the past, good, faithful work. Beyond this here is little to be said. The work is practically one of sustentation, with little or no prospect of anything different, at least for some years to come. In both places the congregations are small, but faithful. Hebron gain reports more contributed for outside objects than for parochial expenses.

The work at Seabury Memorial, Groton, and Grace, Noank, under the charge of the Rev. Mr. Stewart, has been of a quiet, uneventful character during the past year. The usual services at both places have been well attended, but the congregations at Groton have suffered much from the cold. The heater is worn out and must be replaced before another winter. The Missionary has in hand about half the funds needed for this purpose.

The Rev. Mr. Moore has continued to maintain the usual services at Black Hall, Niantic, South Lyme and Millstone, and reports that, in most instances, the work is progressing favorably. At St. John's, Niantic, the chapel interior has been redecorated, and many improvements have been made to the furnishings, mostly the gifts of members of the Mission. At South Lyme the name of the Chapel has been changed from "Cedar Grove" to "St. Michael's." The attendance has been good at all the services, and in the summer the Chapel is frequently crowded. At Black Hall the name "St. Ann's" has been adopted. Here also a number of gifts have enriched the interior of the Chapel, including a brass altar desk and a lecturn bible. The Rectory has been improved at an expense of some two hundred dollars, and the Mission has volunteered to release one hundred dollars of the Missionary Appropriation for the coming year. The Missionary expresses the hope that the day of independent parochial life is not far distant.

The Archdeacon, assisted by the Rectors of the other Norwich Parishes and those of Yantic and Poquetanuck, has held the usual monthly service at Jewett City. The average attendance has been good, one candidate has been confirmed, and the Mission, though not apportioned, has contributed five dollars towards the diocesan Apportionment. Throughout the Archdeaconry the Parishes and Missions have been making extraordinary efforts to raise the full amounts of their Apportionments, and when the returns are all in there is sure to be a good showing.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Church Scholarship Society

TRINITY CHURCH, NEW HAVEN, June 15, 1910.

The annual meeting was held at the above time and place, the Rt. Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., President, in the Chair.

The Secretary presented the following

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

During the past year the good work of the Church Scholarship Society has continued very much as in recent years. Eighty-two Parishes and Missions have contributed $588.19 in accordance with canonical requirements.

Notes have been repaid to the amount of $205.00. Ten students have been assisted in the pursuit of their studies for Holy Orders, with loans aggregating $950. It is gratifying to the Directors to notice that the movement recently inaugurated among the alumni of Connecticut's great University, Yale, to establish a Loan Fund for deserving students of good promise is a vindication of the method adopted by this Society more than seventy-five years ago. The Society can, therefore, make its appeal again this year with renewed confidence in the importance of its work as well as the wisdom of its method.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE T. LINSLEY, Secretary.

In the absence of the Treasurer the Secretary presented the Treasurer's Report. Both these Reports were accepted and ordered to be printed with the Journal.

The Secretary made the following statement of action taken by the Board of Directors:

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Church Scholarship Society, held in Hartford on December 16, 1909, it was unanimously voted that the Code of By-laws and Regulations adopted by the Society on June 9, 1875 [see Journal for 1875, pp. 136, 137], be altered, and the following By-laws and Regulations of the Board of Directors be recommended to be adopted at the annual meeting of the Society in June, 1910.

BY-LAWS AND REGULATIONS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. The Board of Directors shall hold two regular meetings each year; one in December before the Christmas vacation, and the other not more than two weeks before the Annual Diocesan Convention. Special meetings may be called by the Secretary when necessary. Five members shall con-titute a quorum. Every meeting shall be opened with prayer. At least ne week's notice shall be given of all meetings.

2. The Board shall decide on every application for aid from the ociety; but no application shall be entertained unless accompanied by atisfactory testimonials of piety, talent and necessitous circumstances.

The Candidate must possess such physical ability as may be a guarantee f future usefulness in the ministry and must maintain a scholarship of our-fifths of the standard in the institution where he pursues his studies, nless for urgent reasons the Board sees fit to modify this requirement mporarily.

3. The President of the Society shall be the Chairman of the Board of irectors. The Secretary of the Society shall be the Secretary of the oard of Directors.

4. The Treasurer shall pay out the funds of the Society only by vote f the Board and on the written order of the Secretary, and shall take roper notes or receipts for the same as his vouchers. He shall, at every nnual Meeting of the Society and oftener if required by the Board, ake a written Report of the financial condition of the Society. He shall lso, under the direction of the Board, have the general management of he funds of the Society.

5. These rules may be altered by vote of the Board, but such alteraion must be proposed at one meeting and adopted at a subsequent meeting.

On motion of the Secretary it was Resolved, That the Code of By-laws and Regulations as altered by vote f the Board of Directors on December 16, 1909, be approved and adopted y this Society, and printed with the Journal.

†The balance of the Apportionment for Diocesan Missions had already been paid in the preceding fiscal year.

The decrease in the number of Families, Baptized Persons and Communicants is the result of very careful and thorough investigation of the records, and comparison with actual present conditions. The "100 lost by removal and otherwise" consist of persons all of whom have long since ceased to have any connection with the Parish,—some have disappeared from sight, others have lapsed completely, and some have moved to other places. The statistics given above are accurate, so far as it was possible to make them so.

III. OFFERINGS FOR GENERAL PURPOSES
General Missions, ...	$24.55
S. S. Offering for Missions, ...	9.78
Total, ...	$34.33
GRAND TOTAL, ...	$422.87

Infirm Clergy Fund and Offering for Missions, also S. S. Offering for Missions paid since the close of our Church year, Easter Monday.

Two eucharistic lights have been given to the Mission by friends and were used for the first time on Quinquagesima Sunday. Also a handsome white burse and veil were presented to the Mission by one of the members, Mrs. Benson. A Branch of the Girls' Friendly Society has been started during the year and at the present time is in a flourishing condition. A memorial fund has been started for a chalice and paten in memory of the late Lay Reader, Mr. Harry Huet. The Mission is very deeply indebted to the Rev. Dr. Hart for priestly ministrations during the year.

In this report the present number of Communicants is reported as 39, but it is only right to add that of this number the Mission will lose 6 in the very near future, by removal from town.

The amount expended for the Sunday School, $39.45, is not included in Treasurer's report, because the Sunday School is self-supporting and its expenses have nothing to do with the church treasury. The Sunday School gave an Advent Offering of $2.25 and a Lenten Offering of $20.

The choir has been enlarged. Plans are now on foot to establish a vested choir and money has been raised for the purpose of buying new choir stalls.

On May 8, the Sunday after Ascension Day, the 175th anniversary of the Parish was celebrated. In the morning the Bishop was present and made an address, and in the afternoon the Rev. Samuel Hart, D.D., preached an historical sermon.

On the same day the Bishop consecrated St. John's Church, East Hampton, erected in memory of the Rev. Edward Harold Fitzgerald. A marriage was solemnized in this Church on Jan. 15th while the building was in an unfinished state. It was completed and opened for public worship on March 13th, and consecrated on the date above mentioned.

The lot, 120 x 150, was given a few years ago by the heirs of the late F. D. Edgerton, M.D., and in his memory a 450 lb. bell was given by Mrs. Edgerton. Prayer Book and Hymnal for chancel use were given by Mrs. Katherine Spalding, and a brass alms basin by Mrs. Henrietta C. Eliot. In memory of W. D. Babcock, M.D., vases and eucharistic candlesticks were given by Mrs. Babcock, and a brass lectern by Mrs. W. S. Peckham. The altar service was given by the Rev. John H. Fitzgerald in memory of his son. The Babies' Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary gave the font. Most of the chancel furniture was received from Grace Church, Windsor, and other pieces of old furniture in good condition from various Parishes and individuals.

The amount reported above for repairs was spent on the Rectory at Middle Haddam, and the Ladies' Guild have about a hundred dollars on hand for further improvements.

During the year the Parish has lost by death its Junior Warden,—Amasa D. Kellogg; two of its oldest Communicants,—Mary Gardner McLean and Catherine Osborne Taylor, lifelong friends and benefactors of the Parish; also its efficient and faithful Lay Reader at East Hampton, Philip James Flanders.

The Parish in the Town of Plymouth is of a threefold aspect: an old Church, St. Peter's, in Plymouth; old St. Matthew's in East Plymouth, with no vestry and only two strictly church families; and a Mission at Terryville.

At Terryville, St. Mark's Mission is active and prospering, but is in need of a church building. It is almost a certainty, however, that a Church will shortly be erected, as through the faithful and unaided efforts of a few in the Mission a lot has been purchased at the cost of $600 and a nucleus of $500 is on hand towards a building fund. Receipts for current expenses, $138.22; expenditures, $138.

The Rector also respectfully reports that he has continued for the third year the Sunday afternoon services in the Union Chapel at Saybrook Point. Though in the opening part of this year especially there has been a very great deal of sickness, and one death, greatly mourned, which threatens to weaken the work, the attendance keeps up well. The expenses have been liberally met. The improvements on the interior of the Chapel, reported in progress last year, have been finished with most pleasing and satisfactory results at the expense of three hundred dollars and are paid in full.

Trustees:—ROBERT N. JACKSON, WILLIAM L. MATSON

The services are supported by voluntary offerings from the worshippers, the members of other Denominations kindly contributing and assisting in the music. This summer the Clergymen officiating will include the Rev. Doctors Luther and Harriman, the Rev. Messrs. Bradin, Brewster, Putnam and others. Arrangements are made by a Committee of cottagers consisting of Messrs. George E. Bulkley, Oliver R. Beckwith and J. H. Kelso Davis, all of Hartford.

The services by Priests of the Russian and Greek Orthodox Churches are continued once a month, as last year, in St. Luke's Chapel. Dr. Chamberlain also officiates occasionally in St. John's for the deaf mutes of Stamford and vicinity.

The enlargement of the Parish House was accomplished during last summer at a cost of over $14,000. Two of the new rooms, the sacristy and vestry, are given as memorials to Miss Julia Merritt. The enlargement and many gifts both large and small have made the building most complete and useful. There remains but $2,000 yet to be paid.

Regular monthly Sunday evening services are continued in Hurlbutt street, South Wilton, North Wilton and Georgetown.

The mode of heating the Church was changed from the unsatisfactory hot air system to a steam-heating plant, giving very gratifying results. A new pipe organ was built in the Church last November and paid for in full by popular subscription, added to a nucleus of $630.

On Easter a pure-toned Meneely memorial bell weighing a thousand pounds was presented by Mr. Frederic J. Middlebrook and rung that morning for the first time by the donors. It bears the inscription "Given in loving memory of Sarah Lockwood, wife of Samuel B. Middlebrook, by her children, Easter, 1910."

Another Easter memorial gift was a handsomely embossed and engraved receiving alms basin from Mrs. N. M. Belden in memory of her mother, Mrs. J. B. Stocking.

One box valued at $47 was sent by the Woman's Auxiliary, and another valued at $48.50 by the Woman's Auxiliary and Junior Auxiliary.

BUILDINGS

Churches (including 2 disused), 174. Chapels, (usually with Churches,) 31. Mission Chapels, 17. Summer Chapels, 3. Parish Houses, 77. Parish Rooms, 32. Rectories, 127. Other Buildings, 10. Total (including 11 loaned or hired), 471.

NOTE.—The Parish Rooms and two of the Chapels are not separate buildings.

"Sittings" and "Free Sittings" are given as last reported, usually in 1899, but sometimes earlier or corrected later. These items, being permanent and not changing annually, were omitted from the form for Parochial Report by the Convention of 1899, on the understanding that the Secretary would publish them in a separate list. Where no Sittings are reported, there is no building completed and belonging to the Parish or Mission. "Current Expenses (including Salaries)" are tabulated for convenience in making the assessments based upon them. "Communicants" have been added this year, for similar reasons.

The information about Buildings was first added, by request of the Convention, in 1906; and was obtained by inquiring of the various Rectors. Since then the changes have been noted by the Secretary, so far as reported in any way; and this year the list has been corrected by comparison with the Wardens' Reports to the Bishop, (on value of Church Property, etc.,) supplemented by special inquiries in cases of doubt. The Secretary will be grateful for further corrections, if needed.

The work is among adults, as the deaf children and youths are in the various special schools for their education during about ten months of the year. During the summer we have called on the Protestant deaf mute children whenever possible.

The pastor does not aim to establish a mute mission Church, or Chapel in any place in this Diocese, but rather to coöperate with the Rectors who have deaf folks in or near their Parishes. Many of the Connecticut deaf are interested in St. Ann's Church for the deaf, New York City, and attend there occasionally, especially those living west of New Haven. The deaf throughout this Diocese are encouraged to affiliate with that special and long established Parish for the deaf, and when possible to go there for confirmation. The Clergy of St. Ann's have occasionally assisted us in our work and have the wisdom of long experience.

In addition to this special work among the deaf we have on occasion been of some use to the Rectors of St. Paul's Church, New Haven, and of Christ Church, Hartford, taking their minor services during absence or illness. We have had the kindly coöperation of the Rectors of these Churches in our own particular work, as well as the Rectors of St. John's, Waterbury, St. Paul's, Bridgeport, and Church of the Good Shepherd and of Trinity Church, Hartford. Some of the ladies of Christ Church, Hartford, have taken special interest in this work.

A large part of the money contributed and paid through the Diocesan Missionary Treasurer, Mr. Burton Mansfield, was obtained by the efforts of Mr. J. G. Estill, M.A., of Lakeville, Conn., and assisted by Mrs. Mary B. Brainard of Hartford, and Mrs. N. R. Luther of Buffalo, N. Y., and a few other hearing people who have some knowledge of and much sympathy for the limitations of deaf-mute life, and who do and give for Christ's sake.

The deaf themselves have given when giving meant genuine self-denial, as we deaf are generally of the Lord's poor folk, so far as money goes.

Our heartiest thanks are also due to yourself as Bishop, for your counsel and continual help in this new work undertaken here in Connecticut, for the deaf.

For these mercies and for many others we are profoundly thankful. May God the Holy Spirit guide us further and always.

G. H. HEFFLON,

Missionary to the Deaf Mutes in the Diocese of Connecticut.

HARTFORD, June 1, 1910.

American Church Building Fund.—The Convention of 1887 recommended annual contributions from every congregation to be sent to Mr. George Gordon King, Treasurer, 281 Fourth Avenue, New York.

Bishop's Fund.—For the support of the Bishop and to increase the Fund, an Assessment is levied upon every Parish and Mission, payable January 1, 1911,—one and one-half per cent. on the amount reported for the preceding year for "Current Expenses (including Salaries)." (See page 64.) Offerings are also desired to increase the endowment. Remit to Mr. Robert W. Huntington, Jr., Treasurer, Hartford, Conn.

Church Scholarship Society.—Annual Collection required by Canon VIII., to be sent to Mr. Ward C. Powell, Treasurer, Hartford, Conn. The Society makes loans to Divinity Students at Trinity College and the Berkeley Divinity School.

Clergyman's Retiring Fund.—Annual Assessment levied by Canon XI. upon every Parish,—fifty cents for every one hundred dollars of the "Current Expenses" of the preceding year, to be sent before June 1 to Mr. Benjamin R. English, Treasurer, New Haven, Conn.

Convention Fund.—Assessment levied by Resolution upon every Parish, one per cent. on the "Current Expenses" of the preceding year, to be sent on or before May 1 to Mr. John H. Sage, Treasurer, Portland, Conn. (See page 64.)

Diocesan Missions.—Two Collections annually required by Canon VIII. The amount expected of each Parish is apportioned by the Archdeaconry, and is to be sent to its Treasurer.

General Clergy Relief.—The Convention of 1882 recommended Rectors to set aside some part of the Communion Alms or other charitable offerings for what is now called "The General Clergy Relief Fund." It aids Infirm Clergymen and Widows and Orphans of Clergymen in all parts of the American Church. Remit to the Rev. Alfred J. P. McClure, Treasurer, The Church House, 12th and Walnut Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

General Missions, Domestic and Foreign.—The amount desired from each congregation is determined by the Diocesan Committee on Apportionment. (See page 46.) Remit to Mr. George Gordon King, Treasurer, 281 Fourth Avenue, New York.
